WRITING POETRY OF MOTION — ON ICE

Prime favorite to capture the fancy skating events is carried out with the same effortless grace and in the Winter Olympics at Lake Placid, N Y., is rhythm that distinguished the performances of the Sonja Henie, the Norse ice artist who is a living combination of agility, grace and beauty. A glance at the above photos is sufficient explanation as to the reason for Miss Henie being called "the Pavlowa of the Ice," for her every movement on skates rhythm that distinguished the performances of the famous dancer. Miss Henie holds five skating titles, among them being the figure-skating championship of the world. It is generally predicted by experts that she will retain her title at the forthcoming international contests.

MARRIAGE MYSTERY SOLVED?

The mysterious "Hector MacNeal" who became the new hubby of Edith Gould Wainwright, the former Edith Gould of the prominent New York society family, is believed to be Sir Hector Murray Mac-Neal, British shipping magnate. The marriage was performed in Reno, Nev., recently, a few hours after the society beauty had obtained a divorce from her former husband, Carroll Livingston Wain-
