B. & P. W. Club is Entertained

Mrs. F. L. Waters entertained members of the Business and Professional Women's club at her home Friday night. Miss Julia Webster and Miss Grace Williams assisted Mrs. Waters.

Present were Miss Merle Dimick, Mrs. Clara Pomeroy, Miss Olga Larson, Miss Myrtle Reeves, Miss Daisy Hayden, Miss May Cleveland, Miss Juana Holmes, Mrs. Maude Pointer, Miss Josephine Shade, Miss Edith Burch, Mrs. Mona Yoder, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Miss Ruth McAdams, Miss Helen Smith, Dr. Mary Purvine, Mrs. Lillian Cadwell and Mrs. Waters.

Miss Edith Burch will be hostess to the group March 4 at her home in the Moore apartments. Miss Merle Dimick will be the assisting hostess.

Cloverdale—Mrs. William Anderson was hostess for the W. C. T. U. at her home Wednesday, where an institute was combined with the regular meeting. Mrs. Neela Buck and Mrs. Helen Prescott of Salem were present. The president, Mrs. A. A. Dunbeck, conducted the business and Mrs. F. Cook gave inspiring devotionals during the morning. Several topics were discussed among them being "Comparison of Alcohol to Opium on the body," by Mrs. F. Schifferer and "How Can We Advertise the effect of Alcohol," by Mrs. Buck.

The institute was opened in the afternoon by Mrs. J. Morris who conducted devotionals after which followed dedication services of five white ribbon recruits: Carol J. Stanley, Betty J. Kenneth Jr., and Norma J. Russell and Gladys L. Davis.

Mrs. Buck talked of the 60th anniversary in 1933-34. She told in an interesting way of her visit to the home of Frances Willard, especially describing her office where hangs on the wall what she used as her life's motto, "Let Something Good Be Said."

In her lecture "The Challenge of the Hour," she traced the liquor traffic from the first saloon in Boston established five years after the Pilgrims landed and of trouble and dissatisfaction caused by the people selling it, to the problems of today.

Scio—Mrs. George L. Sutherland was hostess Thursday afternoon to the "As You Like It" club, at her home south of Scio. There were 17 members present. Additional guests included Mrs. Ross Ray, Mrs. Arch Ray, Maxine Blyen, Miss Jeanette Haynes of Los Angeles, and Jerry Ray. A dainty two course luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ross Ray and Mrs. E. P. Cadwell.

The next meeting of the club will be in the form of a leap year party—when the women will entertain their husbands with a chicken dinner followed by a program. This meeting will be Feb. 22 at the Arnold school house.

Eldridge—Members of the intermediate Sunday school class were entertained Saturday night at the home of their teacher, Mrs. F. R. Nusom.

Present were Clara Faust, Melvin Brown, Robert Sharf, Cora Marie Parks, Robert Runcorn, Dale Fuller, Bonnie Belle and Junior Miller, Fred Sahli, Virginia Sahl, George Smith and Lela Woods.

Mrs. Ralph Kietzing will open her home to members of the Chi Delta chapter of Delphians Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Topics will have to do with German and English paintings, and will be given by Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mrs. R. M. Waltz, Mrs. R. H. Kietzing, Mrs. F. S. Anunsen, and Mrs. L. D. Lambeth. Mrs. Karl Heinlein will have charge of the current event topics.

Liberty—The Woman's club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Stacey. A very interesting paper on pioneer Oregon was read by Mrs. Roy Farrand.

Mrs. Roy V. Olmstead of Salem was a special guest and read excerpts from the book "Autobiography and Reminiscences" by Sara Cummings, her grandmother, who came to Oregon via the Old Oregon trail in 1854. Mrs. Olmstead also presented a copy of the book to the club. She also exhibited copies of newspapers of pioneer days and the Bible carried by her grandmother on her trip to Oregon.

The sum of $2 was voted to the Salem Woman's club scholarship fund. The Washington's birthday program has been postponed. The club plans to put on the annual play and program March 25.

In connection with the school's Washington program the club will observe the bicentennial by planting two trees on the school grounds.

Hazel Green—The Christian Endeavor society enjoyed a Valentine social at the G. G. Looney home Friday night. Various games appropriate to the season were arranged by social committee, Kenneth Barnett and Hazel Cook.

Those present were Iola Luckey, Alice Cook, Marjorie Bliss, Nora Rutherford, Helma Barnett, Hazel and Stella Cook, La Roy Van Cleve, Author Clemens, Julius Deering, Kenneth Barnett, Cecil Luckey, Guy Allen and Glen Looney, Rev. S. E. Long, and Mr. and Mrs. Looney.

Aurora—Mrs. Hannah Hunt, president of the ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, quickly disposed of an accumulation of business matters at the regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon, and the unusually large number present gave attention to a reading by Mrs. Clara Atkinson of a true mission story, "God and the Census" by Robt. N. McLean, chapters of which are followed with interest at each meeting. Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Grafton of Gervais were present.

Talbot—Mrs. Wm. Wiederkehr was hostess to the Ankeny Women's club Thursday. Roll call was answered by Mrs. Geo. Marshall, Mrs. J. D. Farr, Mrs. Swartz, Mrs. Eugene Finlay, Mrs. R. H. Farr, Mrs. L. B. Smith, Mrs. C. F. Johnston, Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Wiederkehr.

The amusement hour was spent in an imaginary trip around the world, which is to be a feature of each meeting. The members in turn tell about the most important cities.

North Santiam—The Woman's sewing club had its regular meeting Thursday afternoon when a quilt was finished. The next meeting, Feb. 18, will be an all day meeting with a pot luck luncheon at noon.

What was intended to be merely a contest for a small club's title is developing into an event of major importance to millions of people throughout the entire world!

Public interest in the coming amateur boxing contest between Casper and Col. Hooper for the championship of the good-fellows club has gained momentum until it now is world-wide!

Luncheon Honors Young Guest

Miss Jeanne and Miss Marie Patton entertained with a luncheon and afternoon of bridge at the Hal Patton home Saturday afternoon in compliment to Miss Ruth Briedwell, who leaves soon with her parents to make her home in Portland.

Covers were placed for Miss Briedwell, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Betty Reed, Miss Betty Stuart, Miss Iris Jorgensen, Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Margaret Bell and Miss Jean and Miss Marie Patton.

A delightfully informal afternoon of bridge followed the luncheon hour.

Patriotism Will Mark Two Gatherings

Two large affairs of the week will be inspired by the birthdays of American patriots.

Friday afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will observe a "Lincoln day" tea at the Woman's clubhouse. All patriotic orders are invited and the interested public is asked to call and pay respect to the name of one of the country's patriots.

The past presidents are in charge of the affair and Miss Emma Swadlow is general chairman, with Mrs. O. H. Horning assisting her.

The second large meeting with the patriot Washington as the inspiring motive for the program is the Salem Woman's club which will meet Saturday afternoon at the clubhouse. Principal Fred Wolfe of the Salem High school will be the speaker.

Salem Heights—The Salem Heights Woman's club met at the community hall Friday with a good attendance. After the business session the program followed with Miss Hashe Watanabe of Salem singing the Pilgrims chorale in Japanese accompanied by Miss Gladys Edgar on the piano, this was followed by a piano solo by Miss Watanabe. Mrs. Jay Morris, speaker of the day, gave a talk on home life in Japan. She was in Japanese attire. Mrs. Morris had spent two years in Japan where she was teacher of English in Tokyo. Dr. Dorothy Reed, assistant secretary of the national council for peace, gave a talk on peace.

Wallace Road—The Sweet Briar club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. C. Pettys on the Wallace Road. Mrs. E. O. Moll, president, presided.

Taking part in the program were Mrs. A. E. Uley, Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, Miss Edith Ross and Mrs. C. A. Kells of Salem.

Mrs. Pettys was assisted by Mrs. A. H. Burns and Mrs. A. Noyes.

Special guests were Miss Edith Ross, Mrs. C. A. Kells, Mrs. Mildred Nash and Mrs. A. Noyes.
