Church Wedding In Brilliant Affair

Miss Ruth Coffeen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Coffeen of McMinnville, and Richard Kriesel, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kriesel were married in a lovely church ceremony at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon in the First Congregational church, Rev. J. Rupert Simonds read the impressive ceremony.

The bridal party took its place before the altar which had been banked with palms, potted flowers, and pussywillows, while Mrs. Robert Gaskin of Corvallis played the processional. Before the ceremony Mrs. Harry Harms sang "Because" and "At Dawning."

The bride was dressed in a grey travel suit, the smartness of which was accentuated with blue fox fur. Blue accessories and a bouquet of forget-me-nots and pink rosebuds completed her ensemble. Miss Ida Mae Smith, aunt of the bride, gave her in marriage. Miss Velma Morgan of Portland, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a chic blue ensemble and carried roses made into an arm bouquet.

Mr. Kriesel was attended by his cousin, Roy DuBois of Vancouver, Wash.

Following the wedding service Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kriesel entertained with a reception at their home with about 45 intimate friends and relatives present to greet the bride and groom.

Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Roy DuBois, Sr., of Vancouver, Mrs. Ray Yokum of Portland; cutting ices were Miss Effie Smith of Monmouth and Mrs. Fred Barton of Portland. Assisting in serving were Miss Irma Bolander, Miss Helen Falbe, Miss Edna Faust, and Miss Helen Marcus.

Following a wedding trip into California, Mr. and Mrs. Kriesel will be at home in their new residence on North 17th street.

Mrs. Kriesel attended Oregon State college where she was affiliated with the Sigma Kappa sorority. She graduated in pipe organ and took post graduate work in the University of Oregon. She has been organist at the First Congregational church for some time.

Mr. Kriesel is a graduate of Oregon State college where he was a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon. He graduated in mining engineering and is now a member of the state house staff.

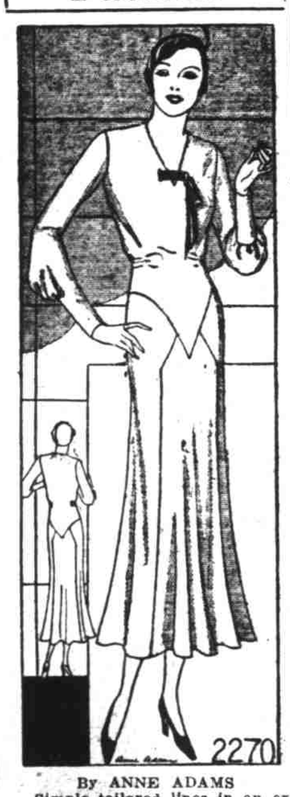
Pattern



By ANNE ADAMS

Simple tailored lines in an exquisite afternoon frock that is oh, so easy to make. The moulded bodice extends into the smartly styled skirt godets, back and front, causing slender, becoming lines. The sleeves are extremely chic with snug cuffs and graceful puffs at the elbow. A pert bow is pulled through slashes in the bodice, affording delightful contrast. The original was fashioned of grey crepe, the bow was orange satin.

Pattern 2270 is obtainable only in sizes 16 to 20 and 34 to 44. Size 16 requires 4 1-8 yards of 39 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new spring fashion catalog is now ready. This beautiful, colorful book offers 32 pages of chic, authentic Anne Adams styles for adults and children. The newest frocks for afternoon, evening and sports wear, exquisite lingerie, attractive house dresses and adorable kiddie models are featured—all personally chosen by Anne Adams and all fashionable, practical and easy and inexpensive to make. Send for your copy. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents. Address all mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.
