

Weary Bearcats Finally Come to Life and Win 42 to 33

CARPENTER IS SCORING STAR

Veteran Gallops While all Team Mates Fail to hit Loop; Loggers Dead

Worry lest the Bearcats never would get going Saturday night supplanted in the minds of Willamette rooters the previous night's fears that College of Puget Sound never would be stopped. Percy Carpenter was "going" right from the start and even though Willamette's starting forwards and center didn't make a point in the first half, Carpenter and a couple of reserves kept the home team in the running.

Fortunately for Willamette, the Loggers were also "off" Saturday night, and when Coach Keene's men finally did get in motion they acquired a safe lead. The men who failed in the first half redeemed themselves in that second half rally. Constant whistle tooting played a part in preventing both teams from hitting their stride.

Carpenter Gives W. U. Early Lead
Evidently Carpenter heard the battle cry before the start of the game this time for the old war horse, who always seems to come through in the pinches, nicked the basket for a couple of goals at the start and the Bearcats jumped into an 8 to 2 lead.

Close checking of fouls, combined with weariness of the players, slowed the game down considerably over Friday's game and neither side was able to hit the basket.

When Carlson entered the game for the Loggers, the tide of the battle turned. This sturdy Logger, who was solid as a donkey engine and easily the heaviest man on the floor, scored six points in less than 10 minutes, bringing Puget Sound into a 16 to 15 lead at half time.

Carlson continued his shooting antics like a regular backwoods marksman and took high scoring honors for his side, getting four field goals and converting five of six attempted gift shots.

Rieke Stops Carlson Gets Some Himself
The chapter of the game headed "Carlson" changed when Bud Rieke entered the game to "dog" him. Rieke not only spoiled Carlson's aim, but chalked up three field goals in rapid succession on follow-up shots to put Willamette into the lead again after the Bearcats had trailed for five minutes.

Carpenter continued his net nicking and by the time the game was finished, had seven field goals to his credit and also two more which were disallowed because of walking. Referee Strimtmater did not allow the two steps permitted after catching the ball while jumping.

The Bearcats showed the effects of having played two other speedy conference games during the week.

HUSKIES CROWDING COUGARS FOR LEAD

SEATTLE, Feb. 13—(AP)—Championship hopes of the University of Washington basketball team in the northern division Pacific coast conference became exceedingly bright here tonight when the Huskies conquered the University of Idaho, 47 to 34, while Oregon was defeating Washington State college, league leaders, at Eugene, 24 to 21.

Oregon's surprising two-game sweep over the Cougars last night and tonight, and Washington's double victory over Idaho the same nights sent the Huskies within one contest of Washington State. The Cougars now have eight victories and three defeats, while the defending champion Huskies hold down second place with eight wins and four losses.

The Cougars have five games left to play and Washington four, with the two teams meeting in Seattle, Feb. 26 and 27.

Oregon Rips Dope Sheet to Ribbons by Beating Cougar Third Time; Score is 24-21

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 13—(AP)—Performing the unexpected again, the University of Oregon defeated Washington State college, 24 to 21, in a Pacific coast conference basketball game here tonight. The score at the half was 12 to 10 for Washington State.

Oregon now holds three victories over the Cougars, winning here last night, 24 to 22, and taking one of two games played earlier in the season at Pullman. Washington State has been defeated by Nother Northern division team this season. Tonight's game, however, made no change in the Northern division standings.

The score was tied several times during the wildly exciting game. With seven minutes left to play, Lovoff, Oregon forward, made a run of six points to put the Webfoots ahead, 21 to 19.

The Cougars came back with a furious drive but Oregon's determined stand checked them.

WASHINGTON DINNER SLATED WEDNESDAY

John H. Carkin, president of the men's council of the First Methodist church of this city, reports a very satisfactory response to the general invitation extended by the council to both men and women of this vicinity to attend the banquet in honor of George Washington next Wednesday evening.

An excellent dinner has been planned by the chef in charge and only a nominal charge of 50 cents will be made. The principal attraction of the evening will be an address by Wallace McCamant, formerly a justice of the supreme court of this state, universally acknowledged to be well qualified to speak on this subject.

It will be remembered that Judge McCamant placed in nomination for president of the United States. He has been prominent in patriotic circles of the state for many years and has been especially identified with the order of the Sons of the American Revolution.

A full program of music and singing will ably support the address of Judge McCamant. Reservations for the banquet may be obtained before Tuesday evening by telephoning John H. Carkin, Rev. B. Earle Parker, or Judge O. W. Emmons, in charge of the reservations.

Bridge Job Brings Trio Of Petitions

SILVERTON, Feb. 13—Considerable interest has been awakened here this week by the circulation of three petitions for three different projects to build the James Avenue bridge. This bridge was condemned some time ago and the city council had agreed to consider bids on various types of bridges.

The three petitions each urged the use of a different material for the bridge construction. One was for wood, another steel and the third concrete.

The lumber petition, it is said, carried the greatest number of signers. By Thursday night 450 had placed their names on this petition. The argument of those favoring the wood was that a home product could be used, economy and home men employed to erect the bridge.

The petitions will have no effect on the decision of the city council, it is understood. The council will hold a special meeting in the near future to make the decision.

Five Men Held After Alleged Drunken Party

Five men alleged to have participated in a liquor drinking party were held in the city jail Saturday. Arrested early in the day on a charge of being drunk, they were put in the jail to recite their joys and sorrows to one another, which they did, sounds emanating from the place indicated.

The jail was not at all a strange place for Claude Johnson of Salem, one of the alleged drunks. At noon he was released from the jail, after he had paid Judge Mark Paulsen a $10 fine for being drunk the night before. By 3 o'clock he was back in jail again on the same charge.

The other four men were: Everett K. McGlendon of Portland, and Harry Bunzo, Bill Porter and Luke Bartlett of Salem.

JONES RETURNS TO MEET WOLF

Strawberry King Speedy as Ever; Indian to Make First Appearance

Once again the grand old sage of the wrestling arena Henry Jones himself, will appear in Salem, meeting Snarling Wolf at the army Tuesday night on Matchmaker Harry Plant's wrestling card.

Henry Jones, known as the Strawberry King from Provo, Utah, is perfection itself when it comes to applying the shoulder butt and whip wristlock. Matt Matheny, who referees wrestling bouts all the time, states that Jones is the best grappler at applying the combination shoulder butt and whip wristlock that he has ever seen.

Many grapplers use the shoulder butt, but few use it effectively. Likewise many use the whip wristlock and not all can apply it properly. But Jones is one grappler who holds a specialty. He brings his opponent in to his shoulder, gives the crushing blow which often carries a knockout and gives the opponent momentum for the whip wristlock which wrenches the arm, lands the head and neck solidly on the mat and throws the grappler off his equilibrium.

Toughy Wing Prepares to Face Cadena

Toughy Wing will head a boxing card to be staged at the armory Friday night where he will meet Ed Cadena, a speedy Mexican fighter.

Wing has been fighting long enough that he knows the classification of about all the ring performers going and states that Cadena is a slippery, heady boxer, but when he catches up with him the chille will fly.

In constant training, Toughy will weigh in at about 137 pounds which is 30 pounds lighter than he was for a while. Some say that his fighting days are over, but once before when they said that Toughy Wing fought 22 fights in as many weeks around San Francisco. At present Toughy is losing half a pound a day at the Club gymnasium where he is training hard.

Al Cadena is not a slouch performer, having boxed a draw with Teddy Fox recently in Portland. Incidentally Fox is going good now. Cadena throws lots of punches and endeavors to keep his opponent on the defensive most of the time.

TRENCH RATS WILL INSTITUTE DUGOUT

H. O. Hanes, Imperial golden rodent of the National Order of Trench Rats, fun organization of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, will head a delegation of officers and members of Portland dugout No. 54 which will institute a dugout at Salem on Wednesday, February 17. The Salem dugout will be the first to be organized in Oregon outside of Portland, and it is planned to organize other dugouts in various cities of the state.

Officers of the Portland dugout, who will make the trip are as follows: Pete Sabiston, golden rodent; Paul Doyle, silver rodent; Ervin Hanks, blue rodent; George Ballard, red-eyed gawner; Fred Pentz, iron claw; C. R. Rittenberg, bubonic plague; John Harp, black plague; and James Palmer, holey rat. The Portland degree team which will put on the work at Salem is composed of Walter Scott, Sidney Payne, Thomas Willart, Joe Zdenek, Dick Sperry and Milton Smith.

CHEMEKETANS WILL VISIT MOUNT HOOD

Seventy-seven people will make up the week-end party of the Chemeketans at Mt. Hood today. Sixty-five left yesterday just after noon, three more left last night, and nine planned to leave early this morning. This is the winter sports expedition of the Chemeketans and they have been invited to use the new Mazama lodge near Government Camp. The trip was arranged by the local walks committee of which Gladys Miller is chairman.

Last night a party was planned for the big living room of the lodge with its massive fireplace. The social committee arranged a program of songs and stunts. Today will be given over to snow sports, tobogganing, skiing and hiking over the snow.

Weather conditions yesterday gave promise of a fine day on the mountain. The party will return tonight.

Klamath Evens Up Series With Ashland Squad

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Feb. 13—(AP)—Klamath Falls high school evens its two-game series with Ashland high with a 21 to 18 victory here tonight. Captain Howell, star Lillian center, was held to one field goal.

AMERICA WINS WINTER GAMES

Scores 88 Points; Canada Noses out Hockey Title in Overtime Match

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 13—(AP)—The 1932 winter Olympic games came officially to an end this evening with Canada winning a bitter final day fight for the hockey championship, two Finns unexpectedly piling home through a blizzard to take first and second places in the 50 kilometres cross country ski marathon, and the United States leading in the unofficial score with 88 points.

It took the flashy Canadians, entering the final contest without a defeat in the Round Robin series of 12 games, three full overtime periods to stare off the bid of the United States stars, finishing in a 2-2 tie. A crowd of 5,000 jammed the indoor arena.

Salem Swim Team Winner At Portland

Winning tank meets is getting to be a habit of the Salem Y swimming team. The squad journeyed to Portland yesterday to meet the Central Y swimmers. The Portlanders were beaten by the fact James Reed star Salem swimmer, was ineligible on account of age.

As shown by the final score, the meet was a close one and for a time it appeared Portland would win. In the first event, the Central beat out the Salem squad for first place. Charles Reed and Robert Parker came to the rescue in the next event, breast stroke, and placed first and second, respectively.

The 220 yard dash proved the sensation of the meet. Win Needham, diminutive Salem high school swimmer, forged ahead of Doble, a star of the Portland Y and the Multnomah club. Doble is considered a likely prospect for the Olympic games competition.

Salem's divers, Donald Armstrong and Robert Haug, much younger and less experienced than the Portland plungers, showed up well and took second and third in the event.

Because the Portland team is held one of the fastest in the state, defeating it is considered a big plume in the Salem mermen's hats.

Golden Arrows Defeat Pirates

The Pirates, Y. M. C. A. boys "gang", yesterday were defeated at baraboo by the Golden Arrows, Portland Y. M. C. A. team, by a score of 19 to 14. Jack McTimpany is captain of the Pirates. The buccaneers are scheduled to play the Portland Mountaineers next Saturday.

BEARS THE FOR TOP

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 13—(AP)—Rolling up a 33 to 18 victory over Stanford university, the University of California basketball team tonight regained the top of the southern division standings in the Pacific coast conference, being Southern California for leadership by virtue of the Trojans' defeat at Los Angeles.

CURT COMMENTS

"Who's that ball you got out there?" inquired Roy Sandberg, College of Puget Sound coach, of Spec Keene while the Friday night game waxed warm. No names were mentioned but he seemed to be referring to a blonde young man with close cropped hair.

Sandberg seems to be another of those "good eggs" we have been finding among the Northwest conference coaches. He says there's really little to choose between Willamette and Whitman, but that the Missionaries will, under those circumstances, have considerable edge on their home court which is rather unusual in dimensions.

Yes, basketball is a strenuous game. But Coach Everett S. Dean of Indiana university has figured out some things about basketball which reveal that the players aren't spending as top speed for 40 minutes in each game, with only the between-halves rest. It may be self-evident, but we're giving his findings here, just in case you may want to paste them in your hat.

There are, on the average, 198 interruptions in a basketball game. Actual playing time averages 29 1/2 minutes.

Average playing time without interruptions is 16.3 seconds. Longest playing period in any game averages two minutes 22 seconds. Shortest averages one second.

Interruptions are caused, on the average, by 22 fouls, 31 center jumps, 19 jump balls, 38 out-of-bounds, 18 field goals and 14 successful free throws.

All this may help to explain why our gray hairs may still be soaring about a basketball court occasionally. We hadn't meant to mention it, but the news that we have started our 25th season of basketball seems to have spread.

Well anyway, it was 25 years ago that we started. There were three winters, while we were punching cows, that we didn't play any.

The northwest conference basketball race this season is the closest in years, even though Willamette and Whitman are out in the lead and undefeated. Friday night Pacific university led Whitman by two points at half time and the Missionaries snapped back into the lead at the end of the game and remain undefeated. Willamette trailed C. P. S. two points at half time on Friday and managed to win by five points and stay undefeated.

Of course everyone that knows there is a northwest conference also knows that Whitman has a young athlete named Buddy Aplegate. His latest achievement was to score 31 points in two games against Pacific. And he's been turning in scores of that size recently. After making 18 points the first game, Pacific must certainly have made special efforts to stop him the second time, but to no great avail.

The local stove leaguers are already pondering the serious problem with themselves as to who will guard Aplegate when Willamette meets Whitman. Most of them are of the opinion that either Don Faber or Wienie Kaiser could do the job satisfactorily and we know that either of them would be tickled to death to have the job, tough as it will be.

FRIENDS, BAPTISTS TO VIE FOR TITLE

As the result of games played yesterday afternoon, the Junior Sunday school basketball league teams of the Highland Friends church and the First Baptist church will vie for the league championship at the Y. M. C. A. next Saturday. Ten teams have participated in the league games.

In the A division playoff yesterday, the First Methodist team defeated the Highland Friends by a score of 19 to 14 but was obliged to forfeit the game because of using an ineligible player. The First Baptists vanquished their B division rivals, the First Christians, by a score of 18 to 6, earning the right to enter the league playoff.

The Y. Pioneers and the Knight Memorials, both out of the running, also played yesterday. The Knights won, 19 to 7.

Kenneth Fleming and Dan McCarthy have served as referees for the junior league games.

Aurora Defeats Liberty Teams

LIBERTY, Feb. 13—The Liberty school boys and girls basketball team were defeated by Aurora Friday night, 42 to 9. The girls were beaten by a close score, 24-21.

STRIKES and SPARES

J. W. "Pop" Lettwich, who took over the Capitol bowling alleys here this week, was given a nice sendoff by the sports department of the Ledger at Tacoma, where "Pop" was a veteran in bowling alley management. Says the Ledger:

"Pop" has managed the Broadway during a particularly trying period. To his efforts have been due the many improvements that have been made there. He has been highly successful as an organizer.

The departure of "Pop" Lettwich will be a distinct loss to the bowling sport in Tacoma. His heart has been forever in his task here, and the interest of the bowlers has always been carefully cared for. He will take with him the best wishes of his hundreds of friends for success in his new venture.

Bowling notes in the same issue of the Ledger reveal that Bill Lettwich, who accompanied his father here, is rated as one of the best bowlers in the northwest.

The state handicap tournament is scheduled for the Capitol alleys March 3, 4, 5 and 6. Entries for singles, doubles and five-man teams may be mailed to Ray Woodman, in care of the Oregon Bowling Allies at Portland, but after March 1 the headquarters for the tournament will be at the alleys here and entries will be received here.

BEARKITTENS BEAT LINFIELD FRESHMEN

The Willamette freshmen gave Linfield the second defeat of the week by defeating the Willamette babes 29 to 21 in a preliminary contest Saturday night at the Willamette gymnasium.

Coach "Les" Sparks' Bearkittens led 15 to 7 at half time and had a strong lead when Sparks sent in four reserve men just before the end of the third quarter. At this juncture the Linfield players took heart and dropped in a number of baskets, though few crumples.

Erickson was high scorer of the game with eight points.

Salem Loses To Rooks by 25-10 Score

Salem high school's usually smooth working attack failed almost totally in the game with the Oregon State Rooks at Corvallis Saturday, and though by dint of close checking the Cherrians led 7 to 6 at half time, they were smothered in the second half and lost 25 to 10.

Kelly failed to find the basket at all and none of his team mates scored more than one field goal. Barbano of the Rooks was the scoring ace with 10 points.
