Martha Washington Tea Woodburn Event

Woodburn — An outstanding event of the year, both for the Woodburn Women's club and the community, will be held Monday afternoon, February 22, when the annual Martha Washington tea will take place. The tea will be in the public library and serving will be from 2 to 5.

A special display of antique pieces of revolutionary and post-revolutionary days will be a feature of the tea. Some of the articles to be displayed are a spinning wheel (which Mrs. Himar Overton will demonstrate), a hand woven blanket which was brought to America in the seventeenth century; a "double Irish chain" quilt; a tea jar brought across the plains in 1848, and several pieces of needlework, all of which give a clearer conception of that period of American history.

A program has also been arranged. Those in charge are Mrs. V. D. Bain, Mrs. John Muir and Miss Mary Scollard. The program is: vocal solo, by Miss Helen Knight of Hubbard, accompanied by Miss Margaret Becker; a tap dance, by Corinne Gill, accompanied by Miss Jean Beck; a play, "The Reunion of Washington's negro Servants," by fifth grade students; a piano solo, by Mrs. Donna Dean; a double quartet of mixed voices, a high school presentation; two vocal solos, by Mrs. Paul Pemberton, accompanied by Miss Joyce Woodfin; songs by the Royal club trio; the members of which are Mrs. Lemor Mattson, Mrs. Charles Crooks, Mrs. J. Pelmluder and Mrs. Alex E. Pollard, with Mrs. A. E. Hudson accompanying at the piano. The high school will present several other numbers not listed on the program.

Past presidents of the Women's club will serve on the receiving committee. Mrs. W. J. Wilson has charge. The following committees have been appointed by Mrs. Elburn P. Sims, president: Table committee, Mrs. H. L. Gill, Mrs. Norman K. Richards, Mrs. E. J.
