Wedding is Pretty Event

MISS DOROTHY ROSS, daughter of Mrs. G. Ed Ross, became the bride of William Bowne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bowne, in an attractive wedding at the home of the bride's mother, Saturday night, Rev. W. Earl Cochran, of the Calvary Baptist church, read the solemn nuptials before a fireplace banked with palms and ferns, and on the mantel, tall cathedral tapers burned.

Music was an attractive part of the services with Miss Lollita and Miss Lorita Robinson singing "Oh From the Heart" and George Rhoten, sister of the bride, singing "I Love You Truly." These were accompanied by Louis Stutt, violinist, and Miss Helen Stutt, pianist. Miss Eva Cochran played the processional and recessional.

Miss Betty Merle Rhoten in a bouffant pink frock, was flower girl and small wedding rosette, Jr., was the sedate little ringbearer.

The bride was unattended. She wore an informal gown of two toned brown silk with tied tea roses and the valley.

A reception followed the wedding service. The serving table was a pretty study in yellow. Serving were Mrs. Webster Ross, Miss Marian Ross, Miss Edna Faust, Miss Dorotea Pickens, Mrs. Walker Brown, Mrs. Mary Arthur, Mrs. Helen Newby, and little Alice Rodgers. The wedding cake was distributed by Miss Mary Helen Arthur.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowne left late in the evening for a motor trip upon their return will be at home at Glenwood, Oregon.

Salem Woman's Club To Hear Miss Ney

The American homes department will have charge of the Saturday afternoon program of the Salem Woman's club, Mrs. T. J. Erbe, chairman of the committee, and announces that Miss Claribel Ney of Oregon State college will be the speaker for the afternoon and will take as her subject, "Homemaking a Profession."

In addition to this, Mrs. W. J. Mitchell is preparing a musical program which will include choruses from students in Salem schools. There will be the usual board meeting followed by a business meeting at 2:30 o'clock and the program at 3 o'clock.

Following the program Mrs. Ralph Cooley and her committee will serve tea. Assisting Mrs. Cooley are Mrs. George Rossmann, Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. F. A. Hunt, Mrs. Ora P. McArthur, Mrs. Howard H. Hulse, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. C. N. Laughridge, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. L. C. Marshall.

Colonial Tea Brilliant Event

THE only open meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution to be held during the year is the annual colonial tea, which this year will be held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Sprague, between the hours of 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

It is a custom of the organization to hold its "scholarship loan" teas as a colonial benefit affair and to this each year the people of Salem are invited. The funds derived from this tea are turned over to the scholarship loan fund and will aid girls in college who in many cases this year are unable to go on with their work unless they are able to get assistance.

Many of the hostesses, all of whom are members of the Chemeketa chapter, will be in colonial costume and it is expected that some of the guests will be able to call in costume.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. John H. Carlin, chairman; Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, Mrs. R. G. Baldersee, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. Ruth Rulifson, Mrs. W. W. Allen of Mill City, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Frances Cornell, Mrs. W. C. Conner, Mrs. Frank Settlemier of Woodburn, Mrs. J. W. Harbison, Mrs. Herbert J. Ostlund, Mrs. Alton D. Hurley, Mrs. Carey F. Martin, Mrs. Claude T. Ellison and Miss Edna Mings.

The guests will be met at the door by Lois Rulifson and Margaret Addison, assisted as George and Martha Washington.

In the receiving line Monday afternoon will be the past regents of Chemeketa chapter, Mrs. J. G. Heltzel, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. Homer Gouley, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. John W. Orr and the present regent, Mrs. William Fordey Fargo.

Assisting in the reception rooms will be Mrs. C. C. Best, Mrs. F. E. Sherwin, Mrs. Karl Steiner, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. Alton D. Hurley and Mrs. Claude T. Ellison.

Mrs. W. W. Allen and Mrs. J. W. Harbison will invite the guests to the dining room, where Mrs. U. G. Boyer and Mrs. Herbert Ostlund will be in charge.

Alternating at the tea urns during the afternoon will be, for the first hour, Mrs. J. Lyman Steed and Mrs. Loretta; for the second hour, Mrs. A. E. Austin and Mrs. J. P. Frizell; and for the last hour, Mrs. W. B. Johnston and Mrs. B. L. Steeves.

Those serving will be, for the first hour, Mrs. Frances Cornell, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith and Mrs. S. L. Minard; for the second hour, Mrs. R. G. Baldersee, Mrs. V. E. Newcomb and Miss Marguerite Looney; and for the third hour, Mrs. Carey F. Martin, Mrs. W. G. Conner and Miss Ruth Rulifson.

An attractive program has been planned and will be given at intervals during the afternoon.

Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist will sing a group of songs written during Washington's lifetime, which include "Beneath a Weeping Willow's Shade," "The Lullaby," and "The Bud of the Rose," and she will also sing the song which has been chosen as an anthem of the bicentennial celebration of Washington's birth, "The Father of the Land We Love." This was written by George M. Cohan especially for the bicentennial celebration.

Other numbers of the program include harp solos by Mrs. Vernon Day, "Medley of Old Airs," "Minuet" (Mozart), "In the Time of Roses" (Reichardt), and five-minute talks, "Mary Ball in Early Life," Miss Edna Mings; "Mary Ball, as Wife and Mother," Mrs. U. G. Shipley; "Mary Ball, in Later Life," Mrs. Frank W. Settlemier.

Sons of Union Veterans and its auxiliary will meet with Mrs. Hatie Cameron, 398 North 21st street Tuesday evening for a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock and this will be followed by an informal social evening. All members are invited to attend and each is asked to bring his own table service.

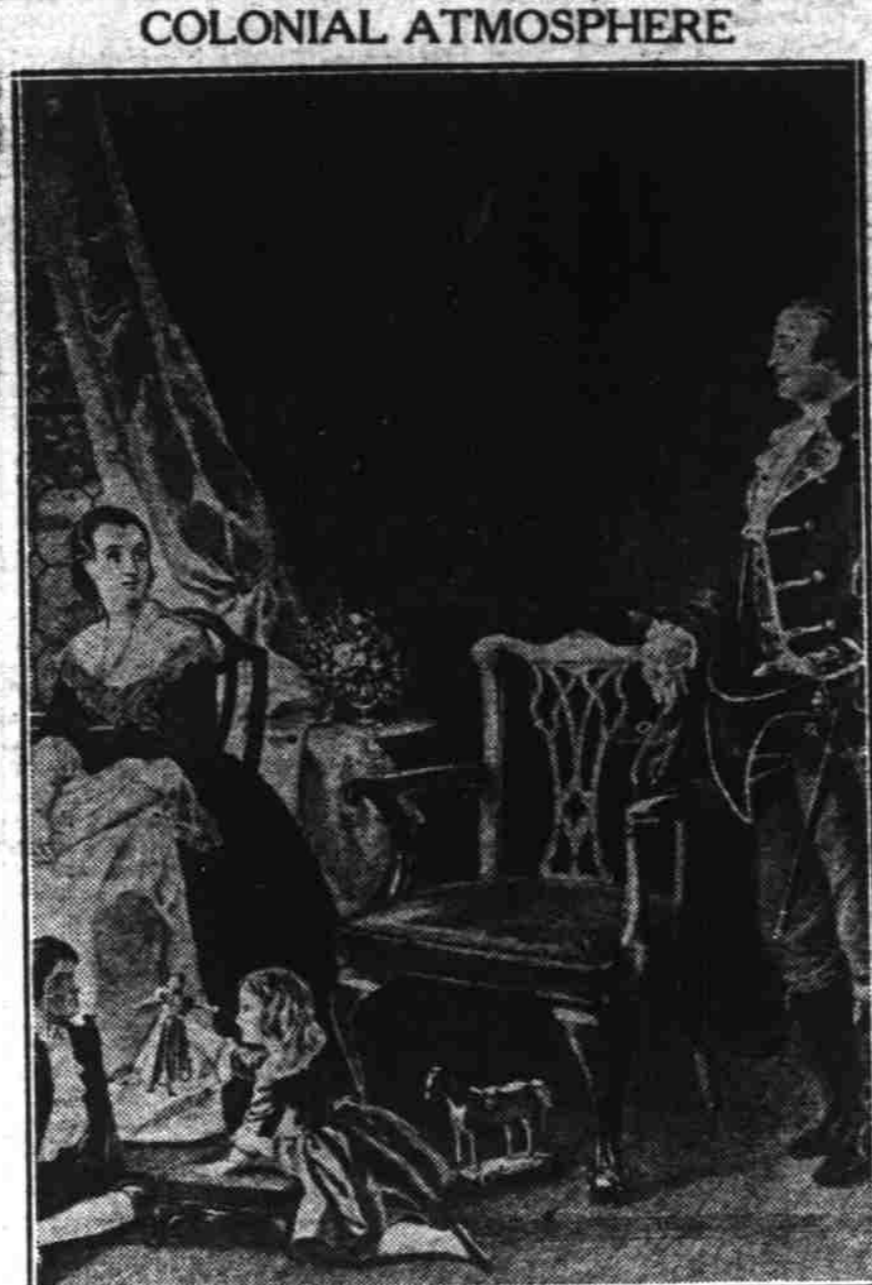

Members of the Oregon State Graduate Nurses association will meet at Salem general hospital at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Brown will be the speaker for the program meeting. Hostesses will be Miss Bada Erickson, Miss Sara Stewart, and Miss Nan Peterson.

Mrs. W. C. Heise entertained for her son Lynn Heise, Friday night with a dinner party. Mrs. Heise was assisted by Miss Doris McCallister in serving. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Lynn Heise, Charles Heltzel, George Fowler, Richard Cooley, Lois Campbell, Richard Devers, and Billy Dyer.

The Rappaterian club will be special guests of the Town and Gown club at its regular meeting Thursday at Lausanne hall. Each hostess club member is to bring a guest.

Mrs. K. H. Graver, Miss Priscilla Fry and Raymond Walsh of Eugene are leaving today to spend the weekend at Neskovin.

Mrs. Nell Balch was a Thursday evening bridge hostess at her home in the Royal Court apartment.

Beginning Monday the United States will observe with fitting pomp the birthday of her patron patriot, George Washington, and from then on until Thanksgiving day all over the nation respect and honor will be paid in various and sundry manners to the memory of this colonial hero. The group above shows Washington and Martha, his wife, and her children in an informal pose in their home.

Music Holds Important Place

MUSIC is delightfully joined with the spirit of spring and with the advent of this season of the year it appears that attractive programs are wont to come as naturally as the early flowers.

Saturday night the first of these spring concerts will be given by the Salem Symphony orchestra in the armory. Dalbert Jepsen, concert master, will also be soloist for this program. It is with interest that followers of the young and developing artists of Salem await this presentation of young Jepsen who has shown commendable talent.

Mrs. Vernon Day will supplement the orchestra strength for this concert with her harp. This will add a feature of much interest to the many followers of Mrs. Day in Salem.

The program to be presented is as follows:

Overture, "Post and Pesant" - Suppe
Intermezzo from "L'Arlesienne" - Saita
Fantasia Appassionata - Liszt
Prelude, Op. 28 No. 7 - Chopin
Evening Song - Schumann
Spring Orchestra
Selections from "Lohengrin" - Wagner
"Walther's Prize Song" from "Die Meistersinger" - Wagner-Wilhelm
Perpetuum Mobile - Riss
Dalbert Jepsen
Waltz from "The Fledermaus" - Strauss
March "Pomp and Circumstance" - Elgar
Orchestra

A second program of outstanding interest is the February MacDowell program to be given February 29 in the residence studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. It is being given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Law, and Mrs. Kenneth Dalton, accompanist, Miss Helen Price, of the school of music, Willamette university, will play a group of ultra modern and classical piano numbers.

The program as planned, includes:

Still as the Night - Bohm
Pleading - Kramer
A Legend - Quartet
La Serenata - Tosti
I Had Known You Dear - Cadman
Mr. and Mrs. Robertson
Crowd - Ortlies

Kobs, Osceola, Wis.; Edward Beecroft, and Ernest Beecroft, Salem; P. G. Beecroft, Riverside, Cal.; Charles Beecroft, Portland; Myrtle Beecroft, Salem; Earl Beecroft, San Francisco; Mrs. A. J. Smith, Jr., Los Angeles; and Vernie Beecroft, Salem.

Daleth Teth Gimel is Hostess

DALETH TETH GIMEL organization for women on Willamette university campus has been busy with initiation for the past few days and concluded this with a formal banquet in the Silver Grille of the Gray Belle Saturday night.

Covers for about 30 guests were placed at the banquet table, which made a beautiful effect with its many pink roses, pink tapers in pink holders, pink rose favors and menu cards in the shape of large pink roses.

Toasts were built about the theme of the development of a flower, Miss Harriet Sanders, freshman, responded on the topic of "seed"; Miss Blair Foley, sophomore, "the stem"; Miss Mylie Lower, junior, "the leaf"; and Miss Isabel Childs, senior, "the flower"; Miss Beulah Graham was toastmistress.

Miss Esther Girod, president of the organization, gave greetings; Mrs. J. Sparks, patroness, spoke briefly; Miss Doris Clark sang a group of solos, and Miss Olive Shurtz gave a group of piano numbers.

Miss Elizabeth Bishop, social chairman of the organization, was general chairman for the plans for the banquet.

Girls initiated into the Daleth Teth Gimel were: Edith Sidwell, Madeline Schmidt, Mrs. Daniel Schulze, faculty honorary member, LaForest McDonald, Harriet Sanders, Lydia Wilson, Percie Miles, Dorothy Kloopping, Delight Heath, Virginia Sprague, May Ringo, Lourine Findley and Olive May Shurtz.

Conference Plans Make Headway

The Northwest Regional Spring conference for Girl Reserves will open in Salem Friday and it is expected that between 150 and 200 girls will be in attendance.

The meetings will be held in the First Presbyterian church and will last during Saturday and Sunday, opening Friday evening for registration. It is being asked by local Y. W. C. A. authorities that any or all homes which can provide a room and breakfast for one or more of these girls will please get in touch with the local Y. W. C. A. organization. The rooms will be needed for two or three nights and two breakfasts will have to be provided.

The high school Reserves will meet this Wednesday at the Y. W. C. A. to work on handwork for conference supplies.

Other activities in Reserve circles include the five-year old meeting of the three Parish groups Tuesday afternoon, and the Leslie group will start its Washington project Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. D. B. Hill.

Washington Bridge Party Attractive

An attractive Washington's birthday party was observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl V. Pease on North 14th street Friday night. Bridge was in play for several hours with the winning scores being held by Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, and Carl Popel.

Guest rooms were attractively arranged with a decorative color scheme suggesting the patriotic idea and this was carried out effectively in the menu.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pease were Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Popel.

Mothers Honored With Tea

An attractive patriotic tea was given by members of the Washington Girl Reserves Saturday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. social rooms. Miss Helen Ney, advisor, assisted the hostesses, Mothers of the Reserves and teachers of Washington school, and Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, local Y. W. C. A. secretary, were guests of honor.

Miss Edith Davis, president of the group, met the guests at the door. Serving were Barbara Fisher, Doris Vincent, and Ocie Pitts. A program was given, the theme of which had to do with Washington's birthday. Betty Cries and Harriet Crawford danced a minuet in Colonial costume; "Betsey Ross" was sung by the Reserve group; Margaret Clare gave a piano solo; and Edith Davis gave a reading, "Washington as a Boy and Man."
