

DAMAGES SOUGHT DUE TO ACCIDENT

As the result of an accident in which cars driven by Donald Doerfler and Dorathe Pickens collided at High and Ferry streets, at which time Serena M. Anderson was injured, she is filing an action for damages totaling $12,548.65, against F. A. Doerfler, Donald Doerfler, Dorathe Pickens and L. C. Jackson.

She states that as a result of the accident she was thrown to the pavement by the car driven by Dorathe Pickens, and the front wheel ran over her. She claims that she received a spine injury which will permanently disable her, besides sundry cuts, bruises and torn ligaments.

Frank Doerfler is made a defendant since his son, Donald is a minor, and L. C. Jackson is named defendant as it is alleged that the car driven by Dorathe Pickens was owned by him. January 14 of this year is said to have been the time of the accident.

Ruth St. Denis, recognized as a "first lady" of dance, and a premiere danseuse internationally famous, staged the Cambodian attraction beginning today.

Most of the girls used in the large dance ensemble have been trained by Miss St. Denis since they were eight years of age. More than three weeks were required by the ballerina to perfect the authentic movements which go into this weird Japanese creation. It is seldom attempted by any except native Siamese girls.

Harvey Stephens, Ann Andrews, Robert Strange, Jay Fassett, William Ingersoll and Hanaki Yoshikawa have supporting roles.

A modern fashion show and a highly unique screen story combined are said to make "Good Sport," the Fox production, opening today at Warner's Capitol, an interesting and useful piece of film entertainment.

With the picture's entire action laid in smart New York social circles and with a cast comprised largely of women, Guy S. Duty, Fox Films' fashion designer, was given carte blanche and as a result, the feminine characters appear in a bewildering variety of negligees, sport ensembles, evening gowns, afternoon frocks and lounging pajamas.

Linda Watkins, who scored so notably in "Soh Sister," has the title role opposite John Boles and a brilliant supporting cast includes Greta Nissen, Mina Gombell, Hedda Hopper and Allan Dinehart. Kenneth MacKenna directed the production.

PREJUDICED JUROR CLAIM, JUDD CASE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 23—(AP)—An attack on the qualifications of a juror, supplemented with criticism of the state and the court, blocked for the moment today Arizona's attempt to dispose of the case of Winnie Ruth Judd, condemned to death for the slaying of Agnes Anne Lerol.

Pronouncement of the death sentence, set for today, was put over until tomorrow at the request of County Attorney Lloyd J. Andrews, who said he needed time to make an answer to the claims of defense counsel, by which Mrs. Judd hopes to gain a new trial.

The defense charged in affidavits that Dan Kleinman, of Mesa, Ariz., one of the 12 men jurors who voted to hang Mrs. Judd, came into the case biased and prejudiced.

AUTO INDUSTRY'S HISTORY IS TOLD

Out of 500 manufacturers of autos in the last 31 years, only 34 are active in business today and two of these produce 49 per cent of the cars, Douglas McKay told fellow Kiwanians Tuesday.

McKay laid the blame for the failure of many manufacturers on the fact they produced cars they liked themselves rather than cars which suited the public.

Illustrating the growth of auto use in the United States, McKay cited Durant's experience who was dubbed an idiot by bankers when he said the nation would eventually use 500,000 autos annually. In boom times in 1929 the country bought 4,000,000 new cars while in 1931, it bought more than 2,000,000 McKay said.

McKay said he had staunch faith in the recovery and development of the auto industry.

Aid For Closed Banks Planned

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—(AP)—The administration today supplemented its efforts to help the nation's financial institutions with a new move to make the way easier for banks that have succumbed to the pressure of the economic slump.

John W. Pool, comptroller of the currency, announced the establishment of a central agency in New York City for marketing bonds held by closed banks. Officials hope in this way to obtain the best return possible and avoid an indiscriminate dumping of securities with consequent low prices.

“My business takes me all over the world”

“Guess I'm like most Americans who travel a lot, I take many of my hobbies with me. Chesterfields, for instance. I've smoked 'em for years.

“They're not only made good, but they're made to keep good, and that's why they hold old customers like me.

“Take the tobaccos. That fragrant Turkish tobacco—your taste gets that, all right. And the whole blend—say, there's nothing like it for milder, better taste.

“But my point is, Chesterfields are just the same wherever I buy them—Argentina, India, New Zealand. The package is O. K.—moisture-tight, clean-looking—keeps the aroma in.

“Even the paper comes into it. As far off as Shanghai I've noticed how pure and white and fresh it is.

“I've never yet found a town where Chesterfields couldn't be had! And no matter where I've bought 'em, they've always been just exactly right!”
