

DALLAS YOUTH WINS CONTEST

Truman Robbins Gets L. T. Medal; Trio of Programs Successful

INDEPENDENCE, Feb. 24—Truman Robbins of Dallas won a silver medal in the Lowell Temperance Legion contest featured at the afternoon meeting of the Polk county W. C. T. U. at the Methodist church in Independence Monday. Judges for the contest were Rev. K. E. Burke of Dallas, Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner of Independence, and Mrs. J. E. McDonald, county W. C. T. U. president.

A 6:30 o'clock covered dish dinner served in the church basement was enjoyed by many including the following Polk county W. C. T. U. officers: Mrs. M. C. Donald of Falls City, president; Mrs. L. G. Miller of Dallas, vice-president; Mrs. Esther Moran of Independence treasurer, and Mrs. Edith Tallman of Dallas, recording secretary.

C. C. Hulet of Albany, master of the Oregon state grange, urged his audience to go forward in the fight for the 18th amendment assuring them the support of the state grange in his address following the dinner.

Other speakers on the program were Mrs. C. Hulet, Rev. J. E. McDonald of Falls City, Dr. P. T. Carnes of Dallas and local pastors, Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner, Rev. K. L. Nelson, and Rev. Henry G. Hanson.

P. T. A. Hears Landers of the Oregon State Normal school at Monmouth gave an inspiring address on the character of George Washington at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association in the training school auditorium Tuesday afternoon.

A pleasing number on the program was a minuet danced by ten pupils of the intermediate grades. The program was followed by a business session at which Mrs. William Campbell presided. Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mrs. M. J. Butler and Mrs. George Cochrane were appointed to purchase two pictures, one of Lincoln, for the high school.

According to a motion that carried, a pennant will be awarded to the room that has the largest percentage of mothers in attendance at the P. T. A. meetings each month.

L. T. S. Has Program
George Washington's bicentennial birthday anniversary was celebrated at impressive exercises by the Independence training school in the auditorium Monday forenoon. The program was followed by the dedication of two laurelins, the first planted on the school grounds and presented to the school by the P. T. A. and Independence Garden club.

Woodburn News

WOODBURN, Feb. 24—The date for the local teachers' institute, for all grade and high school teachers and principals in Marion county, which was to be held at Woodburn high school all day Saturday, March 5, has been changed to a meeting will be held at the local school Saturday, March 12. A junior high school conference is to be held in Salem March 5.

The teachers in Woodburn will act as hosts to the Marion county, and a committee, made up of Milton A. Grallapp, Mrs. Myrtle Clark, Mrs. John Muir and superintendent Vern D. Bain, is busy arranging the program.

Officers Installed
The newly elected student body officers of Woodburn high school were installed into office before the students at a regular student body meeting Tuesday morning. The new officers are: president, Manly Ramsdell; vice president, Pauline Nelson; secretary, Lois Seely; head of finance committee, Dale Trullinger; publicity committee chairman, Charles Cammack; and nominating committee head, Lawrence Koch. The retiring officers are: president, Tom Evans; vice president, Mary Alice Conyne; secretary, Donni Conyne; and three members-at-large, Rea McPeak, Charles Tresidder and Ralph Nelson.

Rea McPeak, Charles Tresidder and Cornelius have been named members of the student court at Woodburn high school. The court will judge cases of misconduct of students. V. D. Bain, superintendent, will pass final judgment of the sentences imposed.

Staff is Named
The more important members of the staff of the Woodburn high school paper, the "Wireless", have been named. They are: assistant editor, Beatrice Donaldson; assistant business managers, Blaine McCord Jr. and Kathleen Shorey. Mary Alice Conyne is editor and business manager.

Girls' interclass basketball, an event in interclass rivalry at Woodburn high school, is scheduled to begin next week. The four teams have been practicing steadily in preparation for the contests. The round-robin system is used in deciding the champion team. The captains of the teams are: seniors, Noma Hill; juniors dependence Garden club. Mrs. J. S. Landers, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, was the speaker at the tree planting ceremonies. Cholona Camp Fire Girls were the flag bearers and boys of the forestry club assisted by W. T. House, janitor, took charge of the planting. Mrs. F. W. Berry, president of the Garden club and Mrs. William Campbell of the P. T. A. made the presentations of the shrubs. The patrol boys escorted the audience from the auditorium to the lawn and watched the traffic during the dedication program.

CRUSHER STARTING GRIND FOR SEASON

VICTOR POINT, Feb. 24—The Victor Point rock crusher has resumed operations after the winter layoff. The rock is being used to patch the roads in this vicinity. Miss Bernita Jones will go to Portland the latter part of this week. She will be with the International Harvester company there.

Mrs. M. M. Gilmour is quite ill with influenza. The birthdays of C. C. Jones and J. C. Krenz were celebrated jointly Saturday night by a group of relatives at a "500" party in their honor. The affair was held at the Krenz home and four tables

Work of connecting the sewer system of the C. A. Adams property on Corby street to the Lincoln street sewer is being done. The council sanctioned the work. Debate Title Decided at Tilt Tonight

WOODBURN, Feb. 24—The district championship for high school debating teams will probably be decided Thursday night, when Woodburn's teams debate with Dallas at Dallas, and Silverton at Woodburn. If Woodburn wins Thursday night's debates, the local teams will vie for the Willamette valley championship.

The Silverton-Woodburn debate is scheduled to take place at the Lincoln grade school at 7:30 p. m. The Woodburn affirmative team will debate here. Members of that team are Rea McPeak and Mary Alice Conyne. Judges will be students from Willamette university. The negative team is made up of Charles Tresidder and Kathleen Shorey.

At present Woodburn is tied with Dallas in the mid-Willamette debating race.

TURKEYS SURVIVE OCEAN TRIP FINE

WALDO HILLS, Feb. 24.—Mrs. B. O. Longsdorf of Red Acres farm in the Evergreen district has received word of the safe arrival of seven turkeys which she shipped February 2 to Hawaii. A. J. Wilkenson, to whom the birds were sent, wrote her they arrived in fine condition and he and his co-worker, J. Botello, of the University of Hawaii, were delighted with them and the birds seemed to like their new warm home.

The program and pie social given by the Happy Hour club of the Evergreen district Friday night was very successful. The club realized $10 from the sale of pies. Mrs. A. A. Geer, who since November has been nursing in the Stayton hospital, returned to her home for a rest Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shifferer and daughters, Mabel and Edith, spent Sunday at the P. J. Neuswanger home. The day was Mrs. Shifferer's birthday, so a dinner in her honor was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ray and Besie Ray are quite ill with flu. Besie, who is a sophomore at Silverton high school, has been absent from school for nearly a week.

Woodburn News

Mary Jackson; sophomores, Dorothy Kocher; and freshman, Mary Alice Bates. Mathieson Hurt
Emil Mathieson, an employee of the Ray-Brown cannery here, was quite shaken up Tuesday morning when he fell from a high stack of canned fruit to the concrete floor below. The accident occurred in the Coe building warehouse of the cannery. Mathieson was rushed to Dr. Gerald Smith, who found no broken bones. Mathieson lives north of Woodburn near the Pacific highway.

BENSON'S

for Good Sandwiches

Take Her Word for It!

"In my trips throughout the entire United States and in my work in hundreds of cooking schools I have found few breads that equal Benson's in quality and texture.

"Primarily, in my demonstrations, I am interested in texture, for upon that depends the ease with which I am able to make ATTRACTIVE, TEMPTING sandwiches.

"Good bread is the essence, the very life of a good sandwich. Therefore, I demand that the bread I use must be outstanding in TASTE. I've found that Benson's contains these and all the essentials of good bread. It's wholesome, uniform, and can be used in the daintiest of sandwiches."

BELIEVE IT OR NOT!

JUST ONE INGREDIENT—EAGLE BRAND! THIS PUDDING MAKES ITSELF!

MAKE A CARAMEL PUDDING WITHOUT OPENING THE CAN!

You'll never believe it, till you try it. But it's true! Just cook an unopened can of Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk in boiling water for 3 hours—and out comes a Caramel Pudding that's delicious! A golden-rich caramel color! A creamy-rich caramel taste!

Tempting with cream and nuts for garnish. Or combined with fresh or dried fruits. A perfect frosting for a cake. A delicious filling for tarts. So—why not cook several cans at a time?

MAGIC CARAMEL PUDDING

1—Place can of Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk in kettle of boiling water and keep at boiling point for three hours.

CAUTION—BE SURE THAT CAN IS KEPT COVERED WITH WATER.

2—Remove from water. Chill. Open can and serve.

*MAKE NO MISTAKE. Be sure you use the right kind of milk in this recipe—Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk. Although evaporated milk is fine for many uses, it simply won't work in this magic recipe.
