

P. T. A. GATHERING POSTPONED A WEEK

GERVAIS, Feb. 24—High scores at the six tables of "500" in play at the community club Tuesday night were held by Mrs. I. V. McAduo for the women and K. D. Coomber for the men. Low scores went to Mrs. M. D. Hennings and I. V. McAduo.

In charge of serving were Mrs. A. D. Adkisson, Mrs. C. B. Ellsworth, Mrs. T. A. Dittmar, Mrs. E. C. Naffziger. The committee for the next meeting is Mrs. William Alsop, Mrs. K. D. Coomber, and Miss Viola Patterson.

The P. T. A. meeting has been postponed until March 14, when Dr. David Bennett Hill of Salem will show a series of films, including comedy, child health and Oregon scenery subjects. Hill is president of the county P. T. A. This meeting will be observed as family night.

Joint Program Plan For Friday Meeting

WEST SALEM, Feb. 24—The Parent-Teacher association, the community club and the West Salem schools will collaborate Friday night in a Washington bi-centennial celebration with Mrs. C. L. Dark and Mrs. Borden representing the P. T. A. on the program committee while committee members from the community club are Mrs. Guy Newgent and A. C. Henningson with Lyle Thomas, Miss Hazel Emmett and Mrs. Golda Hayes serving on the school committee. The boy scouts will also assist in the program.

IN BRITISH COLUMBIA GERSVAIS, Feb. 24—Mrs. Joe Kuhn and daughter, Elizabeth and son Raymond, have left for a visit with a daughter and sister, Mrs. Anna Pullman and family at Vancouver, B. C. They will stop enroute home to visit a son and brother, Jack, at Aberdeen, Washington.
