

Salem High Turns Tables, Beats Astoria Quint 31 to 27

BURRELL TAKES SCORING HONOR

Fishermen are Disqualified For District Race and Rainier may Come

ASTORIA, Ore., Feb. 27.—(Special)—The Salem high school basketball team came back with a lot of aggressiveness to-night and darted through the Astoria Fishermen's defense to win 31 to 27. This victory for Salem ties up the season's competition between the two teams, each having won and lost on the other's floor.

Fighting hard right from the start, the Cherrians piled up a 17 to 7 lead during the first half, which perhaps was fortunate as the Fishermen, led again by the flashy Palmborg, scored 20 points to Salem's 14 in the second half.

Scoring honors went to Burrell, Salem center, who piled up 11 of his team's points.

It was announced here this afternoon that the district high school athletic board has disqualified Astoria high for an infraction of the rules and that the colorful Fishermen would be prohibited from competing for the district title. This was something of a blow to the Salem squad as well as to Astoria, for it was believed that the Fishermen and the Cherrians might have an opportunity to settle the moot point of superiority at the state tournament.

It is the consensus of opinion here that Rainier will win the district title.

Keene Lauds Team's Play At Whitman

Coach "Spec" Keene and his squad returned to Salem Saturday with no bitterness whatsoever over the defeat and lauded the Whitman team. Keene said that but for a few minutes, Williamette might have won the first game, but in the second one the whole Whitman team played inspired ball and any player was able to score if given a ghost of a chance.

The players brought back a similar story and stated that they were confident that they could take the second game and played much harder in the second tilt than in the first, but Lady Luck smiled on the Missionaries and they were able to convert almost every shot into points.

Whitman started the season with all of its last year's players on hand, the full squad which had split games with the Williamette Bearcats on Williamette's own floor in 1931. Williamette started the season with three veterans and wound up with only two, Percy Carpenter and Erwin Kleos-ten.

Two new players at Whitman were good enough to break in on Nig Borleske's veteran team. These were Miller and Irving, Miller wedging his way in to be a running mate with Buddy Apple-gate at forward and Irving replacing one of the guards. This duo of new life scored 38 points in the two games against Williamette.

Keene reported that the Whitman guards were easily the best in the conference and that the task in Friday night's game appeared hopeless in the second half when the Missionaries hit their stride.

Tuesday the Bearcats will play Linfield college with the outcome of the game putting the winner in second place in the conference and the loser into third place. Pacific demonstrated that Linfield can be beaten on its home floor.

Gladstone Beats Florsheims And Will Oppose Dallas in Independent Tourney Final

Cheer up, old column, your favorite article is spreading. Hark to the editorial page of the Klamath News:

"The state high school athletic association made a bobble last year when it decided to hold district tournaments to determine which schools shall go to the Salem state basketball tournament. Under the new system a team can lose every game it plays all year, yet could go to the state tournament by winning the district tournament with an improbability but a possibility."

"The state tournament at Salem comes the second week in March, the district playoffs the first. In order to capture their district title a team of high school boys in the average district will have to play four games in one weekend. If the team is good enough to capture the state title it will have to win four games there—eight games in nine days—too much for any high school athlete."

The Medford-Ashtland-Grants Pass district is going to ignore the state athletic association's orders to hold a district tournament and it is entirely proper that they should."

Slightly erroneous as to dates, but the editor's heart is in the right place. He relates further that coaches and parents of players all over the state are protesting and that the system probably won't last long. One thing we have to be thankful for here: the district tournament in this district will not be played in Salem.

"Highlimber" at Eugene is also riding his favorite hate: "Salem! the State Champion City!"

"Salem has won another basketball game and claimed another state championship! It matters not whether it's in horse shoe pitching, ping-pong, football, basketball, tiddie-winks or one-old-cat, you can always depend on Salem coming through as the state champion. . . ."

"Salem's most recent championship is the Oregon Y. M. C. A. title. The Capitol City team won this by virtue of a victory over a Portland Y. M. C. A. team, and by refusing to play Eugene. . . ."

"Salem did offer Eugene a game last Friday at Salem, but the local team was unable to take it on such short notice and agreed to play on Thursday night, or any other night. But no! Salem passes the contest and claims the crown. It will be remembered that the district tournament at Eugene was canceled after the Portland-Salem series was played. And Eugene did accept the Tuesday date, we are reliably informed, and then cancelled it."

Hold 'er, Roy. About that Roosevelt business—Farrish had gone to Eugene to play the northwest tournament at Seattle and we confidently expect it to take a trouncing from Salem there.

What happened to your state championship junior baseball team last summer, Highlimber? Didn't Salem, after Eugene had been ruled out for ignoring the eligibility rules, invite your boys up here for a game and pound in runs until darkness caused a halt? Score 23 to 0.

But what's the use? Highlimber just must have his peevish, because Eugene hasn't produced a state champion in the last five years so far as we can recall.

Some of the grapplers who are showing promise are Sam Sherrill, Bob Mason, Art Staples, Ike Burns, Lovell Cotter, Martin Alon McKay, Pete Kempie and Dick Ross.

Dallas Wins Polk Title by Last Quarter Rally; Score 23-18; District Meet Soon

MONMOUTH, Feb. 27.—(Special)—Dallas high school's basketball team turned the tables on Bethel high tonight and won the Polk county championship by capturing the final game of the county tournament, 23 to 18. It took a lot of hard fighting to accomplish it, however.

After Dallas led off with the first three points Bethel took the first quarter lead 8 to 3, and was still ahead 12 to 8 at half time. At that point Bethel's progress was checked and it got only a free throw in the third period, which ended with the score tied, 13-all. Dallas played steady, conservative ball in the final quarter and Bethel went into a deplorable slump, with the result that Coach Shreeve's boys acquired a comfortable margin.
