

ZINSER SEEKS RECORDER JOB

Salem Heights man Puts Taxpayer's Interest First In Campaign

SALEM HEIGHTS, Feb. 29.—F. Howard Zinsler at the solicitation of his many friends in this and other districts throughout Marion county has filed preliminary papers for nomination for the office of county recorder. Petitions to complete the filing are now being circulated in all parts of the county. Zinsler is not running for coroner, as headline in this paper Sunday said.

Mr. Zinsler was born in Belvidere, Illinois, is 42 years of age, and came to Oregon in 1894 residing here since. His public and high school education was received in Oregon City after which he attended Oregon State college. For four years he was employed in the horticultural department of the Oregon state hospital, the last two years of which he was in charge of the department, leaving this position to enter service in the World war, as corporal in headquarters company of the 63rd Infantry until mustered out of service.

Zinsler is a member of the American Legion and the Woodman of the World, has served four years in professional office work in executive capacity both in Salem and Spokane and is now deputy commissioner of Cascade Area Council on voluntary basis. He is overseer of the Red Hills grange and secretary-treasurer of Marion county federation of clubs.

Mr. Zinsler has served twice as clerk of the Salem Heights school district and is now serving his third consecutive term as president of this community club.

In his race for nomination for recorder on the republican ticket, Zinsler states as his platform: "I will conduct the affairs of office in a business like manner; to keep the expenditures of office to a minimum consistent with efficient service; to at all times conduct the office in the interest of the taxpayers; to give personal attention to the duties of the office and render courteous service to the public constantly."

If nominated he will adopt as his ballot slogan: "The taxpayer's interest first."

WEST SALEM, Feb. 29.—A local talent troupe from the Orchard Heights neighborhood will put on a three act comedy-drama, "That's One on Bill," Friday night in the community hall. The play is sponsored by members of the Epworth League of Ford Memorial church who assure those who may attend a good evening.

The cast of characters is as follows: Rosie, the maid, Pauline Wilson; Ned Collins, who is too rich to work, Ralph Wilson; Mrs. Halley, mother of Lil and Bill, Marie Southwick; Lil Halley, Nina Cox; Uncle Jimmie, William Cox; Bill Halley, Wilfred Wilson; Mab Allen, uncle's choice for Bill, Carrie Reed; Harry Dover, Adrian Withers; Patricia Pansy La Gloria Niles, Josephine Smith; Battling Bennie, Irvin Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wetherby have been entertaining an house guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Scott of Pardeeville, Wis. The Scotts are now in McMinnville where they will remain until spring.

Mrs. Clyde Rodgers and children of Seio were guests of Mrs. Rodgers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burke, from Wednesday over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Chaire Snyder of McMinnville were Sunday dinner guests at the Burke home.

Lucien Dorenlau reached his home here the last of the week from California where he had spent five months with relatives.

Miss Lottie McAdams and William McAdams were dinner hosts Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCollum, their son Bill and Mrs. Parker, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Miller will go to Portland tonight where they will attend the Shriners' pot-entate ball.

Mrs. H. B. Koehler entertained Sunday evening with a dinner party, honoring the birthday anniversary of her husband. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burns and Miss Bertha Williamson, all of Salem, Miss Caroline Williamson and Victor Williamson, all of Hazel Green.

The monthly business meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society will be held Wednesday afternoon, March 2, with Mrs. C. L. Dark at the parsonage.

Next Sunday night an effort will be made to organize a new Epworth chapter, in addition to the two, senior and junior, already in action at Ford Memorial church. The new organization would be composed of young people of college age or those whose school days are over.

Members of the Elite club of West Salem and members of the Kingwood club of Kingwood Heights enjoyed a delightful evening of cards and music Saturday at the Guy C. Newgent home. Prizes at the card tables were won by Mrs. Charles Adams and W. L. Padgett. Pussy willows and daffodils brought a breath of spring to the guest rooms. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Newgent, Mrs. Frank Wells and Mrs. R. E. Pattison. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. De Lomon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Charles Adams, J. A. Gosser, L. L. Sloper, Frank Wells, R. E. Pattison, and Guy Newgent.

LAST RITES FOR M-2 VICTIMS

A sea tragedy that plunged many British homes into mourning is recalled by the above picture. Anchored over the spot in the English Channel where the 60 members of the crew of the submarine M-2 perished on the bottom in their steel coffin, the submarine mother ship Admiral served as a church for the requiem services. Wreaths were dropped overboard while chaplains read the funeral services for those who died. Behind the wreaths are Rear Admiral Little, Rev. E. S. Ulyat and Father A. Foltz.

HANNAH MARTIN IS SPEAKER FOR CLUB

STAYTON, Feb. 29.—The W. C. Fellham family expect to move soon into the Mrs. Lena Rock house, near the Baptist church. They have been living in the G. L. Brown residence, but owing to the poor health of Mrs. Brown, the family is moving back here from Eugene.

John Shelton, who has been seriously ill the past three weeks at the home of his brother, Hal, here, has recovered sufficiently so that he will be removed to his home near Shelburn in a day or so. He has been suffering from a serious infection, which is thought to have been caused from bad teeth. He was moved here to be under the care of a doctor.

Hannah Martin Speaker
Mrs. Hannah Martin, of Salem, will speak at the next regular meeting of the Women's Community club, Thursday, March 3, using as her topic "Property Rights of Women." Mrs. Martin, who is an attorney, is a forceful speaker, and promises to treat the subject assigned to her in a way that every member of the club should enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Humphrey and Blyn are home from a two weeks business trip to California. They called upon Glen E. Fox, in San Francisco and report that he likes his position there very much.

Betty, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Koring, has been ill this week with tonsillitis, but is improving.

Gebler Newcomer
Peter Gebler has moved here from his farm near Lebanon to make his home with his brother, John, who has been alone since the death of his brother Chris. The Tom Rief family have moved on to Peter Gebler's place.

Many pupils are absent from the Stayton schools on account of illness, several of them having mumps, others ill with chicken pox or flu.
