

Organizations Fill Social Calendar With Activities for Week

Auxiliary is To Initiate Monday

MONDAY night one of the largest events of the week will be observed by the auxiliary to the American Legion. This will be the initiation of a large class of incoming members, with the degree work being given by the degree team of the American Legion post. The ceremony will take place in Miller's hall and following it the evening will be spent in dancing. Refreshments will be served.

Those to be admitted to membership Monday night include: Mrs. East Anderson, Mrs. Lewis Bradford, Mr. George Manning, Miss Sarah Bliven, Mrs. H. C. Davis, Velma Farmer, Myrtle E. Hildebrand, Grace H. Johnson, Mrs. I. McSherry, Madeline Nash, Mrs. Mem Pearce, Mrs. Lot L. Pearce, Mrs. B. H. Rider, Mrs. Joseph V. Schur, Mrs. Thomas F. Shay, Cordie Wiper, Mrs. Thomas Hill, Mrs. John A. Olson, Mrs. Bertha Bergman, Mrs. H. C. Allgood, Ina Thorsquist, Mrs. Mary C. Moynihan, Mrs. Edward Kirchoff and Mildred Clayton.

This evening will mark the close of an intensive membership campaign. The next several weeks will also bring to a close several activities which have kept the auxiliary very busy during the winter months.

One of the committees which will not function very actively after April will be the welfare committee, of which Mrs. J. T. Delaney is chairman, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Melchior, Mrs. Ona Olson, Mrs. W. P. Watkins, Mrs. Glenn Seeley and Mrs. E. V. Wooten. This committee has drawn from the community service fund along about $350 to date. This has been used for food, milk, and some clothing. This aid has gone to families of ex-service men and to men in need.

The civic service committee under the direction of Mrs. Frank Jirak assisted by Mrs. J. W. Marcroft, Mrs. Oscar Poe, Mrs. Glenn Seeley, and Mrs. Glenn Porter have been busy all winter giving assistance at the Marion county health unit whenever needed, assisting with the Red Cross drive, aiding in organization of five patrols of Girl Scouts, working on the drive for aid of unemployment, and in the Y. W. C. A. drive for budget funds.

Mrs. Jack Koring and her committee of Mrs. King Bartlett, Mrs. Robert Budrow, and Mrs. Glenn Seeley have paid weekly visits to the tuberculosis hospital calling on relatives of ex-service men who are confined there; they have called on ex-service men's families located in Salem the heads of which are in the Veterans hospital in Portland; and they are caring for a War Mother who is now receiving aid in a hospital.

Some of these activities are needed during the entire year, while others will become quiet with the spring.

Royal Neighbors Plan Anniversary

The 33rd year of organization for Oregon Grape lodge, No. 1360, Royal Neighbors of America, will be observed Monday night at Fraternal temple. The anniversary celebration will be preceded by an initiation ceremony for which all officers of the lodge are requested to wear white. In the business meeting plans will be discussed for the convention which will be held in Silverton May 11.

The committee in charge of the anniversary program are Mrs. Susie Parmenter, Mrs. Kathryn Bernardi, and Mrs. Sarah Nelson.

International Celebration of Business-Professional Women's Week

Will Open Today With Group Attending First Methodist Church in Body; Thursday Night Benefit is Planned

BEGINNING with church services this morning in the First Methodist church the Business and Professional Women of Salem will open officially the local celebration of the international week devoted by these clubs all over the world to the observation and acclaim of the rise and accomplishment of business and professional women in the world.

Miss Merle Dimnick is the president of the local unit. She will be complimented with a "president's breakfast" Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock in the Gray Belle.

Monday all B. & P. W. club women are especially interested in the radio address over KGW given by Miss Martha Gasch, state president, between 12 and 12:15 o'clock. She will speak on "Woman's Civic Obligation."

Several of the Salem members are expecting to attend the tea with which the Portland club is entertaining this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. B. Woodruff. The Salem club is being invited by the Portland club to participate in all its activities but conflicts will prevent this save for the Sunday tea.

The civic aspect of the celebration will be Wednesday night at which the club will give a benefit for the Y. W. C. A. budget and the public is urged to support this heartily. A playlet is being arranged entitled "Heaven Will Protect the Working Girl," and the characters are being taken by Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Miss Helen Fyson, Miss Billy Herbst, and Miss Daisy Hayden.

In addition to the skit there is a varied program to be presented which includes:

Portland Man Music Week To Address Club Plans Make Progress

THE Salem Woman's club announces a program for Saturday which is of such outstanding interest that each member of the club is invited to bring a friend in order that more Salem women may have an opportunity to benefit by the program.

Prof. F. Kingsley of Portland will present an illustrated lecture which is said to be one of the finest of its kind ever to be given. Professor Kingsley has had a hobby for years of taking pictures and developing them into slides which he uses to illustrate travel lectures. His travels have taken him over the United States and Europe and his pictures represent many types of lectures. The lecture to be given for the Salem women will be "Historic and Scenic Spots of New England," and will treat in detail of locations read about and heard about but not seen by many people. Professor Kingsley was for 36 years superintendent of the University of Michigan and has been a member of several university summer school faculties. He is also an author and lecturer of note.

Music will be vocal trio of high school girls, presenting "The Green Cathedral" and "Thank God for a Garden."

Creative Theatre Program Tuesday

Three one-act plays, comedies of distinction and charm, chosen from Barrett H. Clark's list of the world's best plays, will be presented next Tuesday night in the auditorium of the Salem public library by the creative theatre section of the Salem Arts League as the league's March program. To this program the public is cordially invited to attend.

This section, formed principally for experimental work on original plays, has been actively rehearsing for the last six weeks under Perry Reigelman, section director. A dress rehearsal was given Friday night at the state tuberculosis hospital. Following the presentation of the group of plays Tuesday evening, the section plans to start work on three original unproduced one-act plays.

Casts for the plays to be presented are: "The Third Man," by Roderich Bendix (German); E. J. Peterson, Mrs. E. J. Peterson, Greta Schofield, Lillian Potter. "Indian Summer," by Melihay and Halsey, Misses Mayday Eisman, Bob Mather, Vernon Stahl, Miss Elinor Tonsing, Consuelo Eisman.

"Panurge's Sheep," also by Wellach and Halsey, (French); Mrs. C. R. Monk, Mrs. V. Wilson and Rev. Hugh B. Fouke, Jr. "Lost in London Town," by Mitchell "Swing Along," by Cook "Song of the Fisher Boats," Zamecnik Lyman MacDonal, selected solos and reading.

Mrs. Lyman MacDonal, accompanist. Club chorus, "In Old Madrid," "A Lullaby," "Brothers." Refreshments will be served following the program. The committee chairman for this evening is Mrs. Winifred Herrick.

The public relations banquet which will be an event of Thursday night at the Marion hotel will be of interest in more ways than one. One of the outstanding interests in the program which will include violin numbers by Miss Mary Schultz, vocal solos by Mrs. S. W. Starr, and high school boys in quartet numbers. Miss Josephine Shade will read the collect for the banquet ceremony.

A reception Saturday night at Lausanne hall will close the week of interesting celebrations.

Mrs. Flora Clark is Complimented

A delightful surprise was given Mrs. Flora Clark at her home Friday afternoon when a group of school friends from Salem and out of town called to wish her happiness on the occasion of her 78th birthday.

The afternoon was spent in conversation and at a late hour tea was served and the beautiful birthday cake was cut.

Those who called to compliment Mrs. Clark were Mrs. Jim Eidson, Mrs. Alice Small, Mrs. A. E. Smith, Mrs. Sarah Adams and Mrs. Sam Amen, all of Silverton; Mrs. W. H. Leonard, Mrs. Jeanette Pooler and Miss Nellie Clark of Salem; Mrs. A. H. Dewey of Portland and Mrs. Henry Smith of Stayton.

The Willing Workers class of the First Christian church entertained with an attractive seasonal luncheon with each of the four seasons represented Friday afternoon in the church parlors. An interesting program followed the luncheon hour. In charge of arrangements were Mrs. I. A. Murphy and Mrs. R. C. Blaxall.

The Sigma Nu chapter of Delphians will meet Tuesday morning in the city library at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. James Heisel, Mrs. H. O. White, Mrs. C. L. Newman, Mrs. W. Ira Darby, and Mrs. Lewis Griffith will take topics. Other reports will be given by Mrs. W. A. Merritt and Mrs. W. T. Jenks.

Mrs. Claude Steusloff entertained Friday afternoon in compliment to the birthday of her three year old daughter, Martha. At the tea hour Mrs. R. W. Goodman of Seattle, sister of Mrs. Steusloff, assisted in serving the eight small guests and their mothers.

Miss Margaret McAlpin entertained with an attractive luncheon Saturday afternoon at her home. St. Patrick novelties made the decorative note. Covers were placed for Mrs. Anderson of Des Moines, Ia., Mrs. John E. Edin, Mrs. E. Long, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Mrs. Grace Sehon and Miss McAlpin.

Music Will Hold Attention Of Week's Society Circles

Legion Auxiliary to Present Invitational Program Honoring Friends; Artistic Affair Planned by Trio at Clubhouse

THIS week will again emphasize the appreciation of music as a fitting greeting to the spring of the year, and a lovely tribute to the reverence of the Lenten season.

Friday night the American Legion Auxiliary quartet will present its first individual program after having sung together for four years, and always appearing in conjunction with some other group, or as an assistant on some civic program.

The program Friday night is invitational with about 100 guests expected, and will be given in the Robert's studio. Those who will receive and seat the guests are Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Lucille Cummings, Miss Irene Brown, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Miss Jean Elford, Mrs. Verne Suko, Mrs. M. J. Melchior, and Mrs. Byron Llewellyn.

The first number of the program in each of part one and two will be given with organ accompaniment. The complete program includes:

- Part I
- Break Forth O Deafening, Heav'nly Light
- Light Come, Then, O Come
- Oh Let the Merry Bells Ring Round
- All Stars— Handel
- Four-hand Accompaniment
- Part II
- Skylark's Song
- Mendelssohn
- Suabian Folk Song
- Brahms
- Hark! Hark! The Lark
- Schubert
- Etude No. 13
- Chopin
- Bird Song
- Marguerite Dalton
- Palmgren

The second musical program of beauty planned for this week will be the trio which will be presented for the first time in Salem Saturday night at the Salem Woman's club.

Miss Mary Schultz, violinist, a native daughter of Salem, will appear with Michael Aronstein, cellist with the Portland symphony, and James Hutchinson, Portland pianist, in a beautifully balanced program. Each of the trio is an artist of concert proportions whose work is known to music lovers of the northwest and in circles of several eastern cities.

It is justified to expect a program of brilliance Saturday night, a professional program of artistic beauty. The complete program includes:

- (a) Passacaglia, Handel (Halvorsen) (violin and cello unaccompanied)
- (b) Aria
- (c) Mourne
- Glick
- Brahms, Allegro.
- Andante, Vivace non troppo
- Andante
- Schubert
- Swedish Folk Song
- Sandsby
- Norwegian Spring Dance
- Sandsby

Members of the Joy Turner Moses piano and violin Dunning class were entertained at the home of Miss Maxine Case Friday night. The next hostess will be Miss Jean Pound, April 1. There were 20 guests present Friday night and the advisor, Mrs. Moses.

Miss Loretta Varley entertained at her home with an informal party which proved to be a jolly affair for the Young People's Forum of the First Methodist church Friday night at her home. The guests were entertained in the basement of the Varley home. Here games and an informal good time preceded the refreshment hour.

Present were Anna Peters, Caroline DePew, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Craven, Mildred Cook, Velleda Ohmart, Lois Steink, Bess Noeland, Velda Bates, Made Reed, Irene Brothaupt, Bernice Newhouse, Pearl Williams, Mildred Judson, Esther Hunsaker, Barbara Ames, Willa Ames, Catherine Toysen, Helen McElroy, Betty Eltonson, Ruth Versteeg, Morgan Gallaier, Everett Cole, Walter Traver, Glen Prange, Lester Bury, Hal Lehman, Arthur Brassfield, Bryson Clutter, Wilburn Swafford, Leon Norris, Bob Holiday, Forrest Holiday and Miss Varley.

Mrs. C. M. Roberts of 815 Shipping will be hostess to members of the Woman's Home Missionary society at her home Wednesday afternoon. She will begin receiving guests at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Hugh B. Fouke will lead the devotions, and a playlet will be given by Mrs. Neelia Back, Mrs. P. T. Smith and Mrs. Maud Fallon. A tea will conclude the meeting.

Mrs. A. C. F. Perry will be hostess Tuesday at 1 o'clock for the regular weekly luncheon being held by the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church during the Lenten season. A business meeting will be followed by an informal afternoon which will conclude with attending the 4 o'clock vesper services at the church.

Miss Margaret McAlpin entertained with an attractive luncheon Saturday afternoon at her home. St. Patrick novelties made the decorative note. Covers were placed for Mrs. Anderson of Des Moines, Ia., Mrs. John E. Edin, Mrs. E. Long, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Mrs. Grace Sehon and Miss McAlpin.

D. A. R. Will Aid Music Week

PLANS were discussed by the Daughters of American Revolution, Saturday afternoon in business session at the city library for cooperating with the city music week chairman, Mrs. Walter A. Denton, in the development of Good Music week activities. Chemeketa chapter plans to dedicate the Washington elm which has already been planted in the state house grounds as its part in the week's celebration. The dedication will be accompanied by music as the plans are now arranged.

Mrs. C. C. Geer was appointed by Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, regent, as chairman of the Good Music week committee.

The delegates which are to attend the state convention to be held in Portland March 10-11 were changed somewhat from the previous announcement and those who will attend the Mrs. Fargo, regent, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Frank Settlemeier, Mrs. Claude Ellison, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Oscar Hayer, Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. W. C. Conner, Mrs. R. G. Baldersee, and Mrs. Frances Cornell.

Saturday "open house" will be observed at Champeog and all the convention guests are expected to call at the D. A. R. memorial cabin. March 9 there will be an executive committee meeting at the Multnomah hotel, an evening meeting, and the delegates from here are expected to sit in on this meeting.

It was voted at the Saturday meeting that $30 should be placed in the scholarship loan fund as a result of the Colonial tea held February 22. Reports concerning this tea and the bridge benefit at Dallas were given by Mrs. John Carkin and Mrs. Oscar Hayer.

As a program number Saturday Mrs. T. G. Shipley gave a talk on the boyhood of Washington.

F. L. Club Aids in Initiation Work

The F. L. club, an auxiliary of the Salem Rebekah lodge, held its regular meeting at the home of Evelyn Heesman, initiating Helen McElroy as a new member.

After the regular session members of the Salem F. L. club went to Gervais to assist several Portland auxiliary members in instituting a new F. L. club and to install officers.

Those from Portland clubs were Etta Miller, captain; Twill Armstrong, Esther Barotseh, Goldie Winters, Helen Gates, Viola Wallace and Maude Skaggs.

Gervais people initiated were Alice Barnett, president; Leta Wallace, secretary; Janet Harold, treasurer; Alice Massey and Marie Harold.

Members from Salem included Evelyn Heesman, Adeline Seymour, Hazel McElroy, Lulu McElroy, Mildred Martin, Helen McElroy, Evelyn Naderman and Martha McElroy.

Prof. Cuthbert Will Be Speaker

Prof. F. A. Cuthbert of Oregon state college in relation to what architecture, will be the speaker for the Salem Garden club regular meeting Monday night in the chamber of commerce.

He will take as his topic "Civic Improvement" in relation to what a garden club can do to improve the city. The public is invited to attend this meeting and a discussion of improvement of Salem's civic center will come under the head of business for the evening.

Patriotic Pageant Given Tonight

The W. C. T. U. will present a "Patriotic Wedding" tonight at the First Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock and to this the public is invited. There are 75 in the cast of this colorful and interesting pageant. Clifton Mudd is directing it.

Miss Betty-Mae Hartung will take the part of the bride and Kenneth Flemming will take the part of the groom. Miss Columbia will perform the ceremony. Noted guests will be present from Japan, Italy, Sweden, Germany and China.

Members of the Joy Turner Moses piano and violin Dunning class were entertained at the home of Miss Maxine Case Friday night. The next hostess will be Miss Jean Pound, April 1. There were 20 guests present Friday night and the advisor, Mrs. Moses.
