Quarterly Tea Attractive

The quarterly tea meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church proved to be a splendid meeting. A feature of the tea was a miscellaneous shower of gifts for the Old People's home on Center street.

Mrs. George Lewis, president, presided at the business meeting which preceded the tea hour. Those taking part in the program which was built about the theme of "the family circle" were: Mrs. C. L. Doney, Mrs. E. Forner, Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. R. Glover, Mrs. S. J. Yarns, Little Miss Vethrie Given, Mrs. E. C. Miller, Mrs. R. D. Barton and Miss Nichols.

Mrs. Ralph Glover was in general charge and was assisted by Mrs. Carl Adams, Mrs. V. Dunlap, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. P. Johnson, Mrs. A. A. Selwert, Mrs. B. E. Sisson, Mrs. W. Spaulding, and Mrs. W. T. Rigdon.

Mrs. B. B. Herrick presided at the beautifully appointed table. Grandmothers present, officers of the auxiliary and members of the Old People's home were special guests.

Those assisting with serving were Mrs. R. Waltz, Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mrs. H. Yarns, Mrs. Schultze and Mrs. Yarns. A group of visitors were present from Silverton.

Tea Compliments Hal Hibbard Auxiliary

Following the regular business meeting of Hal Hibbard auxiliary Friday afternoon in the armory, Mrs. LeRoy Hewlett entertained with a surprise tea in compliment to the members. The service table was attractively arranged with a white lace cloth centered with carnations and silver tea service.

At the business meeting Mrs. Shadon of Corvallis was admitted as a new member. Other members present for the business and social hour which followed were: Edith Woolpert, Ethel Welch, Margaret Welsch, Blanche Walcher, Ellen Thompson, Lucy Newcomb, Grace Michelson, Margaret Millett, Mary Miller, Lillian McKinley, Elizabeth Green, Lulu Humphrey, Ida Gird, Florence Buckles, Ruth Brant, Jessie Bertelson, and Beale Baker.

Miss Dorothy Pearce presented in recital Saturday afternoon in her studio in the Chambers building. Jack Hayes, Lillian Oliver, Donna Louise Mars, Muriel Smith, Carol Cook, Elizabeth Anne Herick, Janet Byrd, Marjorie Matthews, Gladys Crawford, Alice Crawford, Barbara Scott and Louise Hayes.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
A model well planned to make the matronly figure seem a great deal more slender than she really is. The softly styled bodice is cut in one with the tie ends and draped over a dainty vestee of lace. The hip section is snug and continues to form a slender front panel that is most becoming. The sleeves, too, are perfect for arms no longer slim. You'll love this model in flat or sheer crepe.

Pattern 2297 may be ordered only in sizes 36 to 46. Size 36 requires 3 3/4 yards of 39-inch fabric, 3 3/4 yards of 18-inch lace.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new spring fashion catalog is now ready. This beautiful, colorful book offers 25 pages of chic, authentic Anne Adams styles for adults and children. The newest fashions for afternoon, evening and sports wear, exquisite lingerie, attractive home dresses and adorable kiddie models are featured—all personally chosen by Anne Adams and all fashionable, practical and easy and inexpensive to make. Send for your copy. Price, 15c. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents. Address all mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th Street, New York City.
