WEATHER BOOMING

CORVALLIS, Ore., March 8 -(AP) - Favorable weather and the approach of spring were stimulating factors in seed markets, said a summary released today by the O. S. C. extension service cooperating with the U.S. D. A. bureau of agricultural economics. Most orders, however, were for small lots.

Although red clover made elight improvement on two or three markets, the price on the average declined about 10 cents per hundred during the closing days of February. Alsike clover was in fair demand at lower prices, Al-7.50; cult and common, 3.50-6.00; calves, hundred during the closing days fair demand at lower prices. Alfalfa demand impoved in one or two markets, but prices averaged about five cents lower. The ryegrass market remained quiet with little change in prices.

Portland Prices Hold British Pound Leads way in Advance With U. S. and German Issues Next

> NEW YORK, Mar. 8-(AP)-Although the runaway market for British pounds was today's most striking development, securities contributed to a general measure of financial improvement.

Bonds were especially liberal with their advances; large buying came out for U. S. governments and Germans, while gilt-edged domestics rallied confidently. Stocks open market for cubes and prints after an indifferent start, plugged ahead most of the day, but met enough late selling to told down net gains to rather moderate proportions.

The tax bill was behind certain group movements on the stock exchange. Oils came forward early. the theory being that an excise duty of a cent a gallon on crude, gasoline and fuel oil would help domestic prices. Shares of producern and coast points. Locally ing and distributing companies rose from a fraction to a point. Utilities, lead by American Telephone with a net gain of 2 5-8. went to a new average high for the year. Western Union jumped age of light weight hens, further 3 points when the quarterly dividend was cut to $1 from $1.50, but halved its rise.

HUBBARD, March 8 - "The Mirror of the Day" was the subject of the address given at the city hall before about 75 members of the community club Monday night by Marshall Dana, associate editor of the Oregon Journal of Portland.

Among other things he said that people prosper when commerce and trade are brisk, and been hit hard by the depression, he found in a trip over the United States that getting home to Oregon-was a relief, conditions were sounds of butterfat, now she will produce 267 pounds; Oregon sends 10,000,000 pounds of cheese to California. We are being challenged by big opportunities; the greatest era of man is impending, according to Dana.

The entertaining features of the program were a vocal solo, "Bells of Saint Marys" by Dr. Ethel Riley, accompanied by Wilma Morrison of Woodburn and selections by the Hubbard-Woodburn orchestra led by Franklin de Lespinasse. The next program will be in charge of the health unit April 4. A comedy will be given May 2 to make some money for necessary expenses. At the June meeting Mr. | for the best. Fisher from the tax department will talk on "Where Our Tax
