West Salem Citizens to Vote on $6000 Levy for New City Hall

WEST SALEM, March 8 - At the monthly council meeting Monday night, all members were present at well as the largest crowd of spectators in the annals of the city, owing to the fact that several matters of unusual interest were under discussion. The pocommittee remonstrated against the semi-monthly flushing unnecessary that it be done oftener than once in three months.

An unsanitary condition was reported on Sixth and Kingwood and a complaint was made of 18 dwellings in one block which are minus sewer connections. A complaint was also entered by a property owner on Third street. The street committee was instructed to investigate all these matters.

The resignation of councilman A. Gosser was accepted and the council voted that he be retained for the present as city marshal and traffic cop. The clerk was instructed to secure a bond for the cop in case the old bond is not transferable.

The cancellation of insurance of Edwin Sinks, former driver of the bus plying between here and Salem was read and accepted. The ordinance granting a bus franchise to Ray Ferguson was given the third reading.

A petition with the necessary number of signers was read asking that a special election be held for the purpose of voting bonds to the amount of $6000 to finance the building of a new city hall. The council authorized the election which will be held in 90 days from date. A petition signed by 216 West Salemites was presented, requesting the cessation of heated discussion was held and a motion carried that the matter be put to a vote by charter amendcompany to the city treasurer conled that the funds be transferred dressed.
