Trio Program is Anticipated

According to report keen interest is being taken in the program to be presented Saturday night in the Woman's club house and which will be presented by Miss Mary Schultz, violinist, James Hutchings, pianist, and Michael Aronstein, cellist.

The group represented three superior artists, and very serious musicians. The program has been planned with respect to real music and to the taste of mixed audiences. Of the work Aronstein has written "The Massalia" by Handel, is an old dance. It was originally written for the organ and has been arranged for the violin and cello by Halvarson. It is a wonderfully made arrangement and will give excellent opportunity for the trio to show its ability.

Arts League Program Enjoyable

One of the outstandingly interesting programs of the year for the Salem Arts League was that presented Tuesday night at the city library.

Three one act plays were given by local talent directed by Perry Reigelman. The choice of plays was commendable, the casting was pleasing and the work was surprisingly meritorious. The program was given by the creative theatre section, new organization of the league and from the world Tuesday night. It would appear that this new section will develop into one of the outstanding groups.

Rebekah Lodge Plans Anniversary

The Salem Rebekah lodge is planning for an anniversary meeting of the lodge organization for its March 21 meeting, according to the report from the lodge proceedings of Monday night. It was also announced that the lodge will devote the entire evening, of March 14 to drill for the degree team.

Past Presidents Club Entertained

Mrs. Clara Adams entertained members of the Past President's club of the Woman's Relief corps at her home Wednesday afternoon. A port business meeting was followed by an enjoyable social afternoon.

Hunt Club Drill Well Received

An interesting affair of Tuesday night was the informal entertainment given by the Crop and Spur club of the Salem Riding Academy for about 100 of its friends.
