Twelve Schools are Sending Teams: Plans Complete For Annual Show

This is the first time that Salem has ever been host to the state wrestling tournament, but recent interest in wrestling has paved the way for staging it here. The bouts will be run off with direct elimination in six minute matches with the finals going nine minutes. Two mats will be in use all the time, making a

Salem Has Three Hopes For Titles Salem has three men whom Coach Pat Hogue believes will make strong bids for championships in their weights. Don Sugai, 160 pound Japanese grappler, is the most spectacular wrestler on the Salem team. The competition is strong in his weight, but he has lost but few bouts since he first took up wrestling. Osland in the 105 pound class and Anderson in the 115 pound class are two other Cherrians whohave good possibilities. A bronze and gold plaque is up for the winner of the tournament and will be a permanent possession of the school which wins it three times. Gold medals will be presented to the winners in each of the nine weights. First places will be the only ones counted in on team scores except in case of a tie when second places taken will determine the winner. With only nine first places to be divided among the dozen schools, more than two firsts for any team will, probably win the tournament. All entrants will be weighed in at five o'clock this afternoon. Each school is entitled to enter two men in each weight.

Some of the visiting grapplers will stay at the Willamette university fraternities while here. Officials for the tournament will be Don Hendrie and Max Bigby of Salem, L. A. King of Oregon City and Bob Savage of Port-

Henry Jones will make a good match for Bond who is considerably stronger than the Utah veteran, but not quite so fast. Robin Reed will have his hands full in trying to handle the stocky Percy Jackson. This will be a new venture in the wrestling game to have four such grapplers appearing on one card. Reed and Jones are the two best welterweights in this section and Bond and Jackson are worthy opponents.

The boxing and wrestling commission reports that $100 profits will today be turned over to the city for charitable purposes.
