

SCOTT'S MILLS PLAY GETS LARGE HOUSE

Visiting Group Makes Third Annual Appearance for Macleay Grange

MACLEAY, March 14.—The Parent Teacher's association of Scott's Mills, sponsored by the grange presented a home talent play before a large and appreciative audience at the Macleay hall Friday night for the third consecutive year.

In "Fingerprints" the three act comedy put on Friday, Raymond Kellis a "finger print detective" and Zella Smith, the humorous darky, and Chris Herigstad, the rich city clerk, again pleased their audience and the rest of the cast, though making their first appearance, were enthusiastically received.

Between acts, reading were given by Zella Smith and Gale Smith, Violet Hengstad, played a piano selection and Virginia Thompson gave a group of vocal numbers.

After the play dancing was enjoyed. The cast included Raymond Kellis, Delbert Edwards, Raymond Geiger, Chris Herigstad, Lillian Herigstad Magee, Fern Geiger, Virginia Thompson, Nellie Anderson, Cowme Moberg, Zella Magee Smith.

H. E. Club Meets

The Home Economics club will hold their regular monthly meeting at the hall Thursday afternoon.

At this meeting plans will be completed for the bazaar to be held April 1, and for a play to be put on April 2 by the Popcorn P. T. A. Mrs. Louise McGee and Mrs. E. Tooker will have charge of the program and Mrs. W. H. Humphreys and Mrs. W. Frink of the refreshments.

SCOTT INTERESTS BALLSTON AUDIENCE

BALLSTON, March 14.—Quincy Scott, dramatist and cartoonist for the Morning Oregonian, was the speaker for the regular monthly meeting of the Ballston community club, Friday night, in the Odd Fellows' Hall. He gave an entertaining talk on varied interests of the day.

The main burden of his talk held the cheer up note. He stated that United States had lived through many other periods of hard times, and he was sure the people of today had enough stamina to withstand the present situation.

After the talk by Quincy Scott, an interesting program was given: piano solo, Ruth Christenson of Broadmead; accordion solo, John Strickworthy; reading, "Little Jack," Marian Arndt of Sheridan; music, harmonica trio, Harry McKibben, Ernest Lenz, James DuFor; piano duet, Betty Gregg and Helen Sechrist; a song, Ollie and Alvin Pelzer; saxophone solo, Kenneth Epperly, accordion solo, Bud Elliott of Sheridan.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by a committee consisting of Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Ed Miller and Mrs. Lily Bowman.

The committee appointed by Dee Mellama, local community club president, to promote a minstrel show, has been acting to some extent. The committee consists of Howard Shafter, chairman, Mr. J. J. Sechrist, and Mrs. Francis Gregg. The cast is: Grace Sears, Fay Shafter, Frances Gregg, Marie Bissell, Dorothy Covey, Edith Lenz, Eleanor Gregg, Mabel Mellama, Howard Shafter, Jay Sechrist, W. E. Woods, Ernest Lenz, Eleanor Gregg, Mabel Mellama, Howard Shafter, Jay Sechrist, W. E. Woods, Ernest Lenz, Amos Hinton, Waldo Sears, James DuFor, Mrs. Chas. Sechrist will act as accompanist.

The show is to be given at the next regular monthly meeting of the local community club, Friday night, April 8, in the Odd Fellows Hall.

WOMEN'S ORCHESTRA READY FOR DEBUT

Mrs. Leginska Rehearsing Her Orchestra

When the facile baton of Mme. Ethel Leginska waves her symphony orchestra into action at Carnegie Hall, New York, on March 10, another victory will have been chalked up for woman in her ceaseless battle with sex prejudice, and she will have demonstrated her right to vie with the lordly male in the musical field as she has done in others. To Mme. Leginska belongs the credit for this new victory. In organizing and training her orchestra she has had to overcome many difficulties, chief among which was that of holding the aggregation together. The viragos and dynamic conductor is confident that if given a fair opportunity, women are just as competent in the musical field as men. Mme. Leginska went a long way toward proving this contention when she organized the Boston Women's Symphony Orchestra and took it on two highly successful tours, which beat most male orchestral concert tour records for numbers of engagements and large audiences. Her present aggregation of women musicians is composed of 100 girls and women. Mme. Leginska had to scour Europe and America for a French horn player and oboe player, but she got them. The woman music maestro believes that orchestral work is perfectly possible for married women, but she insists that husband and children must not take up too much of the musician's time, nor must she try to create babies and art at the same time.

TWO RICKEY GRADES MAKE HIGH RECORDS

RICKEY, March 14.—The sixth and seventh grades made exceptional grades in the test sent out recently by the county superintendent. The sixth grade averaged second highest in two room schools of the county and the seventh grade, though averaging higher than the sixth tied with Bethany and Union for third place in the county. All other grades here were average or better.

There are 11 pupils in the seventh grade. This grade has always won at least a certificate at the county spelling contest and twice has won silver medals. A number of this clan has attended the spelling contest ever since it was eligible which is, in third grade, and they expect to win the gold medal before they graduate.

Mrs. Minnie Joeckel and Mrs. Treasie Carlson are in charge of the school.

ACTIVE CALL SEEN FOR CUBE BUTTER

PORTLAND, March 14.—(AP)—Conditions in the butter market are steady but an active call is reflected for cubes. The serious factor is the apparent cutting of prices to big stores which are selling at retail below the wholesale cost.

ACHIEVEMENT PINS AWARDED CHILDREN

Silverton Chamber of Commerce Gives Program at Evans Valley

EVANS VALLEY, March 14.—Evans Valley school was literally packed Friday night with an audience which turned out to welcome the Silverton chamber of commerce program delegation.

An interesting feature of the evening was the awarding of the achievement pins to those who won them in their 4-H club work last year. Both the Evans Valley 4-H sewing club and the Camp Cookery club won the pins 100 per cent. The groups worked under the supervision of Ruby Down Schantz.

Members of the Sewing club were Genevieve and Marie Pedersen, Lois and Virginia Rue, Valentine Ness, Eleanor Roe and Dorothy Foote. In the Camp Cookery club were Melvin, Doris, Anna and Lawrence Brendon, Billie and Francis Ness, Raymond Farnus, Evelyn Dask, Clayton Langset, Virgil DePiero, Earl Johnson and Walter Roe. Last season the Camp Cookery club built its log cabin completely from virgin timber. This year the club is furnishing the cabin.

Members of the Sewing club of 18 voices gave some selections at the Friday night meeting and Fred Baker's 14 piece orchestra from Silverton was also present and gave a few selections.

Numbers put on by the chamber of commerce included a vocal solo by George Reed accompanied on the guitar and harmonica by Arthur Cannoy and Norman Denison; a skit by F. M. Powell and Gus Herr; a skit by Arthur and Otto Dahl and Mr. Sowell; a vocal solo by Miss Francis Nelson with her mother, Mrs. Alf Ott at the piano; a tap dance, Buddy Sewell Mrs. Roy Davenport at the piano; a yodeling number by Elvin Almquist; selection by the Strangers, composed of Paul

New high selling marks for cabbage was reported for the season when California stock of top quality was boosted to $4 cental. Some California stock is not above $2.50.

SIGN OF MILD WINTER

PARIS, Mo., (AP)—J. F. Glover, weather prophet, is certain the mild winter will continue. Hornets built their nests in high places last summer, which he calls an "infallible sign."

WON'T QUIT

Ignoring demands that he resign, President Svinhufvud of Finland (above) ordered Government forces to resist attempts of the Lapan-Fascist "army" to seize Helsinki, the capital. The Fascist leaders have demanded the resignation of the entire cabinet.

Almquist, Earl Booth and E. H. Huddleston; selections by Rudd Bentzoff's old time orchestra; dialect reading by Otto Dahl.

ECONOMICS CLUB MEETS TOMORROW

VICTOR POINT, March 14—

The Home Economics club meeting which was postponed last week because of Mr. Barpett's death will be held at the grange hall Wednesday at 2 p. m. A vote will be taken to decide whether the future meetings will be held in the hall or in the homes of members.

Union Hill grange will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday night. The lecturer, Mrs. Yerny Scott, has arranged an interesting program honoring the birth of Saint Patrick. The men members will serve lunch with M. M. Gil-mour as chairman of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Krenz were hosts Thursday night to members of the former Silver Falls Home-stead Brotherhood American Yeoman which is now combined with the Salem Homestead. The time was spent in playing cards and in a social way, and at a late hour supper was served at a table centered with low bowls of daffodils and all green papers. Covers were placed for Mrs. Minnie Mulkey, Mrs. Hanna Ruffer, Mr. and Mrs. William DeLangh, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Hunt, Miss Barbara DeLangh, C. H. Lovett, Elmer Reede, Mr. and Mrs. Krenz, Laurel and Richard Krenz.

Miss Bernita Jones and Paul Sharpe of Portland were Sunday afternoon visitors at the C. C. Jones home.

Saturday night about 50 grange members and their friends enjoyed a social time at the hall. Cards and music were enjoyed until a late hour and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Neal, Shirley Jean and Kenneth of Westfir and Mr. and Mrs. George Scott of Union Hill were Sunday dinner guests at the J. C. Krenz home.
