

OAK POINT FAIR FOR FALL VOTED

P. T. A. to Sponsor Event in November; Rex Family Leaves

OAK POINT, March 14.—A good crowd turned out for the P. T. A. meeting in the school house Thursday night. A new curtain for the stage is to be installed before the play "Deeds Done in Dubbs" is put on. Mrs. Hugh Rogers, Miss Pearl Eyre and Mrs. Robert Seegar were appointed on curtain committee. G. A. Peterson gave a talk on Oregon Dairy Council and advised joining same. A community fair was discussed at length, and a motion was passed to hold a community fair in the school house on the regular P. T. A. meeting night in November.

A debate on installment buying with Theodosia Mueller and Rodney Peterson taking the affirmative and Kenneth Black and Koi-chi Inouye the negative, was enjoyed. William Wolf furnished music on his accordion, and a spelling match.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harnsberger are moving back to their farm here at Hing in Salem during the winter. Mr. Harnsberger will drive to his work in Salem and their two daughters will enter Oak Point school for the spring term.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rex and son Herbert are leaving the affirmative next week for their new home a mile and a half north of Monroe. They traded their 70-acre farm here for 214 acres there. Mr. Rex is in the dairy business and wanted more pasture room. The Independence Rural Woman's club and their husbands and families and invited guests met at the Rex home to bid them farewell and to wish them success in their new home. A handkerchief shower for Mrs. Rex was a pleasant surprise.

Mr. Rex has lived in this community 24 years and has taken an active part in community affairs, having served on the school board 21 years, and has been superintendent of the Sunday school.

BARNES INJURED IN UNLOADING LUMBER

JEFFERSON, March 14.—P. N. Barnes is preparing to build a new chicken house on his farm in the Millersburg community four miles south of here. While he was unloading the lumber, he was struck by a falling plank, breaking two ribs and lacerating his flesh. While the injury is quite painful, he is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Behl of Lacombe and Mr. Behl's father, Albert Behl of Tacoma, were recent guests at the C. Theissen home. Albert Behl came to see his son, who is undergoing treatment at the tuberculosis sanitarium at Salsport and is reported to be steadily improving. Mrs. Behl is a niece of Mrs. Theissen.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ammon and sons, Claude, Eddy and Leonard and O. E. Smith attended the Progress Exposition at Albany Thursday. The boys are 4-H club members and were there for the club day program.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynes, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKee and daughter, Virginia; Jean McKee, were Sunday guests at Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Denison at Corvallis, Sunday. Other guests at the Denison home were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denison and Mrs. Schultz of Carlton.

The family who lived on the Frank McManis place near the depot for the past year, have moved into the S. A. Pease house on the cemetery road.

CARPENTERS BUSY AT HAZEL GREEN

HAZEL GREEN, March 14.—D. E. Hummel is building a dwelling and garage north of the C. A. Kobow home on land inherited by Mrs. Hummel, nee Gladys Kerns, from her grandfather, Fred Kobow. Mr. Hummel operated a garage in Brooks until recently when he had the fingers of one hand crushed.

Miss Ruby Woodward is having a brooder house of 2000 baby chick capacity built. She has installed a 12,000 egg incubator. She has a fine flock of White Leghorns.

Frank Zellinski has reshingled his hop house, which he uses as granary since digging up his hop yard. The contractor has finished N. P. Williamson's garage. The family, Mr. Williamson, daughter Miss Carolyn and son Victor, moved in this week. They expect to build a house soon. W. H. Williamson has reshingled the tower to his water system. G. G. Looney is having a brooder house built.

Rodent Campaign To Get Under Way On Rosedale Farms

ROSEDALE, March 14.—The community club met in regular session Saturday night. The subject of rodent poison was discussed.

PUPILS' OPERETTA IS WELL RECEIVED

Scores of Children Take Part in Training School Presentation

INDEPENDENCE, March 14.—"Bits of Blarney," two-act operetta, presented by the 7th and 8th grades of the Independence training school in the auditorium Friday night was enthusiastically received by a large audience. A thatched roof cottage and a rock wall made a realistic Irish stage setting for the scene representing a picnic in Mike O'Noole's garden in Ireland.

The cast included: Peggy, Frances Knott; Patrick, Eddie Pomeroy; Robert, Billie Campbell; Mary, Frances Haley; Agnes, Marcella Bush; Rose, Joyce Johnson, and Mike O'Noole, Jimmy Sly.

The operetta was directed by Miss Henrietta Wolf. Miss Lolla Howe and Mrs. Mona Sheldon assisted by student teachers and members of the Normal school faculty. Music was furnished by the training orchestra directed by William Kelley.

The accompanists for the operetta were Miss Frances Shogren for act one and Miss Gertrude Athey for act two. The singers were Ieta McLaughlin, Loree Burch, Helen Maitland, Joyce Johnson, Ann Walker, Sarephine Trombly, Mary Grover, Constance Cohrs, Mildred Hartman, Pauline Noyes, Marcella Bush, Irene Fauver, and Francis Haley, girls chorus, Kenneth Bidgood, Milton DeForest, Ronald Busby, Ray Dunkel, Dean Watenberger, Charles Mattison, Hugh Watts, Alden Hulbert, Alden Campbell, Billy Campbell, boys' chorus.

Students taking part in the feature dance "Foggy O'Neil" were Lora Arrell, Clara Syverson, Vivian Soden, Frances Hanna, Mary Grover, Kathern Hartman, Neva Jean Thompson, Hazel Wedde, Marjorie Kurre, and Beatrice Barton. A feature dance, "How-De-Do" was given by Mildred Howard, Audrey Ruch, Mary Mill-edge, Lavina Ragan, Leota Hubbard, Eloise Imbler, Margaret McKenzie, Helen Gee, Marjorie Basuet, Hazel Crowley, Dorothy

Wilson Family Goes To Portland to Live

CLOVERDALE, March 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson and family moved to Portland Friday where Mr. Wilson has employment as head sawyer in one of the lumber mills there. They had been living in the house recently built by Joe Morris and the two children attended school here.

Mrs. W. Anderson is staying in Portland for some time where she is receiving medical treatment.

STEINER SECRETARY OF COUNTY COUNCIL

33rd Annual Convention of Sunday School Group is Great Success

FRATUM, March 14.—The 33rd annual convention of the Marion county Sunday school council is a pleasant memory now, with busy sessions held here Friday and Saturday, when all main speakers on hand and only six of the 27 institute leaders unable to attend. All but two of the county officers were reelected. Eugene Silke, secretary-treasurer for the past five years, gives up this work because he is not living here, and John Steiner takes over the duties. Silke will continue to help with the work. Mrs. Hill of Woodburn was elected to the position held by Mrs. Myers of Woodburn. Friday night was especially interesting, with the singing in charge of the Gideon quartet of Salem. Dale Matthews, a Gideon from Portland, also sang. Four Gideons from Portland, Messrs. West, Garnett, Johnson and Linstead, gave short addresses and also George K. Miles, a banker from Miles City, Mont., gave an interesting talk on the beginning of Sunday school work in his city many years ago.

The local community attended well, also Linn and Polk counties were well represented. Silverton sent a fine delegation and a few attended from Woodburn, Stayton, Turner, Aumsville, North Salem, Silverton Hills and the Red Hills district.

Mrs. A. B. Adkisson of Gervais had charge of the song service Saturday. The following district presidents attended: Miss Gladys Brown of Hayesville; Ira Loren, Silverton; George Higgins, Jed Hills, and John Mix, Santiam.

The main speakers, Rev. P. W. Eriksen, Mitchell and Cromley, brought interesting messages.

Club's March Meet Draws Good Crowd

WALDO HILLS, March 14.—A well-filled house was present to enjoy the March meeting of the Waldo Hills community club. The program was in charge of the Fred Knight and Albert Lechty families. The entertainment consisted of vocal solos by Marjorie Hillman and Harold Liechty, readings by Bessie Ray, selections on the harmonica and accordion by Melvin Kasser, and vocal duets by Mrs. Flora Headrick and Ralph Langley.

The flu has hit hard in the hills. While not so many are ill, those who are seem to be a long time recovering. Mrs. William Haevernick and her daughter, Mrs. Otto Dickman, are very ill, Mrs. Dickman having since from No. A. R. Purvis is confined to his bed.

COMMUNITY CLUB HEARS BIRTCHET

BRUSH COLLEGE, March 14.—An appreciative audience of between 70 and 80 enjoyed the excellent program given at the regular Brush College community club meeting. Rev. Grover Birtchet, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Salem, spoke, giving a vivid description of life in South America.

Other numbers were: Reading, Margaret Ewing; play, "When George and Martha Return," the main parts by Antonio Krall and Maxine Olson, Ruth Whitney, pianist; vocal solo, Billy Utley, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. A. E. Utley; vocal duet, Miss Ruth Maers and Miss Reva Clark of West Salem, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett.

CHOIR PRACTICE

BALSTON, March 14.—The choir of the local Community church has been faithfully practicing every Monday night at the home of the Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Cassie Sechrist, on music for the Easter program. Quite a large number have been attending the music this year, and from all indications will be quite superior to that of former years.

Better tobaccos—that's the reason. Ripe, mellow tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic.

Not just blended, but cross-blended—that is, one kind of leaf blended with another kind—not merely mixed with it. And just enough Turkish tobacco to give the right aroma—to make the taste better.

The paper is the purest that can be made. It burns without taste or odor.

Every care is taken for just one purpose—to make the best cigarette that can be made. Try them.
