O.S.C. Banquet Will be Event of Tonight

An event of large interest tonight will be the Oregon state college club banquet at 6:15 o'clock in the Silver Grille room of the Gray Belle. An evening of informality has been planned with only one set appearance on the program, that of a talk by Edward A. Stevens, who coaches the rowing crew in Oregon State college.

This club was organized September 2, 1910 as the Orange club. Charter members were Laud and Mrs. Hamilton, Frank Ward, Carl Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson, Carl Steiner, Ray Ethel, and Bess Smith, Donald Morgan, Mr. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weeks, Miss Lettie Abrams, Mr. Donnelly, Percy Cupper, and Miss Mabel Huddleston.

The club met regularly once a month until this past year when it was decided to meet only upon call. The number had grown so large and the interests so divergent because of difference in age and occupations that it was impossible to keep a club unity. There were at the last count 400 graduates and ex-students of Oregon State college in Salem.

The name of "Orange" club was changed after an incident which confused the organization with Irish politics.

Mrs. M. D. McCallister has had general charge of the plans for the banquet tonight.

A jolly birthday party celebrated the anniversary of Lorris Young Saturday evening. St. Patrick's day symbols were used as a decorative motif. Games preceded refreshments. Present in compliment to Lorris were Wiley Young, Marjorie Stiffler, Ellenita Stiffler, Bud Stiffler, Viola Eisenbach, Marvin Tartar, Cloyce Drake, Roland Stoddard, Virginia Stoddard, Lavina Simpson, Alberta Asucey, Kenneth Grant, Lorna Grant, Evelyn Grant, James McAlvin, Joe Rundall, Floyd Poote, Marjorie Freeburg, Junior Butler, Alicia Butler, Arlo Young and Mr. and Mrs. Young.

Hollywood—The regular meeting of the Merry Minglers was held at the home of Mrs. R. I. Shaw Thursday afternoon. The regular business session was followed by a delightful social afternoon. Mrs. McNeil was a special guest. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. S. Barker.

Those present were Mrs. McNeil, Mrs. J. J. Ackerman, Mrs. J. J. Ackerman, Mrs. J. E. Woodburn, Mrs. F. P. Phipps, Mrs. C. C. Colwell, Mrs. A. W. Fletcher, Mrs. A. McCain, Mrs. Fred Scharif, Mrs. E. S. Barker, Miss Fern Colwell and Mrs. R. I. Shaw.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Interest in contrast promises to continue throughout the entire summer season. Here a frock of printed silk has a yoke, smartly reversed, in plain color. A stunning model which offers delightful opportunity for individual taste in selecting colors most becoming. The pointed details are extremely fashionable and lend a youthful, slender effect. Harmonizing prints could be delightfully used in this model.

Pattern 2301 may be ordered only in sizes 14 to 20 and 32 to 42. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards of 39-inch fabric, 1 yard contrasting.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (from post office) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new spring fashion catalog is now ready. This beautiful, colorful book offers delightful opportunity for individual taste in selecting colors most becoming. ## Unique Organization Elects Officers

The state chapter of Daughters of Founders of Patriots met in Portland at the "Sign of the Rose" tea room for a delightful luncheon Wednesday and transacted business accumulated during the three months since the last meeting of the group.

Election of officers resulted in Mrs. Earl C. Bronaugh of Portland being placed in the president's chair; Mrs. Russell Catlin, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Poppleton, Oregon, recording secretary; Mrs. John Galagher, Portland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Oscar Tinkle, Portland, registrar; Mrs. Herbert A. Hale, Portland, re-elected treasurer; Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross, Portland, historian; Mrs. Jacob Shumaker, McMinnville, chaplain; Mrs. Roy S. Stearns, Portland, color bearer.

26 new councillors chosen were Mrs. J. H. Judelson, Portland; Mrs. B. G. Harding, Medford; Mrs. O. J. Goffin, Portland.

The only member to attend from Salem was Mrs. W. H. Byrd. Other members in Salem are Mrs. Catlin, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Frank Spears, and Mrs. W. B. Johnston.

The next meeting of the group will be in Salem some time in June following the acceptance of an invitation to come here extended through Mrs. Byrd.

This group of interesting women is very small. Only those who can trace in unbroken descent ancestry to founders or patriots of the Colonial times and the Revolutionary war. The object is four-fold, to associate women whose ancestors struggled for the first rights of the present United States; teach reverence for American historical events; to discover and preserve Colonial records unwritten; and to commemorate the historical events of colonies and the Republic and in time of war to give special service.

Mr. and Mrs. King Bartlett entertained with a bridge evening at their home Saturday night. Spring flowers used in artistic manner about the rooms gave a pretty background for the bridge tables. At a late hour refreshments were served. Mrs. Clifford Parker and Glen Porter held winning scores for the evening of cards. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Hultenborg, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Pearl Victor.

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall will entertain members of the Sweet Briar club at her home on Wallace road Wednesday. There will be a potluck luncheon at noon. Members are asked to bring additional table service.

Lindquist-Fake Nuptials Celebrated

Miss Charlotte Lindquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lindquist, became the bride of George Fake, son of Mrs. C. H. Fake, Saturday night at 7 o'clock in a quiet wedding at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. P. W. Erikson read the ceremony before immediate relatives and a few close friends.

There were no attendants. The bride wore a semi-formal gown of soft blue color combined with lace and carried a shower bouquet of freesias and pink rosebuds.

Miss Mary Fake played the wedding marches. Miss Arbutus Rudie was soloist accompanied by Miss Fake.

An informal reception followed the impressive ceremony. The bride and Mrs. Fake left for two weeks to be spent in a trip to California. Upon their return they will make their home in Salem where Mr. Fake is a member of the staff of the secretary of state.

Lions' Ladies Will Be Entertained

The Lions' ladies are being invited to attend the "style show" being offered by the Lions as a feature of the Thursday luncheon in the Silver Grille of the Gray Belle. Representative stores will present models showing spring and summer attire.

Following the style revue the wives are invited to the home of Mrs. Frank Doolittle, 464 Rural avenue, where a social afternoon will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Doolittle is being assisted as hostess by Mrs. A. S. Johnson, Mrs. H. C. Aiken and Mrs. Percy Hubbard.
