

JOE JAMESES HONOR GUESTS

On 25th Wedding Anniversary; Magee Returns To Hornbrook

SCOTT'S MILLS, March 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe James were pleasantly surprised Saturday night at their home, three and one half miles from Scott's Mills on the Silverton-Marquam road. The occasion was their 25th wedding anniversary. About 50 were present as they went to the Marquam hall. A mock wedding was a feature of the evening. Late in the evening lunch was served. Guests present were from Silverton, Salem, Corvallis, Woodburn, Marquam and Scott's Mills. The Jameses were presented with a 25-piece silver set.

Mills Nicholson is carrying the mail on the route for Carl Millard who is confined to his home with inflammatory rheumatism. The Scott's Mills grange met Thursday night in the Grohning building for a social time. The R. N. A. club met Friday for an all day meeting in the club room in the Grohning building. Mrs. William Fry, Mrs. George Haynes and Mrs. A. J. Ertel were hostesses for the dinner. A short business meeting was held in the afternoon. Mrs. Herman Landman, Mrs. Levi Kellis and Mrs. E. R. Lawrence are to be hostesses for the next meeting to be April 1.

Hugh Magee left Saturday for Hornbrook, Calif., where he has been working. He was called home two weeks ago by the illness of his son Dale, who has recovered from a siege of the flu.

The play "Fingerprints" given by the P. O. O. hall night in I. O. O. F. hall was well attended. Each one acted his part well, especially Raymond Kellis as the expert. The proceeds Friday night were over $30.

FARM WORK GOING AS RAINS PERMIT

SUNNYSIDE, March 15.—Sunnyside appreciated the splendid program of music, song and speech presented Thursday by a group of boosters out to swat Old Man Depression, and who succeeded in scattering the gloom for the time being. This crowd of entertainers were Salem men from the chamber of commerce, "Tiny" McNamara, who performed at the piano, was much enjoyed and a great delight to the small boy, and brought forth repeated applause. Henry Crawford, field man with the Ladd & Bush bank, spoke on the signs of the times and the prairie situation. The Salem male quartet won much applause.

Farming operations are going forward as weather permits. Loganberry vines are being trained up on the wire, some fields are a week ahead. Much of the wheat suffered from the severe winter weather, causing the heaving up and freezing of the grain plant. The ring of hammer and saws are heard abroad in the land as new buildings are being constructed, several new homes are in the making along the highway, new families moving in seeking better locations.

COOPERATION NEED, EDWARDS DECLARES

ROBERTS, March 15.—A large appreciative audience was at the Community club meeting here Saturday night. After a short business session with President Schenberger presiding, the chairman of program committee took charge. Mr. Edwards of the State Grange gave an instructive and interesting talk on grange work. He stressed the necessity of cooperation among the farmers. Little Betty Jane Connors recited.

ARMED GUARDS PROTECT MOVIE CHILDREN

CLIFF MONTGOMERY and CHARGE.

The pathetic spectacle of a nation's helplessness following the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby indicates that the only defense against this type of crime is to lock the stable before the theft. Accordingly, many movie celebrities of Hollywood, whose fabulous salaries make them potential targets for the art of the extortionist, are taking elaborate precautions to protect their children. Anna Harding, noted stage and screen star, was the recipient of a note of "friendly warning." Jane, was about to be kidnapped. Miss Harding immediately doubled the force of armed guards that already protected her home. The child is now kept under constant vigilance. The home of Harold Lloyd is similarly protected and his three children, Gloria, Peggy and Buddy, are never out of sight of quick-trigger guards. But it is not only in Hollywood that such precautions are being taken. Gene Tunney has applied for police protection for his child, although it is a brave kidnaper who would take any liberties with the child of the former heavyweight champion of the world. Residents in the exclusive districts of Park and Fifth Avenues, too, are taking precautions by employing college athletes to protect their children while outside their home. Already many students of Columbia University are availing themselves of this method of paying their expenses through college. Above is Cliff Montgomery, of Columbia's grid squad, who is one of the collegians to adopt this congenial employment.

Narcissus Blooms Make Appearance In Jensen Gardens

BRUSH CREEK, March 15.—Narcissus have begun to bloom in the gardens of Miss Alice Jensen here. Miss Jensen has several thousand bulbs and 11 different varieties. The full glory of the blooms will not be reached for several days yet. Daffodils on the Ed Nelson farm in the Silverton Hills are also beginning to bloom. The Nelsons have something like a thousand clumps of the King Alfred variety.

SPELLING CONTEST PICKS COMMITTEE

TALBOT, March 15.—The Santiam Community Club met in the Ankeny Grange hall Friday night with a large attendance. During the business meeting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Emmons and Mr. and Mrs. Cook were appointed on the kitchen committee. Ruben Edwards and family of Lacombe put on an hour's entertainment, which was much enjoyed. In an old fashioned spelling match, Gilbert Belknap and A. L. Emmons chose sides. Mr. Emmons side losing. This side is to put on the program at the next club meeting. Mrs. Ray Reeves and daughter Miss Elida Wintermantel are in Canby to spend a few days with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Belknap and family spent Sunday at Monroe, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Belknap.

Parent-Teacher Meet Postponed for Week

SCIO, March 15.—The March meeting of the Scio P. T. A. has been postponed from Thursday, March 17, until sometime next week. The theme of the meeting will be "The Challenge of the Children's Charter to the Community." Mr. Myers will talk on "Finance in the Community." Pupils from the eighth grade will

SCHOOL CLOSED AS TEACHER HAS FLU

GRAND ISLAND, March 15.—Severe colds and a light form of influenza have been very prevalent in the community during the last month. At present a large majority of the families in the district are afflicted with the epidemic. Last Wednesday over half of the children in the upper room were absent from school. Since Thursday morning the four upper grades have been free from school duties due to the illness of their instructor, Mrs. Pauline Fowler. It is indefinite as to when the upper room will again resume their school activities.

Mrs. Roy E. Will and Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson attended a silver tea of the missionary society of the Dayton Christian church held Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. L. Sherman. A special feature of the afternoon was a very interesting talk given by Miss Hattie P. Mitchell, a return missionary from the Belgium Congo in Africa. Among her interesting souvenirs she had a copy of the new testament and a hymnal both written in the native language besides a large group of pictures which was used in illustrating her talk. The Grand Island Improvement club will hold its regular business meeting at the schoolhouse Saturday night, March 19. The program is in charge of the literary chairman, Mrs. Pauline Fowler and two assistants, Mrs. Grace Wiley and Mrs. Hattie Letley.

FLU HITS HARDER; LID IS ON ACTIVITY

FALLS CITY, March 15.—All public gatherings have shown a decided decrease in attendance lately due to the many cases of flu present in the city. Social activities have been halted to a certain extent. Mrs. Norman McDonald is slowly recovering from a bad case of the flu. She suffered a relapse and has been confined to her bed until just recently. A most enjoyable card party was given in the Masonic hall Tuesday night. The members of Luckiamoot chapter A. F. and A. F. and members of Rhododendron chapter, O. E. S. were joint hosts. Eight tables of bridge and three of 600 were in play with ladies high score going to Mrs. Sherman Foster, and mens high to Ned Smith. Special guests were Miss Jessie Mae Irvine, Miss Geraldine Richardson, Mrs. Vernon Estelle, Mrs. D. J. Ickers, Mrs. Ned Smith, Mrs. Sol Wingo, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Foster, and Mrs. J. H. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson, Ernest Helgeson, E. W. Watt, D. J. Grant, A. G. Adams and Hal Thompson.

Woodburn News

WOODBURN, March 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Magnusen have moved to Kelso, Wash., where Mr. Magnusen is to have charge of the Union Oil company's station in that city. Along with Magnusen's transfer came a promotion, so now he is manager of the Washington station. Mr. Magnusen went to Kelso last Tuesday and Mrs. Magnusen went today.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman K. Richards returned to Woodburn Saturday after having spent a week in California visiting several of the principal cities. They visited San Francisco and also stayed for some time at Palo Alto. They visited with Mr. Richards' uncle, George Richards, in Sacramento. They reported a very fine trip.

Rumor is Scouted
There has been a rumor circulating in Woodburn to the effect that schools will be forced to close a month or eight weeks before the regular time, because of lack of funds. There is apparently no foundation for the report. The matter has not been brought up at any school meeting, and the more general idea is that the schools have sufficient funds to operate to the end of the school year. It has been pointed out that if school funds were becoming low, war bonds would be issued to the teachers. The teachers are being paid as usual.

Mrs. O. R. Chambers, who is connected with Oregon State college at Corvallis, spoke to all the girls at Woodburn high school Monday afternoon on "Life and the Job." Mrs. Chambers was scheduled as speaker through arrangements made by the vocational committee of the local Girls' league. Preceding the talk the newly elected Girls' league officers were installed. They are: president, Dorothy Lee; vice president, Mary Jackson; secretary, Vernice Bentz; treasurer, Thelma Hammond; and press reporter, Mona Doss.

Music for the annual state-wide high school music tournament, held at Pacific university in Forest Grove, has been chosen. The glee club of Woodburn high school, under the direction of Miss Nelma Saylor, are working on five numbers. They are: "Night Song," by Clokey, for girls' glee club; "Gypsy Life," by Scott, for mixed chorus; "Wind on the Hill," by O'Hara, for boys' glee club; "Take You Home Again," Kathleen, for boys' quartet; and McDowell's "Cradle Song," for the girls' quartet. Woodburn high school's glee clubs have competed at the Forest Grove tournament for several years, and have always received favorable comment. Several prizes have been won at the contest.

Junior's Champions
The junior girls interclass basketball team at the local high school became champion of the school here recently. The seniors were second, the sophomores third and freshmen fourth. Members of the winning team were forwards, Lois Lindsay, Lois Frötor, Hassel

MRS. H. WILL, 81, OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

AUBORA, March 15.—Sunday at the Will home on Main street, the family of Mrs. Henrietta Will gathered to do her honor, it being her 81st birthday anniversary. "Gram," as she is affectionately known, is active and keeps up a large house which is the favorite gathering place for her children, grand children and their friends. Gathered around the table, centered with the traditional birthday cake with 81 lighted tapers were Mrs. Henrietta Will, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Will, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hurst, Evadna, Terry and Bobbie Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hurst and Alice Will of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ehlen and Mrs. Ben Will and son of Eugene. The day was marred only by the absence of Dorothy Hurst, a grand-daughter who was in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland recovering from an operation. Dorothy's birthday falls on the day following that of her grandmother, and the celebration is always a double one. Later in the day a number motored to Portland to visit Dorothy.

Olsen Funeral Rites Are This Afternoon

SILVERTON, March 15.—Funeral services for Mrs. R. Olsen, who died at her Hubbard home Sunday night will be held there Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. Several Silverton people are planning to attend. Mrs. Olsen, with her husband, who has since died, lived for several years on the Paradise Alley road. For the past few years she has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Alvin Williams at Hubbard. Mr. Williams is a brother of Mrs. L. H. Meyers of Silverton.
