

TEACHER COSTS LOW AT DALLAS

Survey Shows Salaries Bottom in State in First Class Schools

DALLAS, March 21.—A recent survey of the teachers' salaries in the elementary and high school districts of the first class revealed the fact, according to the Oregon Voter, that the Dallas school system is credited as being conducted at the lowest per capita cost of any standard school. The lowest minimum and maximum salary in the Dallas elementary school being $330 and $1110 respectively, the state average outside of Dallas and Portland is $1070 and $1350. This represents 23 schools of the first class.

In the high schools it was found that the minimum for Dallas, Salem, Milwaukie, Hood River and Cottage Grove was $1170. Oregon City $1140; Grants Pass $1125; Hillsboro $1085; and the state average $125 or higher than the Dallas scale. The maximum for Dallas is $1410 and the state average $1610. Albany, Astoria, North Bend and The Dalles pay $1440.

Under salaries for school administration it was found that the state average for superintendent was $3670 and that Dallas paid $3500 with a ten years teaching record. The Dalles, Tillamook and Roseburg pay a similar salary. Albany, Ashland, Corvallis, Hood River, North Bend and Parkrose pay $3600. Silverton pays $3750; Oregon City $4000.

For high school principal the state average is $2760 and Dallas pays $2040. Ashland and Newberg pay $2400. Silverton $2310. Grants Pass $2500 and Albany $2250.

The state average for the principal of a junior high school is $1995 while Dallas pays $1200. Newberg and Oregon City pay $1400. Silverton $1700. McMinnville and Grants Pass $1800 and Hood River $2150.

In elementary schools the average of the state for the salary of a principal is $1800; Dallas being low for the state with $1170. Hillsboro pays $2200; Hood River $1900; McMinnville $1350; Tillamook $1800; and Newberg $1500.

Three well equipped school buildings make up the Dallas school system, and for the past two years many pupils are brought in to both the elementary, junior, and senior high schools under the Transportation act. The school board has maintained a high standard at low cost to the taxpayer.

WOMEN MAKE HIKE TO LUMBER CAMPS

LYONS, March 21.—A number of women from Lyons hiked up McCully mountain to the Wren Lumber company mill camp one day recently to spend the afternoon with Mrs. Guy Malone. Those going were Mrs. Alta Bodeker, Mrs. Inez Ring, Mrs. Rosa Berny, Mrs. Laura Neal, Mrs. Elizabeth Westenhoe and small daughter Charman, Mrs. Henry Bodeker, Mrs. Thelma Surny and Mrs. Clara Brown.

Miss Doris Huber is employed at the telephone office as switchboard operator at present. Mrs. Holford, who is the local central office operator, is assisting with caring for her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. D. Crabtree, who is ill, but who has been able to improve the last several days.

Among those from Lyons attending the pre-Easter rally services at the Church of Christ in Stayton Friday night were Mrs. Grace Holford, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson and Mrs. Anna Holt. A dedication from the Mill City church was also present. A splendid dedication program was enjoyed at the Stayton church. A new basement has just recently been added to the building for social activities and classroom use.

ANACONA HEN LAYS DAILY FOR MONTHS

RIVERVIEW, March 21.—Mrs. Joe Ambrose has an Anacona hen that laid an egg measuring 7 1/2 by 3 1/4 inches, and with a double yolk. The hen is two years old and lays an egg 6 1/4 by 7 1/2 inches. She has laid an egg a day for the last 15 months, never missing a day.

The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph MacDonald, with Mrs. Ester Peterson as joint hostesses. The club voted to make window curtains for the community club and schoolhouse kitchen. Thirty-five members and two visitors were present. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Anna Holt with Mrs. Russell Kelly as joint hostesses. Mrs. Holt has invited the group to meet with her Thursday to do quilting.

L. P. Bartnick who has been employed at Upper Soda is home to do his spring planting.

CALL TO HUBBARD BRUSH CREEK, MARCH 21

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer were called to Hubbard Saturday night to assist in the care of Alvin Williams, a brother of Mrs. Meyer, who has been quite ill from influenza. Mr. Williams was much improved by Sunday and the Meyers returned to their home here. Mrs. Williams had her third and is still quite weak. Her mother, Mrs. E. Olson, who had made her home with her daughter and son-in-law, died a week ago Sunday and the shock of this has retarded her recovery.

Quintet Ends Season With Big Banquet

MILL CITY, March 21 — The Mill City high school entertained the basketball team at the third annual basketball banquet Friday night, with the faculty and 70 members of the student body present.

The tables arranged in cabaret style were beautifully decorated in green and yellow, the high school colors. Daffodils and tall green candles formed the centerpiece of each table. The place cards were another attraction of the tables being green and yellow stems containing the evening program cleverly concealed in the yellow foam. The decoration committee was Edward Chance, Oliver Schaar, Rex Wallace and Elsie Crall.

The delicious dinner was prepared by Mary Rada, Genella Gregory, Agnes Brown and Marie Hillman, and was served by Jennie Gordon, Blanche Swan, Lucille Spry, Agnes Brown and Shirley Horner.

The program included a guitar solo by Oliver Schaar; song, "The Song of India," by Audrey LaDuke, Florence Root, Maxine Jewell, Dorothea Dunivan, Genella Gregory, and Shirley Horner, guitar trio of the high school girls; Glee; short talk on "Basketball" by Hylke Fitzgerald; guitar solo by Homer Thacker; a duet by Dorothea Dunivan and Audrey LaDuke; guitar solo by a guest, Harbo Thompson.

The program was concluded by a clever skit on "Basketball" on basketball heroes which made a dramatic close for a successful evening.

GRANGERS ENJOY 'GREEN' PROGRAM

STAYTON, March 21.—Stayton grange paid tribute to St. Patrick during their program, with readings and musical numbers. The program opened with Mrs. E. R. Olds' orchestra furnishing two numbers. Next came a humorous recitation by Clem Crane. Seven grange members each gave a spring quotation and Lem Phillips sang two of the good old Irish ballads, accompanying himself on the guitar. Mrs. Ida Nippa followed with reading "Cooperation and Harmony" in grange work, and closed her talk by reading the 10 commandments for grangers prepared by S. H. Edwards.

C. A. Ratcliffe of Salem followed with a most interesting address on China, telling of the most part of conditions in Shanghai when he was there some time ago. Mrs. Kohl then gave a reading "St. Patrick's birthday," and this was followed by another Irish song. Miss Ella Williams gave a clever, original reading, which brought the program to a close.

Mrs. Rena Tate, lecturer, has planned some very interesting programs since she has been in office.

Several members of the Epworth league enjoyed a party at the church basement Saturday night. Games were enjoyed and an excellent lunch was furnished. Walter Pelham was in charge of the party, with Rev. Wayne Wright as chaperon.

MAT MALONE BUYS WHITE FRONT HOTEL

HUBBARD, March 21.—Mel Malone has purchased the White Front hotel, formerly owned by Frank Thompson, and will begin remodeling and renovating at once. Malone plans to make the place a modern lunch room and recreation center.

The reading school sponsored by the Hubbard Service store and held in the Pythian hall last week was well attended. Mrs. Humphreys and Mr. Lacy conducted the demonstrations. Mrs. L. H. Bates won the grand prize, a huge angel food cake; Mrs. Ruth Stauffer won the grand prize of 48 pound sack of flour in the attendance contest; Mrs. Frank Grims won the 24 pound sack; and Anna Scholl, the 10 pound sack.

John Friend, the local barber, will give his family from Woodburn to the C. W. Mayer house about April 10.

Verna Smolinsky, a senior at the University of Oregon, arrived Friday to spend her spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smolinsky.

JANE HAMMEL IS HOSTESS TO GROUP

FALLS CITY, March 21.—Miss Jane Hammel entertained at her home Friday night with a delightful St. Patrick's party. About 50 young people were present. Competitive games were played with prizes going to Sam Spearstra, Walter Warner and Donald Ferguson.

An Epworth League was organized with Mrs. Walter Warner in charge. The officers elected: president, Sam Spearstra; vice president, Jane Hammel; Ellen Pierce, Rozella Funk, Kathrine Wagner and Revell Howell; secretary, Georgiana Loftus; treasurer, Vivian Deal.

Mrs. Ethel Meldrum of Milwaukie, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon will make a special visit Wednesday. A basketball team has been organized from the high school and town teams. The quintet goes by the name of the "Dirty Irish Five." The first game was with the Dallas Polo Cats and they defeated them by a 39-35 score.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE FETED AT BANQUET

Sewing Club Members Entertain Teachers at Leap Year Affair

JEFFERSON, March 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Lyman W. Patton entertained with the o'clock dinner Saturday night, in honor of the girls' and boys' basketball teams. Miss Durfee acted as toastmistress, and the following toasts were given:

Address of welcome, by Mr. Patton, to which Gerald Fligner and sponsored basketball prospects for 1932, was given by Helene Weddie; Alice Harris, captain of the girls' teams, also gave a talk; and Merline Whedbee spoke on "Sportsmanship." The remainder of the evening was spent in games, cards and dancing.

Those present were Jean McKee, Mervine Thurston, Keith Smith, Alice Harris, Helene Weddie, Alice Calkins, Gladys Calkin, Melba Foster, Dorothy Marcum, Mary Main, Vivian Chalm, Gertrude Visk, John Harris, Merline Whedbee, Clinton Hart, Kenneth Selp, Melvin Morris, Ralph Beach, Lester Stephenson, Bob Harris, Miss Durfee, and the host and hostess.

Dr. and Mrs. John Fuller of Canby were in Jefferson Saturday looking after their property, just east of the stage terminal. They expect to make some improvements on the house before renting the property.

The Evangelical church will observe Holy Week by having services every evening during the week with the exception of Saturday night.

Former 4-H sewing club of the Jefferson school composed of Mervine Thurston, Keith Smith, Jessie Hart, Sylvia Vasek and Gertrude Visk, entertained their teachers and friends with a leap year, St. Patrick's party Friday night, in the Odd Fellows hall. Bouquets of daffodils and Oregon Grape formed the table decorations, with shamrocks for place cards. Those present enjoying the party were Dorothy Marcum, Lucille and Callista Pratt, Lucille Barnes, Margaret Cochran, Mervine Thurston, Keith Smith, Jessie Hart, Sylvia Vasek, Jean McKee, Ralph Beach, Robert Hart, Robert Hart, Robert Givlin, Maurice Ganschel, Melvin Morris, Clinton Hart, Lester Stephenson, Mrs. K. S. Thurston, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Paul McKee, Mrs. Flo Young, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Patton, Miss Maudie Deak, Gertrude Dillon, Miss Geraldine Register, Miss Frances Pierce.

FIRE LEVELS HOUSE AT FISH HATCHERY

LARWOOD, March 21.—The house at the Roaring River fish hatchery was completely destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. None of the household goods were saved. The fire originated from a light in the basement. Harold Renie, employed at the hatchery, was the one present, the superintendent, E. Amacker and his wife being in Portland.

Harold had started a fire in the basement stove, which was very busy at the ponds, because of high water it had rained considerable headway. Nearby neighbors, seeing the blaze, rushed to help. Unable to save the house they put all their efforts toward saving nearby buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Amacker returned that night.

Neither the building, which is owned by the state, nor the household goods carried insurance.

The recent warm rains bringing the snow out of the mountains, caused the creeks and streams, causing Crabtree Creek and Roaring River to become quite menacing. The water roars by at a terrific speed, carrying huge logs, stumps and other debris. Farmers along the river, recalling past rampages, have been watching the water closely and more or less preparing for high water.

GIRL SPRAINS ARM; SONGFEST PLANNED

SCOTT'S MILLS, March 21.—Mildred Rich, while playing, fell and sprained her arm, making it necessary to carry it in a sling. She is staying with her grandparents. Her father, Albert Rich, until school is out.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Woodford of St. Helena, have been visiting Mrs. Woodford's mother, Mrs. C. A. Dunagan and family.

The P. T. U. held its meeting Thursday night, with alumni in charge. At the business meeting it was voted the P. T. U. sponsor one evening of community singing during music week.

Misses Vanessa Haskins and Doris Geesang sang a duet. Plans were given by Mrs. L. V. Lane Dixon and Miss Corrine Moberg. Louise Magee gave a reading. Delbert Edward showed some interesting pictures.

Miss Rose Pola of Mt. Angel is teaching the Crooked Line at school in the absence of the teacher, Miss Phidaa Welp, who is ill at her home in Mt. Angel.

GRANGE CLUB FETED MONMOUTH, March 21.—The Home Economic club of Monmouth's grange, numbering more than 40 members, enjoyed a delightful day, Friday, at the farm home of Mrs. Frank Laughary, with dinner served at noon. Four birthdays of members, which occurred in the absence of the club leader, were honored: Mrs. Harrison Brant, Miss Maggie Butler, Mrs. J. L. Murdoch and Mrs. Esther Neal. Several men of the grange also were dinner guests.
