Improvement, Well I Should Snicker..

You folks no doubt have noticed a great improvement in our spellin and Grammer (or is it spelled Grammor). Now that everyone has noticed the improvement and as we're a bit timid about bragin we'll say no more about it. Except to explain what Brought about the Marvelous change. Now dont get the Ideah this change was brought about in a day, Nosir it took three afternoons and a coupla evenins to wind us up so'es we'd know all about good spellin.

Environment's the thing just like we've always said the right kind of environment is a great thing these days. So takin some of our own medicine we dicided to attend the Basket Ball games up at the univarsity (that is we decided to attend after onea the Boys gave us a complementry ticket) we figured associatin with so many proffesors we'd catch on to a lot of things that would help us a lot in dickern with the Public. it so hapened our seat was in the front row and while we were looking around tryin to locate soma the prof's to associate with, seems like one of the Ball teams went on a Rampage or somethin because when the ump's got us all untangled he found that we had the whol team down and the worst part of that was we were on the bottom. Oh well we learned a lot anyway—and its never to late to start Improvements and thats one reason you see so many people at Busicks Stores, they know they'll find the best foods and the prices wont Break em up either, and in closing we pause long enough to Extend to you Easter Greetings.
