Nation-wide Banquet Idea Interesting

An interesting banquet meeting was that given by the Encinitas club at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday night at which time they observed in collaboration with other Y. W. C. A. business women's groups throughout the United States the annual banquet.

Miss Lulu Bastridge was toast-mistress and responses were made by Mrs. Helen Hamilton, advisor, and Suther Ricker, Vivian East-ridge, and Mabel Currie, Prof. J. C. Nelson spoke entertainingly on the subject of international relations.

Others to appear on the program of music and dance features were: Pauline Zoo Chambers accompanied by Zelma Luthy, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Margaret Purvine, Miss Martha Floss, Miss Roberts Johnson, Mildred Johnson, Jane Harlow, Dorothy Franks, Beatie Tucker, and Mildred Wynkoop.

Covers were placed for 37 club members and guests.

Miss Pauline Eyerly entertained her three table bridge club at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Vivian Leffingwell and Mrs. Max Flannery held winning scores for cards. At the late supper hour Miss Dorothy Chambers and Miss Maureen Stables assisted Miss Eyerly.

D. A. R. Dedicates Maryland Elm Saturday

An impressive ceremony is being planned by Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Union at 1:30 o'clock on the state house grounds at which time the Maryland elm, granddaughter of the famous Washington elm, which was received Wednesday by the chapter, will be planted and dedicated.

The elm is really the property of the state D. A. R. and this group will dedicate it in June but Chemeketa chapter will hold its own dedication for the famous little tree at 1:30 o'clock Saturday. Members are asked to meet at the west end of the Willson park and go in a body to the site of the tree.

Hon. Hal Hess is expected to make the dedication address. Mrs. C. C. Clark has charge of the program and assisting her will be the other two members of the bi-centennial tree committee, Mrs. E. M. Hoffnall and Mrs. H. T. Love.

The Washington Elm has already been planted and will be dedicated as part of the music week observances. Mrs. C. C. Geer working with Mrs. W. A. Denton, music week chairman, is planning an extensive and attractive program for this interesting dedication.

Three Port Orford cedars have been planted on the school grounds of Leslie school. Mrs. E. M. Hoffnall donated these trees and they will be dedicated at a later date.

Following the dedication of the Maryland elm Saturday the chapter members will go in a body to Dallas where they will be the guests of Mrs. C. B. Sundberg who will be hostess at her home for the regular meeting of Chemeketa chapter.

The program which is centered about the Washington bi-centennial celebration will be given by Dallas members and will include Mrs. R. Y. Morrison, Mrs. J. E. Sibley, Mrs. C. C. Campbell, Mrs. C. L. Orider, Mrs. H. C. Eakin, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. E. L. Johnson, and Miss Nell Hopkins. Reports of committees and delegates to the state conference in Portland will be heard at the business meeting and other matters of importance will be taken up.

Gerrais—The Women of the Catholic Order of Foresters were sponsors for a card party and dance at the parish hall Monday night. Nineteen tables of 500 and three of Pedro were played. Prizes for high scores in 500 went to Dr. Fitzgerald and Florence Manning and for second high to Mrs. A. DeFardin and Ed Barnes. Mrs. Valentine Miller and Joe Kuhn took high scores in Pedro and Mrs. Kuhn and Mrs. Miller, second.

Mrs. J. B. Susee was in charge of the serving committee. Her five assistants were Mrs. Peter Pranti, Mrs. Maurice Susee, Mrs. Eberessa Schindler, Mrs. Frank Noska and Mrs. Steve Bauman.

Gerrais—The girl scout troop was given a party by their leader, Mrs. A. B. Adkisson, at the home of Mrs. Sumner Stevens. In an Easter egg hunt, Aline Colby found the largest number of eggs and was given a prize. In a word contest Ione Turner won the prize.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beard and son Wilford spent Easter in Washington, Wn.

Mrs. L. B. Senter Entertains

An attractive bridge afternoon was that for which Mrs. L. B. Senter was hostess at her home Wednesday. Card symbols were carried out in novel decorative manner in the favors and in the menu at the tea hour. Mrs. Charles Sawyer assisted at the tea hour. Winning scores for bridge were held by Mrs. George Vick and Mr. Fess Fisher.

Present were Mrs. Derrell Washburn, Mrs. George Vick, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. D. D. Craig, Mrs. Cleve Bartlett, Mrs. Kenneth Dalton, and Mrs. Charles Sawyer, Mrs. Carrie Trudgen and Mrs. Sawyer.
