

Delphian Tea, Masonic Convention, Keep Social Interest High

Convention Is To be Busy Socially

A GAY little gust in Salem society which will stir the first three days of the week will be the social side of the Masonic state convention in session here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Wayne Henry will head the committee of women who will play hostess to the women who will accompany their husbands to the convention.

The guests will begin to arrive Sunday afternoon and Mrs. Henry and a committee of Mrs. M. E. Meyers, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. B. B. Black, Mrs. M. C. Fetters, Mrs. Ellis Von Eschen, and Mrs. David Wright, will be at the Marion hotel to greet them.

Flowers will be placed in the rooms of the visitors, and other courtesies will be extended to welcome them to the city.

Monday Mrs. Ellis Von Eschen, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. J. W. Bradford, Mrs. Van Weider, Mrs. Clara Vibbert, and Mrs. Henry will be the hostess committee to take charge of the social affairs planned for the pleasure of the guests.

A luncheon will be served at noon at Mrs. Godfrey's. This will be followed by a scenic drive through the cherry groves in the vicinity of Salem, and to the state institutions.

Monday night a line party will be offered as entertainment for the visitors.

Tuesday Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. M. C. Fetters, Mrs. Carl Pope, Mrs. Percy Kelly, and Mrs. Walter Winslow will be the committee in charge of affairs for the guests.

A luncheon will again be given at Mrs. Godfrey's and in the afternoon a demonstration has been arranged at the state school for the deaf for the pleasure of the visitors. The program will be under the direction of J. Lyman Steed, superintendent of the school.

Tuesday night the Knights Templars ball will be a brilliant affair at the Marion hotel. This will be formal and will be attended only by Knights Templars and their ladies. Cards will be in play for those who do not dance. Mrs. B. E. Flack is chairman of the hostess committee for cards.

Wednesday a bridge luncheon is being arranged for the visitors. This will be given in the Oriental room of the Marion hotel.

Mrs. E. B. Grabenhorst, assisted by Mrs. C. M. Greene, gave a delightful surprise party Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Niles Wicker. A profusion of spring flowers were used in the living rooms where four tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. Henry Kropf and Mrs. G. W. Blener held high scores. The hostesses served a dainty ice course. Those complimenting Mrs. Wicker were Mrs. Walter Zosel, Mrs. L. Lunsford, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, Mrs. Henry Kropf, Mrs. Howard Halsey, Mrs. L. Mickelson, Mrs. C. F. Turner, Mrs. L. W. Dairdson, Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mrs. B. D. Bodee, Mrs. Ben Pade, Mrs. C. W. Blener, Mrs. Charles Ramp, Mrs. Nellie Harris, and Mrs. A. J. Greene.

Members of the Sterling Guild of the Calvary Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Helen Alexander, with Miss Mildred Taylor as assistant hostess.

The business of the evening included election of officers for the coming year, following which the program and devotions were led by Miss Jean McElhinny and Miss Lois Cochran. At the close of the evening the hostess served delightful refreshments to the following: Miss Lois Cochran, Miss Bernice Zulke, Miss Edith Starret, Miss Clara Jane Harnus, Miss Lola Dale Richens, Miss Jean McElhinny, Miss Margaret Sears, Mrs. Kenneth Graber and Mrs. Earl Gregg.

Stayton—The Woman's Community club are sponsoring a benefit card party for Wednesday night, April 13, both "500" and bridge will be played and playing will commence promptly at 8:00 o'clock. The committee in charge are Mesdames O. E. Gardner, Glen E. Fox, H. J. Tate and Ellen Reynolds.

The party will be for the benefit of the library. Heretofore local organizations have contributed to the library fund, but as they have not done so for some time and the club has little source of revenue. An invitation is extended to all men and women of the community.

HOSTESS

MRS. MILTON L. MEYERS, who will be one of the general hostess committees to receive the visitors in Salem here for the Masonic convention. Mrs. Meyers heads the grand chapter.

University Society Catches Color and Activity Of Spring

THERE is and has been much ado about many things in Willamette university circles this weekend. The leading affair was the formal tea for which the Beta Chi Mothers club and patronesses of the sorority entertained at the home of Mrs. Homer Goulet Saturday afternoon. Guests complimented the members, pledges and alumnae members of the Beta Chi sorority, Portland Mothers club members, and university faculty women.

The guest rooms of the Goulet home were brilliantly decorated with flowers of spring and the tea table was a delightful study in color and artistry. Here in turn during the afternoon presided Mrs. E. A. Elliott, Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. Lillian Hagman, and Miss Olive Dahl.

Those who assisted in serving included Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mrs. H. L. Braden, Mrs. Norine Dick, Mrs. W. E. Peterson, Mrs. D. L. Shrode, and Mrs. E. W. Beecher. Mrs. Hal D. Patton was in charge of the program.

The committee in general charge of the affair were Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, and Mrs. Homer Goulet, patronesses, and Mrs. R. C. Alken, Mrs. E. E. Millard, Mrs. Frank Power and Mrs. J. C. Dalk, from the Mothers club.

The Delta Phi sorority will entertain at the sorority home this morning with an "April" breakfast which this year takes the place of the traditional Easter breakfast not held this year because of spring vacation.

The affair will be at 9 o'clock. Spring flowers will be used about the rooms and for the small tables at which covers will be placed for 75 people in all.

A program of songs and readings will be given by Elizabeth Clement, the Delta Chi trio, Lois Wilkes, and Marjorie Wauder.

Miss Mildred Miller will greet the guests at the door. In addition to Mrs. Lillian Hagman, house mother, special guests will be Percy Sweet, Gardiel Barnett, Louis Buckley, Fred Melendy, LaVerne Shay, Kenneth Fleming, Robert Magin, Hayes Beall, David Moser, Carl Marcy, John McClelland, Ralph McCullough, Clarence Poor, Melvin Goode, Wesley Warren, Joe Felton, Bill Trindle, Tom Goyno, Wesley Janks, Keith James, Elwyn Emmel, Charles Campbell, Fred Paul, Leo Young, Bernard Newby, Miles Woodworth, Maurice Dean, Vera Wilson, Marshall Hartley, Sam Bows, Dwight Adams, Marjorie Moore, Archie Bunn, Fred Smith, Frank Bashor, and Paul Ackerman.

The regular Monday night meeting of the Round-Up club has been postponed for two weeks.

Hannah Martin Heads Club Group

MRS. Hannah Martin was elected to the presidency of the Salem Woman's club at the Saturday meeting. Mrs. Martin succeeds Mrs. J. M. Devers.

Other officers include Mrs. Clifton Mudd, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Tibbitt, secretary; Miss Eula McCullough, financial secretary; Mrs. J. A. Brownson, treasurer; Mrs. Crosby, parliamentarian; Mrs. J. M. Devers, director; and Mrs. C. C. Clark, trustee.

Announcement was made of the 11th state convention of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs in Portland May 25 to 28. It was announced that all reservations either for the county convention to be held with the Salem Heights club April 18 or the Portland convention should be made early with Mrs. J. C. Tibbitt, club secretary.

The resignation of Mrs. S. M. Endicott, for years chairman of the institutions department, was accepted with regret and a rising vote of approval by the club for the work done by this efficient committee head. Mrs. Endicott resigned because of ill health.

Reports were made concerning the recent district convention by Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. C. E. Spaulding, and Mrs. J. A. Brownson.

Mrs. William F. Fargo announced that to date there are 65 club members of the third district.

Mrs. M. D. McCallister, head of the motion picture committee, announced that pictures at the Elstner and Capitol this week are approved pictures and that this comes through the effort of Manager Carver.

An address received enthusiastically by the club was made by C. A. Sprague concerning the modern newspaper, which Mr. Sprague told his audience was not made by the editor and the reporters but by the people, and that the paper was simply a screen upon which the events of life flashed.

Mrs. F. R. Clark was hostess for the Pringle Pleasant Point social club Thursday. Each guest had been asked to come dressed in some unusual style, and as a result a number of unique costumes were in evidence.

A potluck luncheon was served at the noon hour, followed by the usual business meeting, in charge of the vice president, Mrs. William McCarroll.

The afternoon was spent with sewing and music. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst April 21, with Mrs. A. Cassellus as joint hostess. Members and guests present were Miss Grace Robertson, Mrs. Rue Drager, Mrs. Frank E. Brown, Mrs. A. Cassellus, Mrs. Harry Wecker, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst, Mrs. W. Yates, Mrs. L. W. Potter, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Mrs. Wm. Propst, Mrs. O. E. Whitney, Mrs. O. T. Sealey, Mrs. Wm. McCarroll, Mrs. H. M. Goble, Mrs. Emma Brasher, Mrs. J. W. Brasher, Mrs. E. A. Johns, Mrs. Homer Harrison, Mrs. and Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. E. S. Coates, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coburn, Mrs. J. W. Keys, Mrs. Geo. Guerne, Mrs. Geo. Grabenhorst, Miss Mildred Schiffler, Mrs. E. C. Clark, Mrs. G. A. Johns, David Whitner, Kent Wecker, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Clark.

Miss Elizabeth Ogden will greet the guests at the door. The guest list for this Sunday includes Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Dean and Mrs. Frank Erickson, Miss Olive Dahl, Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Miss Helen Price, Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Sherman, Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Vazakas, Prof. and Mrs. Morton Peck, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Ellis, Prof. and Mrs. Earl T. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Laughlin.

An attractive event of Saturday night was the Beethoven banquet given in the Silver Grille room of the Gray Belle. This is seventh annual banquet to be held by this university club. Covers were placed for 40.

Organization work is being carried forward rapidly by the Woman's Organization for National Prohibition Reform. Friday Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Frank Spears and Mrs. T. A. Livesley motored to Independence and organized a chapter in that town. Mrs. J. C. Collins is county chairman for Polk county. Mrs. T. D. Fomero was elected chairman of the Independence unit. About 45 women were enrolled to membership there.

The regular Monday night meeting of the Round-Up club has been postponed for two weeks.

Silverton—Some members of the Silverton Woman's Relief Corps went to Medford Thursday to attend the regular meeting of the Marion County Veteran's association. The next meeting will be held at Silverton on the First Thursday of August.

Among those going to Woodburn Thursday were Mrs. O. Benson, Mrs. R. L. Gourley, Mrs. Axel Olson, Mrs. George Jaeschke, Mrs. Belle Phelps, Mrs. Minnie Mulkey, Mrs. Eva Reese, Mrs. Emma Fryar, Mrs. Lydia Usher, Mrs. Edna Brown, Mrs. Ella Brokier, Mrs. Sophie Norgaard.

Silverton—The Pythian Bridge club will be entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. C. Eastman. Mrs. Austin Eastman is also one of the hostesses. There are 20 members in the club.

Weddings Take Brilliant Place in Weekend Society

A LOVELY token of spring is its weddings, colorful affairs backgrounded with the beauty of spring blossoms and gay happiness of warm spring days.

This weekend will be marked by three such lovely affairs. The first was that of Miss Mary Campbell who became Mrs. Walter Patrie Friday in a simple home ceremony at the home of her parents.

The second one was the candlelight wedding of Miss Lolita Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Robinson, Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the Robinson home, at which time she became the bride of Lee Graber, Rev. S. Darlow Johnson read the services before the fireplace banked with flowers, the mantel of which was centered with a candleabra bearing white cathedral tapers.

Mrs. Graber wore a gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and roses. She was attended by Miss Lorita Robinson, her twin sister, who wore an orchid gown in similar style to the bride's.

Raymond Graber acted as best man for Mr. Graber. Following the ceremony a reception was held, and then the young people left for a wedding trip after which they will be at their new home on Market street. This afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Genevieve Beckett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Beckett will become the bride of Herman

Chi Deltas to Entertain Monday

ONE of the attractive affairs of Monday will be the tea with which Chi Delta chapter of the Delphians will entertain the Sigma Nu chapter, and chapters of Independence and Dallas at the home of Mrs. Raymond Walters.

Spring will be the decorative theme with many flowers and greenery used about the guest rooms, and as a center for the tea table.

Mrs. F. S. Anusson and Mrs. George Lewis will receive the guests at the door. Mrs. E. D. Barton, Mrs. E. M. Waltz, Mrs. E. A. Collier, Mrs. Karl Heinlein and Mrs. L. D. Lambeth, all officers of Chi Delta chapter, will be in the receiving line.

About the living and dining rooms will be Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mrs. A. F. Hayes, Mrs. Charles Hudkins, Mrs. Carl Nelson and Mrs. E. M. Ritter. Mrs. Ralph Kleitzing will be in charge of the tea trays.

An informal program during the tea will include vocal numbers by Mrs. Harry Harms and Mrs. J. A. Sholseth, readings by Miss Dorothy Dalk and piano numbers by Miss Edith Findley.

Willamette auxiliary No. 2931 Fraternal Order of Eagles met Wednesday evening for their regular business and social hour.

Following the business meeting plans were made for the regular monthly 6:30 o'clock dinner. Mrs. Rachel Lantz and Mrs. Elva Coons had charge of the social hour. At the next meeting Mrs. Mona Lutz and Mrs. Frances Hoyt are in charge of the social hour.

The auxiliary invited the brother Eagles as guests for a delicious lunch served at the close of the meeting.

Dallas.—Mrs. Del Plaster and Mrs. Florence Hunter entertained the Altristic club at the former's home Wednesday night. Five tables of "500" were in play, with Mrs. W. D. Collins and Mrs. Dale Slater holding high and low scores, respectively.

with orange blossoms, and will carry calls. Miss

Miss Gertrude Simpson, Portland, will be the bride's only attendant. She will wear a gown of pale pink and will carry pink sweet peas and roses. Little Miss Mary Jeanette Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith, will be the flower girl.

Mr. Smith will have his brother, Paul Smith of Everett, Wash., act as best man for him.

A reception at the Beckett home on Hazel avenue will follow the ceremony after which the young people will leave for a wedding trip after which they will make their home in Ridgefield, Wash.
