

JEAN KELLEY GETS SCHOOL BOARD POST

100 Persons Attend Farmers' Union Quarterly At Riverview

RIVERVIEW, April 12.—At a special meeting of the school board, Jean Kelley was unanimously elected director to finish the unexpired term of Tom Peterson, resigned.

The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Anna Holt with Mrs. Russell Kelly as joint hostess Thursday. The afternoon was spent in embroidering quilt blocks for the hostess. Thirty-five members were present.

The club will hold its next meeting in Selco at the home of Mrs. Fred Mespelt with Mrs. Minnie Smith as joint hostess Thursday, April 21. A bride's shower will be a feature of the next meeting honoring Mrs. Carlson (nee Opal Mespelt), a member of the club.

The Farmers Union held its quarterly convention at the Riverview school and community building Saturday, April 9, with a breakfast at noon. A program of the following numbers was presented: music by the Marion orchestra, readings by Jean Conliffe and Mary Lois Goar, song by Mildred Gardner and community singing, followed by a speech by a Polk county union representative. About 100 attended including some from Polk, Marion and Yamhill counties.

Relatives and friends here of Floyd Crenshaw, who is employed in the saw mill at Mill City, were sorry to hear that he received a serious injury to his back and right arm in a fall while at work last week.

SEEDING, PLOWING BEGUN IN EARNEST

WACONDA, April 12.—With the first warm spring days work hereabouts has begun in earnest. Plowing and seeding which the backward spring has retarded is being done post haste.

A crew of men is at work in the Guy Smith hop yard. Mr. Lelae and sons Peter and Tony of Gervais have set out an acre of Elterberg and Marshall strawberries on the farm owned by Julian de Jardin of Hopmore. Preparations are being made to set out 5000 more strawberry plants. The Lelae family will move the last of the week into the house on the Kavanagh place now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shively and sons. The Shiveleys plan to move Thursday to an apartment in the Guy Smith house on the Wheatland-Ferry road.

Jefferson Veteran Is Seriously Ill; Wife Also in Bed

JEFFERSON, April 12.—Ell Milla, aged veteran, is confined to his bed at his home near the north city limits. His wife, who is seriously ill with heart trouble, is slightly improved. Mrs. M. D. Swabb of Salem is caring for them.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Drager of Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. Veri Case and two daughters of Dever were Sunday guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kothoff.

Herman Kester returned from Long Beach, California, Saturday when he has been attending business college. Two of Herman's friends accompanied him to Jefferson for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Looney are having some interior decorating done at their country home north of here. Miss Anna Klampe is doing the work.

JESSIE RICHARDS IS SHAW TEACHER

SHAW, April 12.—Miss Jessie Richards has been hired to teach school at Shaw again this year. This will be her second year here. Miss Corinne Kominsh was rewarded with a prize by her teacher, Miss Jessie Richards for writing the best essay in the eighth grade on the care of skin.

The Woman's Community club met at the home of Mrs. William Berg, Thursday, spending the afternoon in sewing and social conversation. Members present were Mrs. Ed Amort, Mrs. Jos. Sherman, Miss Amanda Mathews, Mrs. Mary Larson, Mrs. John Bailner and Mrs. William Berg. Visitors were Mrs. C. L. McAllister and Mrs. John Amort.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Fieber and son have moved to the Andrew Ziebler farm.

He was formerly employed at Toledo. Mr. and Mrs. A. Ziebler and children have moved to the O'Leone place about a mile west of Shaw.

HUBBARD, April 12.—All is in readiness for the cooking school, sponsored by the Hubbard Enterprise and the Portland Gas and Coke company, to be held in the Knights of Pythias hall Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Regier, home economics expert. There will be no admission.

The life of the healthy child was the theme of the lecture given by Dr. David Bennett Hill of Salem at the city hall Monday night. Other interesting features were a health playlet given by the fifth and sixth grades under the direction of Mrs. Fry and interesting moving pictures, comics and scenic views of 4000 miles of Oregon highways, including mountain sports at Mt. Hood and other mountains.

'Meanest Man' Found For Sure This Time

FAIRVIEW, April 12.—Persons who gave little heed to the happiness of the school children Sunday picked all the flowers from the children's flower garden on the school grounds. The children have worked hard to care for the flowers and this year were rewarded by many blooms, only to have them pilfered.

COMMUNITY CLUB COMEDY IS FRIDAY

LIBERTY, April 12.—The community club play "Bertie's Cave Woman", will be given at the hall on Friday at 8 p. m. It is a three act comedy excellently cast. The characters are: Lord Bertie Mountcraven, Frank Huxbert; Ann Banning, cavewoman; Lena Hummel; Phil Harder, an unprincipled sheriff; Joe Williams; Bob Banning, Ann's brother who has a bet with the sheriff to rob the stage; Harold Pruitt; Lady Diana Mountcraven; Bertie's cousin, Elsie Davis; Henry Watkins, Bertie's valet; Bill Free; Lady Mountcraven, rich English lady; Mrs. Claude Carson; Speed Maguire, former sweetie of Lady Mountcraven; Leland Scott; Mrs. Ted Gordon and Mrs. E. Fischers Make Trade The Fischer family have traded their farm for a place in Portland and Saturday moved to that city, where they also have other property. They made the trade mainly on account of the inconvenience they have had in looking after their widely scattered holdings.

Monday morning R. C. Jory discovered his tank of gas across from the Krueger's grocery to be empty. Mr. Jory has been using the tank and gas pump, while the building was vacant, for keeping his gas supply for his truck. It was thought by county officers that the hose stolen from the Krueger water supply line on Friday night was used to siphon or pump Jory's gas from its underground tank. The faucet from the hose was found discarded near the Judd place where the truck accessories were stolen.

Lloyd Lambert's car was stolen from a downtown street during the weekend. It was later found completely ruined by fire on the highway near Sunnyside.

Teacher Elected At the regular meeting of the Liberty school board Monday Miss Frances Shogren of Mosier was elected to teach the third and fourth grades for the coming year.

Cook Will Address Middle Grove Group

MIDDLE GROVE, April 12.—W. H. "Bill" Cook, reformed gangster and world war veteran, will recount his life story at the Middle Grove Evangelical church Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, announces the pastor, Rev. H. R. Scheuerman. The public is invited. There will be no charge. Cook has been appearing at a number of churches in the valley, and those who have heard him report he has an interesting message.

Silverton Band Has Eye on State Title

SILVERTON, April 12.—The largest audience which has gathered for sometime at Silverton was that of Saturday night when the combined band and orchestra of the schools gave their concert at the Eugene Field auditorium. Much enthusiasm concerning the work Prof. Hal Campbell has done with the students was expressed and confidence was also expressed in Silverton's placing in the Corvallis contest.

Four numbers were given Saturday night by the Mount Angel band, guests of the Silverton group. The Silverton audience also welcomed the few words of Dr. P. O. Riley, who is always a great favorite at Silverton.
