Parents Attend Meeting of New Salem Heights Boy Scout Troop

SALEM HEIGHTS, April 12 .-One of the largest crowds to attend a community meeting turned out Friday night to witness the club's regular monthly program, many people coming from Salem and other sections of the county. W. O. Storhow's stringed orchestra of ten pieces played several numbers; J. Burton Crary of Salem gave an original "Swede stunt" and Paul Bunyan stories; the Barbara Barnes school of dancing gave five numbers under the supervision of Miss Zelma Luthy; Kenneth W. Dalton sang two humorous sea chanteys: Glenn Fischer gave two clarinet solos accompanied by Mrs. K. W. Dalton on the piano,

Everett Whealdon sang two baritone solos accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Emma Whealdon; the Waddel sisters gave a vocal duet with 'uke' accompaniment; W. E. Ball and Pery Cooper played several musical numbers with steel and guitar. Miss Julia Query gave two vocal solos accompanied by Bernice Rickman on the piano. Both are from Roberts community club.

The program was then brought to a close with the presentation of the Ladies' club April Fool day "Radio Broadcast", repeated by request. Mrs. Olive Beardsley is chairman of the program com-

Thursday night was parents night at the regular meeting of the Salem Heights Boy Scout troop held at the community hall. Considerable interest is being taken in the Boy Scout movement here as was evidenced by the number of parents attending this meeting. O. P. West, chief scout executive addressed the scouts and parents, giving a resume of scout activity since its inception, and also explained in detail just what scout work was, stressing the point that this movement was non-militaristic.

G. E. Decorah of the Chemawa Indian school gave a talk to the boys and parents on camp-life and woodcraft. A. N. Fulkerson who first organized the scout movement in this part of the northwest and the second scoutmaster in this district gave a talk on the great improvement he has witnessed since. E. J. Church. scout master presented all registered scouts with their certifi-

F. H. Zinser, member of the executive council, presented scoutmas: Church and his boys with their charter for the year. F. E. Wilson and F. H. Zinser, troop committeemen were also presented with their certificates. Salem Heights troop No. 11 now has 13
