Beach Gets Scout Medal Sare; Gives Up Fish for Birds!

WOODBURN, April 19.—
If George Beach, Woodburn city recorder, feels the urge to go fishing soon he must borrow a fishbasket. The other day Mr. Beach was in his garage, where his fishing basket hangs during its period of finctivity.

Beach noticed a sancy little brown wren hop into the garage with a feather in its mouth. He kept still and watched. The wren skittered into his fishing basket. On inspection, Beach found that a nest was almost finished. A few days later he looked again, and found there were two little eggs in the nest. So that is why George must either borrow another's basket, put the fish he catches in his pocket, or break the "pore little trust-in" heart" of a brown wren.
