SILVERTON TO SEND MANY TO WOODBURN

SILVERTON, April 20 — Silverton will be strongly represented at the Oregon Women's Missionary Federation program to be held at Woodburn, April 27 in Rev. H. Rogen's church. The program calls for papers by Miss Clarissa Brager and Miss Hilda Olsen, three vocal solos by Mrs. Alvin Legard and vocal solos by Mrs. George Henriksen and Miss Henrietta Finseth and a talk by Rev. Albert Towe. The last three named are now of Portland but are formerly Silverton people.

One number on the evening program which Silverton people who attend are looking forward to is that by the Monitor Grieg Chorus.

Trinity Dorcas society social committee is planning a musicale for Monday night, April 25. The social committee of the society is taking charge. Instrumental numbers, vocal solos, and group work, besides numbers by the choir will be enjoyed. Lunch will also be served. A small charge will be made. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. M. G. Gunderson, Mrs. Alvin Legard and Mrs. W. C. Larson.

Thefts Reported

Petty thieving in Trinity church during the morning service hours has been reported. It is said that during the services someone undoubtedly enters the cloak rooms and rifles the pockets of the overcoats. Several attendants have reported missing articles.

MEANEST PERSON IS SAID MUSIC THIEF

CLOVERDALE, April 20 — Of al mean individuals, Cloverdale is unanimous in voting the one who took Mrs. Hadley's piano accordion from the school building in Turner Monday night, as the meanest. It is the community's loss also as citizens have been favored by its music many times. The instrument is a valuable one and hard to be replaced.
