More Convention Invitations Pend

The Salem chamber of commerce is sending out letters to secretaries of all local lodges and other organizations to find out where efforts may be directed to bring the 1933 conventions of such groups to Salem. So far, 30 conventions have been scheduled for Salem this year, and just half of this number has already been held.

Young People Will Provide Program At Saturday Meet

BETHEL, April 20—The Bethel Community club will hold the regular monthly meeting at the school Saturday night. The young people of the club are to furnish the program. Ruth Hoff, Inabelle Crook and Viola Vandervort are the program committee. The postponed rains are keeping the farmers off of the fields and the spring sowing is being badly delayed. There is still a considerable amount of plowing to be done. The outlook for fruit seems very favorable in this district.

Jeannette Hain of the junior division and Gertrude Froehlich of the intermediate division will represent Bethel school at the county declamatory contest at Silverton Friday night. Bethel school pupils who will take part in the county spelling contest in Salem Saturday are: Werna Froehlich, third grade,

Wanda Froehlich, sixth grade, Lois Hamrick, seventh grade, Lorraine Stawp, eighth grade.
