

GLEE CLUB CONCERT AT AUMSVILLE HIGH

AUMSVILLE, April 20—The Glee club concert will be given in the high school auditorium Thursday night. A dinner will be served at 7 o'clock followed by the concert.

The following program will be given: "Sing Sing Birds on the Wings" by the mixed chorus; "Gay Gavotte" by girls chorus; "She is so Innocent" by girls quartet which consists of Tissue Cupp, Louise Hieberger, Helen Ruitgers and Hilgen Brauner; "Song in Street" by boys quartet, made up of Alfred Ames, Merle Crane, Wilbur Tripp and Charles Pomeroy; "Waiting in the Shadow" by a freshman quartet. The orchestra will play "When its Springtime in Nevada," a short play "Around the World in a Bed" with the following cast: Mary, Nannie Jennings, Chinese girls, Mabel Brown and Theresa Manner; Scottish girl, Lois Turner; Irishman, Virgie Bradley; Spanish girl and boy, Thelma McDonald and Dorothy Asche; Hawaiian girl, Myrtle Powell; Japanese girl, Alice Brown; Dutch girls, Helen Ruitgers, Jennie Mier, Wilamette Snyder and Leora Gearhart, another play "The Beau of Bath with Ernest Riebeck as the beau; George Radau as Japan; the servant and Edith Brauner as the Lady of the Portrait; a reading by Roland Rhoades and solos by Mrs. Thomas of Salem.

Miss Gladys Burgess, Glee club and orchestra instructor is directing all of this program. The receipts will be used to help pay the expense of the Glee club to the music tournament in Forest Grove April 29-30.

May 14 is Closing Time for School At Spring Valley

SPRING VALLEY, April 20—The Spring Valley school was represented at the county spelling contest, held at Dallas Saturday night by Ila Ann Stratton, eighth grade pupil and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Stratton. Ila Anna's teacher, Mrs. Ethel Sohn was also present. Ila Ann won fourth prize of $3.00.

The Spring Valley school will have five graduates, Olive and Ila Ann Stratton, Edgar Smith and Bertha and James Cook. School will close May 12 but due to eighth grade exams the closing picnic will probably be held on Saturday, May 14.

Rooms for Grange Convention Lined Up by Committees

SILVERTON, April 20—The Silverton chamber of commerce housing committee for the state grange convention to be held here in June is busy at work under the direction of the chairman, L. C. Eastman. The committee has asked that a committee from the Legion Auxiliary will assist in the work. The city will be divided and anyone having beds will register these and the prices with the Legion Auxiliary committee. Putting up large army tents for further accommodations is also being planned.

Working on the Auxiliary committee are Mrs. Harry Wilson, president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Del Barber, Mrs. Lloyd Kennedy, Mrs. Archie Campbell, Mrs. T. P. Heldenstrm, and Mrs. Lewis Hall.
