Riggs-Taylor Nuptials Told

A colorful wedding at the Highland Friends church Tuesday evening was that which united in marriage Miss Edith Louise Riggs and Sol E. Taylor. Rev. R. D. Rounds of Pratum read the simple but impressive service in the presence of about 50 friends.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. D. Rounds, sister of the bride, sang "Oh Promise Me" accompanied by Miss Doryce Ross. Miss Ross also played a processional Lohengren wedding march and a recessional Mendelssohn's march. While the service was being read Miss Ross played softly "At Dawning."

The bride wore a gown of oyster shell white satin made in simple lines. She wore a full length veil caught about her head with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was made of roses and sweet peas made into an arm bouquet.

Miss Florence Ritter of Portland was bride's maid. She wore a gown of shell pink georgette and carried a bouquet of snapdragons and carnations.

Charles Taylor, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Milo Rounds was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Ross at which close relatives greeted Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. R. D. Rounds assisted Mrs. Ross in receiving. Mrs. William English, mother of the bride, and Mrs. C. H. Taylor, mother of the groom, presided at the urns. The serving table was centered with pastel shaded flowers and tapers to harmonize.

Miss Doryce Ross, Miss Jean Gardner, Mrs. E. D. Rounds and Mrs. Earle Riggs assisted in serving.

Musical numbers were given in the course of the reception hours by Miss Florence Ritter, Mrs. Robert Shattuck, Mrs. E. D. Rounds, Miss Doryce Ross and Howard Leach, uncle of the bride.

The regular dinner meeting of the Encinitis club held Tuesday night at the Y.W.C.A. rooms was "political" in its program which included a talk by W. A. Deibel, and another by H. O. EVERY WOMAN faces this question

"How do I look to other people?" If you have a lovely skin, attractive eyes, and plenty of enthusiasm, you need not worry.

So many women, though, risk their beauty by neglect of constipation. It often causes loss of pep, sallow skins, dull eyes, pimples.

Yet constipation can be overcome by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. This cereal provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B which tones the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Special cooking processes make it finer, more palatable. It is not habit-forming.

Surely this is safer than abusing the system with pills and drugs—so often habit-forming.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
