Local Grocers Say Customers Delighted with Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit

Grocers are now featuring a new shredded biscuit which offers many new features. Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are "pressurecooked" by a special process that retains the complete food value of the whole wheat. At the same time, delightful flavor is baked in.

These new biscuits have been analyzed by the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia and found to be so rich in food value that every package is certified. Any mother can now be certain her family is getting a well-balanced and tempting dish whenever she serves these new Kellogg biscuits with either hot or cold milk or cream.

Other improvements are a biscuit of more convenient, economical size. Two of these new biscuits just to the package instead of the usual And every biscuit is toested a rich golden brown on both top and bottom - not just one side. This makes them exceptionally crisp and Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are tasty for breakfast, lunch, children's suppers. Extra good with fruits or sweetened with honey.

You can identify these new biscuits by the name, Kellogg's, and the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
