SCENE OF FATAL MINE RIOT

Under the Dome... Occurrences and Gossip at the center of Oregon's state government

THE new state highway commission held its first public session in Salem yesterday, all others having been held in Portland. When first scheduled the meeting set for the capitol was expected to be a quiet conference on log-hauling, but by the time the date arrived it had grown to large proportions.

Strict enforcement of regulations under which log haulers use the highways will be tried by the commission for 60 days. If the plan does not prevent continued destruction of highways, load limits and speed limits for haulers will be materially reduced, the commission announced.

But what action the commission takes will not be discriminatory against log haulers. Load limits and speed limits of trucks and buses will likewise be watched.

JURY LIST DRAWN FOR COMING TERM

MAORI'S GOD MAY DAY PROGRAM PLANS COMPLETED

SCIO, April 22—The May Day programs for Friday, April 23, have been announced. For the athletic events which will start at 9 o'clock, the boys and girls will be divided into age groups—7-9; 10-12; and 13-15. Events will include boys' running broad jump, boys' high jump, fancy rope jumping, girls' baseball throw, boys' three-legged race, boys' 50 yd. dash, girls' 50 yd. dash, and boys' and girls' relay races. Prizes will be awarded for the events.

Continuing his search for those strange items with which he puts a mighty strain on human credulity, Robert L. (Believe-it-or-not) Ripley is shown with the Three-Fingered God of the Maori during his visit to Roturua, New Zealand. All the Maori deities have but three fingers and all hold their "tummies" tightly.

Each outlying school will have a number for the program which will follow the spelling contest in the afternoon. The program as now planned will include quarter, "Voices of the Woods," 5th and 8th grade boys, Solo; dance, First of May, 5th and 6th grade girls; Solo; Rag Doll Dance, Shirley Turnidge and Natalie Phillips; Jumping Rope drill, 3rd and 4th grade girls; Solo; Tumbling Act, 1st and 2nd grades; Solo; songs, Oakview; Dress Revue, by the first and second year sewing girls, in which the clothes they have made will be modeled. The May queen will be Isetta Wolf, from Oakview, and the Oakview students will crown the queen. Attendants will be June McDonald and Alice Light. Fresh Girls Win
By a score of 14 to 7, the freshmen girls defeated the sophomores Thursday in the second of a series of interclass games. Next week the winners of the two games, junior-senior and freshmen will play for championship. The losers, grades and sophomores, will also play for places.

Those who played Thursday are: sophomores, Baker, Zavadsky, Combs, P. Gardner, Becklad, and Bartu; freshmen, Purdy, R. Hestendorff, Davenport, Karnosh, Godwin, Palon, Veverka, Burton, and Snyder.

Boyer said not more than five voters had tried to register after his books were closed Tuesday, April 19. Several days will elapse before the clerk's office can check, classify and total the number of persons who have registered for the May primaries. Bids for the ballots to be used next month were received yesterday at the clerk's office and tomorrow the county court will award the job.
