Committee Suggests Mrs. J. Holecheck for Scio P. T. A. Head

SCIO, April 23—The Albany chamber of commerce program presented at the P. T. A. Thursday was an immense success. Every number was enjoyed and applauded heartily. The numbers were introduced by Leonard Gilkey, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

The chamber of commerce male quartet opened the program with "Soldiers Chorus" and "Strong Heart", an Indian love song. Messrs. Bennett, Leonard Peterson, and Taylor made up the quartet.

Mrs. Frances Ployhart sang "Dreamin' Time" and "The Blossom and the Bee". Mrs. L. Bennett gave two readings, "Apples" and "I Came to See My Grandma". Mrs. C. E. Williamson followed with two vocal numbers for the children, "Grandma" and "Coo Coo Clock". Other vocal numbers included "Daddy and Home" and "Little Old Church in the Valley", sung by Alfred McMill, who accompanied himself on the guitar, and Swedish songs, sung by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peterson, dressed in native costume.

The community sing was led by Howard Johnson and by Mrs. Williamson. Rex Dallas sang an impromptu solo, by request. Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Ployhart sang "Come to the Fair". Mr. Taylor played two violin solos, "Love's Greetings" and "Turkey in the Straw". During a break in the program, Mr. Gilkey introduced the transportation committee. He also presented Mr. Balne and Mr. Charles Curry, candidates for county officers.

The program was resumed by a vocal trio, singing "Glow Worm". The usual oratory contest between Rex Dallas and Louis Bennett was held. The children of the audience were asked to judge the winner by applauding, but called the contest a draw.

The program was closed by the male quartet singing "Three Little Kittens" and "Story of a Tack".

Proceeding the program a short business meeting was held. Reports of committees were given. Miss Doris Klindt announced that the next meeting would be a mothers' meeting. The nomination committee reported the following as their choice for officers for next year: president, Mrs. Jerry Holecheck; vice-president, Mrs. Rebecca Morgan; secretary-treasurer, E. P. MOTORCYCLE SAVES EXTRA MAN

A motor cycle that "saves a man" has been added to the equipment of Day & Niles service station. Formerly sending out a service truck after a stalled car meant sending two men, one to drive the service car and the other the car to be brought in. Now the service man rides out in this motor cycle, hooks it on to the car to be brought in, and drives the latter back to the station.
