

RURAL PEOPLE TO GET INNING

Farmers' Celebration Planned by Silverton Methodist Church

SILVERTON, April 23.—"Rural Day" will be a new feature of observance at Silverton this year. The Methodist church of which Dr. W. S. Gordon is pastor, will sponsor a farmers' day celebration at the church on May 15. A special program is being arranged for the 11 o'clock services. At noon a pot luck dinner will be enjoyed and in the afternoon another program, under the auspices of the Silverton grange, of which Edwin Overland is master, will be given. These plans were announced at the Friday night meeting of the Silverton grange.

It was also announced that a social night was being planned by the local grange, a definite date to be announced later. Mrs. Lewis Hall is chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements.

The report, clipped from Thursday's Oregon Statesman, of the Pomona grange meeting at Red Hills Wednesday, was read. Plans for the State Grange convention were also discussed. For the most part these are being taken care of by the country group and by the Silverton Chamber of Commerce.

During the program Mrs. Ivan Karl Haberly, lecturer for the Silverton grange, reviewed the Grange Bulletin. In the review it was brought out that the Bulletin enjoys a larger circulation than any other paper in the state outside of the Portland dailies.

Special visitors were Mrs. Ivan Martin, Carl Abrams and Otto Paulus who all spoke briefly. Mrs. Martin led a discussion on tax questions. Other visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hurt and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tait all of Stayton.

Harry L. Riches transferred his grange membership from the MacCleary grange to the Silverton grange.

W. H. STEINKAMP DIES AT AUMSVILLE

AUMSVILLE, April 23.—William Henry Steinkamp, 74, died at his home on route one, Aumsville, Friday afternoon, April 22. He is survived by widow, Julia, three children, Henry and Anthony of Aumsville, Felix of Gervais, and 4 grandchildren. Two children passed away in infancy and one son was accidentally killed in 1919.

The deceased was born in 1858 in Hanover, Germany, and came

GOTHAM'S BARLESS JAIL FOR ERRING EYES

Towering twelve stories above the famous sidewalks of New York, the new House of Detention for Women, which has just been formally opened, resembles a modern apartment house. The windows are conspicuous by the absence of the customary iron bars. Instead they are divided into squares 5 by 7 inches and present a pleasing appearance. There are to be no prisoners in the institution—only inmates. Nor are there to be any cells—just rooms. These rooms have every modern convenience. Running water, hot and cold, is always on tap in each roomy apartment. The old style wall bunk has given place to a modernistic bed. A mirror of polished steel reflects the features of the inmate from the wall, where it is permanently fixed. Each room also has a disappearing table, which, when not in use, can be slid into a prepared groove in the wall. The doors in this luxury jail are paneled with bullet-proof glass, but it was explained that this precaution is not to prevent a desperate inmate from shooting her way out, but to circumvent any attempt from the outside to free an inmate. A novel feature of the institution is its chapel, which boasts a revolving altar, divided into three sections for Protestant, Catholic and Jewish services. The authorities scoff at the idea of anyone trying to escape from the building and they have some grounds; for who, in these hard times, is going to run away from regular meals, bed and service in such a home-like atmosphere?

to this country in 1883. Soon thereafter he was united in marriage to Julia Ern of Washington, Mo. They settled on a farm near Little Rock, Arkansas. In 1894 he and his family moved to Oregon, purchasing a portion of the Taylor donation land claim, 1 1/4 miles east of Aumsville, where he resided until his death.

Funeral services will be held Monday, April 25, at 9 a. m. at the Catholic church in Sublimity.

ON LUTHER PROGRAM

Silverton, April 23.—Miss Marguerite Sather will take part in a discussion on "Tomorrow's Lutheran church" to be held Saturday afternoon, April 30 at the Ninth District Convention of the North Pacific Lutheran League at Bellingham, Wash. Rev. Carl Foss of Silverton will also take part in the program. Rev. Mr. Foss is advisor for the Junior Lutheran League of the district. Rev. A. W. Knack, who conducted a

HALF SCIO GRADS THERE FOUR YEARS

SCIO, April 23.—Thursday night, May 26, eighteen Scio high school seniors will receive their diplomas. In September, 1928, 15 freshmen entered high school. Of those 15, nine are among the graduating class: Virginia Bilyeu, Vera Arnold, Max Long, Ralph Johnston, Cyrus Peery, Geraldine Peery, Eleanor Miller, Genevieve Sims, and Helen Romer.

The other nine either transferred from other schools or were members of other entering classes. Evelyn Bronson entered from Estacada; Rollie Rainbolt, from Honnester, Okla.; Wuanita Stepanek has been registered at both Tigard and Albany; Jean Marin came here from Crow, but had previously been at Stayton; Rova Jackson spent her first two high school years at Balsey; Opal Shilling entered from Albany; and Marjorie Hoppe came from Portland. Earl Bartak and Yaronir Walters were members of other freshmen classes.

Commencement will be held Thursday evening, May 26. Rex Dallas, pastor of the Albany Christian church, will deliver the address. Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday night, May 22. The Rev. Mr. Raiston has been asked to deliver the sermon.

Evans Valley.—Mr. and Mrs. Marie Foote are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. Foote's mother. The baby weighed eight pounds and has been named Shirley Gertrude.

PORTER GETS SCHOOL POST

Perrydale Elects two new Teachers Salaries; Reduced 10 per Cent

PERRYDALE, April 23.—Perrydale school board has given contracts for the coming year to Roy W. Porter of McMinnville as principal and Miss Doris Gettman of Newberg as assistant high teacher. Kenneth Hamey of Independence will teach intermediate grades for his second year and Helen McKillian of Portland will have the primary grades for her fifth term.

A 10 per cent cut was made in all wages. Professor Silke, who has taught here the past two years has a contract at Hubbard.

The high school girls went to Salem Wednesday afternoon. The girls who made letters in basketball had their pictures taken and later the entire group attended a show. Helen McKillian chaperoned the girls.

The community club meeting will be Tuesday night, April 24. Three plays will be put on by local talent, coached by Professor Silke, and an evening of real enjoyment is in store for those attending. There will be no charge for admission. Music will be furnished by a Salem orchestra.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, April 23.—Mrs. Robert Patton and baby son have returned from a few days spent with friends in Longview, Wa.

Mark Smith, who made a loop trip on his motorcycle from here down into California, with a boy chum, reports a great deal of snow and cold encountered on the trip. He will visit here with the William Logans and the Gerald Larkins, for a while and then go on to his own home in Tillamook.

The Royal Daughters Sunday school class entertained the Busy Bee class at a jolly party Thursday night. The boys were guests of honor due to the fact that they won an attendance contest, recently staged between the two classes. Mrs. Garrett H. Tompkins and Mrs. A. C. Henningsen are the teachers of the classes, and Mrs. Emmett Dickson was an additional guest. The evening was spent in playing games and at the close of the evening, several of the girls served dainty refreshments.

The Perrydale Good-Will club sent a large box of clothing and household needs to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parr of Turner, whose clothing and a large portion of household linen was destroyed by fire last week. Mr. and Mrs. Parr lived in Perrydale for several years until last fall when they bought a home in Turner.

The Four-H sewing club, the Willing Workers, which met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Lyle Thomas, Friday afternoon after school, is planning an Achievement day, to be held in about a fortnight at the school-house.

At the April meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association held in the community hall Friday night, Dr. L. M. Forbes of the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth gave an address, "What is Education?" The seventh grade presented two good plays, and a reading and two musical numbers concluded the program.

Officers for next year elected included, president, Mrs. Karl P. Mobley; vice-president, Mr. Lyle Thomas; secretary-treasurer, Miss Roberta Peterson; historian, Miss Catherine Chandler. Mrs. Elmer D. Cook, outgoing president installed the new officers.

Games, stunts and music, both vocal and instrumental were the entertainment features of the special time for the senior Epworth League, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Thomas Thursday night. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Finster, Ervin Simons, Mr. and Mrs. Grette, Mrs. Grace Bliss, Lester Lipport, Edella Ross, Miss Roberta Peterson, Ruth Bennett, Catherine Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Thomas. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Miss Luella Ross.

MEN'S PROGRAM IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

North Howell Grange Much Pleased by Performance; Men in Disguise

NORTH HOWELL, April 23.—The men's program given at the North Howell grange hall Friday night was very much enjoyed by a large crowd. The fashion show was staged by Tom Bump who was exceptionally clever as a French designer and introduced the following young men dressed in the latest women's styles.

Alan Wisner as a maid, Raymond Paulson, as a bathing beauty, George Cline in sophisticated evening dress, Harry Odie in bride's costume and Delroy Pitko in an attractive red traveling dress, who were all worthy of special mention.

The "Country Store" was put on by a group of men who typified the old time customs of a back woods country store with Ted Stevens as the general store keeper.

Music by Joe Schindler, and readings by John Paulson and Harold Dunn were also enjoyed and then the floor was cleared for dancing to the Mikkelson's orchestra.

Next Friday night there will be a card party in the North Howell grange hall for the benefit of the baseball team.
