The Salem Business Men's

TENNIS QUEEN'S NEW BOB

The dancing braids of her early career and the neat little knot at the nape of her neck that were the crowning glory of Queen Helen Willis Moody have gone the way of all the hair and succumbed to the barber's scissors. Photo shows Queen Helen with her new bob. Inset is a picture of the tennis queen when she was battering her way to the top of the net world. Note the swinging pigtail.

league goes into a huddle tomorrow night at the chamber of commerce to check up on its campaign against foreign solicitors, advertising racketeers and other out-of-town salesmen who have either tried or succeeded in pushing their wares and services into the hands of Salem business men since the year opened. The meeting will be a testimonial affair, various merchants being expected to report on their experiences with the racketeers. The league's officers also will report on various solicitors' schemes which they have killed off within the last few weeks.

JERSEY SHOW STILL UNCERTAIN MATTER

BRUSH CREEK—Mrs. Frank Kuensting of Woodburn was a luncheon guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madson Thursday. Mrs. Kuensting was here for the purpose of discussing the Spring show of the Marion County Jersey cattle club. Whether or not the club will hold its annual show this year is as yet undecided. A meeting of the club will be held at Salem, probably on May 7, at which time definite action on this will be taken. Mrs. Kuensting is secretary of the club and Mrs. Madson is president. The Spring show has proved a decided success in former years and if sufficient interest is shown at the May club meeting it will be held again this year.

He believes this is due, in part, to the increased number of farmers of small tracts. Also because a few individual farmers are discarding tractor use as too expensive, particularly in the spring and summer when plentiful grass makes cheap horse feed. Adam bought two carloads of
