

Society News and Club Affairs

IVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Annual Convention Observed This Week

Women's Christian Temperance circles are interested this week in the annual convention of the organization to be held in Woodburn Wednesday all day at the First Methodist church.

Adding to the general interest in the meeting is the fact that the Woodburn unit is celebrating the 40th anniversary of the organization of the Marion county union which was effected in Woodburn, December 7, 1892, with Mrs. S. H. Spangler of Jefferson as the first president. Mrs. Hawk of Jefferson was first corresponding secretary and Mrs. B. A. Cathy of Woodburn was first secretary. The organization was completed with a membership of 40.

The program follows. In addition to numbers given three will be special music, and in the evening a special session is being held at which time the "patriotic" edging given several times before appreciative audiences, is a colorful pageant arranged by Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson of Portland. The characters will be mainly residents of Woodburn and Salem.

The program includes:

- 10:00—Devotions, by Mrs. Jennie Gunning.
- 10:20—Address of welcome, Woodburn Union. Response by Mrs. Lydia Lehman, president Salem Union.
- 10:30—Appointment of committees.
- 10:35—Minutes of the last meeting, and also of the executive meeting in January.
- 10:50—Introducing new Unions; White Ribbon salute.
- 11:00—Old Business, new business, election of officers.
- 12:00—Lunch, social hour and meeting of executive board to appoint directors of various departments.
- 1:30 P. M.—Memorial service and dedication White Ribbon recruits; honoring old members and county presidents. History of the organization of the County W.C.T.U.
- 2:00—Reports of officers and directors—3 min. each.
- 2:00—Lecture on Young People's branch work by Mrs. C. B. Andrews, state director of Y. P. B. work.
- 4:00—Adjournment.

Waldo Hills—Miss Lois Ann Riches was a delightful hostess Wednesday when she entertained for the play cast of "The Mystery of the Third Gable" and a few additional friends, in the Waldo Hills club house, which was prettily decorated with baskets of spring flowers. Games were played and dancing followed with Mrs. Ferne Davenport at the piano.

Late in the evening the guests were seated for supper at a long table decorated in green and yellow with dainty hand painted place cards. Guests for the evening were: Ruth Geer, Julia Currie, Elaine Clower, Valda Davis, Beryl Ottaway, Lillie Madsen, Cathlene Cuddy, Mildred Egan, Ferne Davenport, Francis Welsh, Walter Hesel, George Berg, all of Salem, Leroy and Waldo Rine, Ted, Bob, Harry and Frank Riches, Henry Hjorth, Jim Gilliam, Eddie King, Ralph Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ramseyer and son, Buddy, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mulkey.

Orchard Heights—Mrs. Adrian Withers and Mrs. Carl Lepley entertained Thursday afternoon at the Withers home at the regular meeting of the Orchard Heights Women's club. The business session was followed by a mirth provoking game introduced by Mrs. Grace Gliss and Miss Helen Bliss in which the guests wrote a progressive story.

Mrs. John Simmons and Mrs. Cash Roberts assisted the hostesses in serving refreshments.

Present were Mrs. Frank Farmer, Mrs. William Knower, Mrs. Ammon Grice, Mrs. Prudence Bouffler, Mrs. Philip Bouffler, Mrs. Harry McDowell, Mrs. Roy McDowell, Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Mrs. Cash Roberts, Mrs. Burnam Southwick, Mrs. Grace Bliss, Mrs. Albert Bouffler, Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. John Simmons, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mrs. Robert Adams, Mrs. Wilfred Wilson, Miss Helen Bliss, Miss Mary Wait and the hostesses, Mrs. Withers and Mrs. Lepley.

Mrs. Harry McDowell will be hostess Wednesday, May 4, at which time Miss Margaret Gillis will be present and will outline her work as Folk county health nurse.

Business Dev. Professional Women's club will meet Tuesday night for a dinner meeting and later election of officers and an address by Dr. H. H. Dixon, psychiatry department of University of Oregon medical school of Portland. The dinner will be held at the Gray Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pattison will be hosts to the Leslie Can Do class of Leslie Methodist church at their home 291 Kingwood drive, West Salem, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bishop will be assisting hosts.

Among those taking spring vacation trips will be Bernard White, Edna King and Arthur Stuberfield who will leave Wednesday by motor for Vancouver, B. C. They expect to return Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd and Mrs. Loran Howe entertained with a charming "spring" party at the Mudd home Saturday night. Bridge was in play at seven tables.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones of Eugene are weekend guests of Mr. Jones sister, Mrs. W. C. Conner, of South Salem.

Miss Madeline Southmayd entertained informally at her home on North 19th street, Thursday with an evening of bridge, Spring biosomes and pretty novelties. Made an attractive background for the guest rooms. Following cards, Mrs. Roy Southmayd, mother of the hostess, served refreshments. Present were Miss Minnie Neufeld, Miss Helen Newberry, Miss Helen Johnson, Miss Helen Putnam, Miss Alice Detlefs, Miss Jane Lockridge, Miss Georgia Southmayd, and Miss Madeline Southmayd.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newburgh entertained with an attractive social evening in compliment to the 75th birthday of Mrs. Newburgh's father, Robert Hemming. The informal evening was concluded with refreshments. Present to compliment the honor guest were Mr. and Mrs. R. Conser and Miss Helen Conser of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goben, James Delaney and Mr. and Mrs. Newburgh.

Mrs. W. F. Foster was hostess for the April meeting of the G. K. P. club at her home Monday night. Dinner was served before the business and social meeting. Sewing was enjoyed during the evening hours. All club members were present and Mrs. Ed Bingenheimer was a special guest. Mrs. H. S. Gile will be hostess to the club for the May meeting at her home on Nob Hill.

Mrs. John Robins will entertain members of the Sons of Union Veterans and its Auxiliary at her home Tuesday evening beginning with a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock. The dinner hour will be followed by a program and informal social evening. All members are urged to attend.

Members of the Oregon State Graduate Nurses association of District No. 3 will meet Tuesday, 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Anderson, 1577 Court street. Miss Anna Boehringer will be the assisting hostess.

Additional Society on Page 12

District Rally is Well Attended

Salem Royal Neighbors of America attended in a large body for the district rally held Friday evening in Chemawa at which time the Lashib camp was hostess to the entire district. This was in honor of the 25th anniversary of Lashib camp.

Each camp present responded on the program. The minutes of the first meeting of Lashib camp was read by the recorder, Mrs. Beckner. Pins were given to the five remaining charter members. Mrs. Sarah Peterson, district deputy of Salem gave an address.

Those attending from Salem included Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. George Speed, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farmer, Mrs. Ida McCly, Mrs. LaVerne Walla, Mrs. Sarah Harter, Mrs. Bell Schople, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Julia Geogary, Mrs. Nellie Pierce, Mrs. Ruth Sherman, Mrs. Helen Persons, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Mildred Lass, Mrs. Carrie Bunn, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Mrs. Alta Gummings, Mrs. Hazel Elliott, Mrs. Sarah Woodburn, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Blanchard, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Mins Saunders and Mrs. Bertha Loveland.

State Convention Plans Made

Miss Helen McElroy, Miss Hazel McElroy, Miss Lulu McElroy, Miss Myrtle McElroy, and Miss Dorothy Franks are delegates to the state convention of F. M. clubs of Oregon at Gearhart this weekend.

They were elected at the Thursday night meeting of the Salem F. L. club which was a guest of Evelyn Hessman. Following the business meeting a miscellaneous shower was held complimenting Mrs. Chester Lanktree, nee Adaline Seymour, a member of the club, whose marriage was a recent event.

Many lovely gifts were received by the bride who will leave Salem soon to make her home in Portland.

At the tea hour the birthdays of Hazel McElroy, Ruth Har-baugh, and Mildred Martin were observed especially.

Present were Donna Hart, Lulu McElroy, Evelyn Naderman, Willa Flosser, Hazel McElroy, Adaline Lanktree, Myrtle McElroy, Dorothy Franks, Ruth Harbaugh, Helen McElroy, Mildred Martin, and Evelyn Hessman.

Portland Recital of Salem Interest

The appearance of 28 prominent pianists at fifteen grand pianos in concert at the public auditorium, Thursday evening, is being eagerly awaited by local music lovers. The Ensemble, conducted by Fernus Steiner, is presented by the Monday Musical club.

A program of symphonic music is being presented in a manner that will prove a job to students and lovers of the piano. All the richness and beauty of this instrument will be brought out. Among other numbers, "Les Preludes" by Liszt is being offered. This was written originally for the piano and will be heard as Liszt intended it to be. Mr. Steiner is a graduate of the Royal National Academy of Music, the school of music founded by the immortal Franz Liszt. Mr. Steiner, who is a Hungarian by birth, presents the works of this master with particular understanding and sympathy.

The musical life of Portland will be enhanced by this ensemble which hopes to become a permanent organization. Part of the net proceeds of the concert will go toward a student scholarship. The ensemble will be supplemented by the club chorus, singing under the direction of Mr. Tom Haaf.

Mrs. Carl Nelson will entertain members of Chi Delta chapter of Delphians at her home Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. This will be the last meeting of the current year and officers will be elected. The regular program will follow the business meeting.

Topics concerning the art of illumination will be presented by Mrs. R. M. Waltz, Mrs. Ralph Kietzing, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. L. D. Lambeth, Mrs. E. A. Collier and Mrs. F. S. Anunsen.

Music Week Plans Made by G.R. Groups

Music Week is making itself felt in Girl Reserve circles where active work is being carried forward in preparation for the program to be given by the Girl Scouts, Rainbow girls, and Girl Reserves in compliment to Mother's day.

This program is to be given at 3 o'clock, May 8, in the Presbyterian church. The Girl Reserves for their part will present the original ceremonial of "How We Grow" compiled by Mrs. Rankin Blashford, advisor to the 8 Llandau club of the senior high school. Music for the ceremonial has been arranged by Mrs. Francis DeHartport, music chairman of the Girl Reserve committee.

Rehearsals for this will take place Wednesday at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. All grade and junior high school Reserves are asked to be there.

A second large affair being arranged by the 9th grade Parish Reserves is the Mother and Daughter banquet which will be given at the Y. W. C. A. Friday at 6 o'clock. The group will meet Tuesday at the school to practice the play which will be given as part of the program to be presented in compliment to the Mothers.

Mrs. George A. White entertained with a delightfully informal tea Saturday afternoon complimenting Mrs. E. E. Bragg who has been a guest of her daughters, Mrs. Dan McCallan and Mrs. Wallace Carson for the past few days. A few intimate friends of Mrs. Bragg were invited in for a "cup of tea." Mrs. Bragg returned to Portland Saturday evening accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson.

Members of the 4-H club enjoyed a jolly party at the home of Clem Denning recently. This was the regular monthly gathering of the group. Contest prizes were won by Jean Pound and Florence Uppjohn. Refreshments were served at the close of the informal hours.

The Merry Go Round club which was to have met this week has been postponed until May 2 at which time Mrs. E. C. Cross will be hostess.

Miss Evelyn King, Miss Phyllis Haug, Miss Dorothy Jones, Miss Daisy Varley and Miss Helen Newberry motored to Corvallis to spend Friday.

Yomarco Club Has Delightful Evening

One of the most pleasant social meetings to be enjoyed by members of the Yomarco club of the First Methodist church, was that of Friday night at which time the group entertained their husbands with a dinner in the downstairs dining room of the Y. M. C. A. and followed this with a "60th Parker" evening with H. R. White presiding as Seth Parker. Covers were placed for about 60 guests.

Mrs. Edgar Fortner gave special vocal numbers and quartet numbers also added to the program in addition to group singing. Mrs. A. A. Schramm presided at the organ which was used to carry out the reality of the Seth Parker evening.

The committee in charge of this interesting evening was Mrs. R. R. Boardman, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Frank Minger, Mrs. H. R. White and Mrs. D. E. Sisson.

Studio Recital of Interest

An attractive studio recital was given by the younger students of Prof. Frank Churchhill at his studio Saturday afternoon. Following the recital numbers tea was served.

Those taking part in the affair were Ruby Wilson, Margaret Barrett, June Lind, Margaret Britchett, Margaret Rannels, Herbert Stitt, Jr., Lyle Leach, Phil Barrett, Jr., David Bartruff, and Donald Peary.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dancer were hosts Friday night to members of the San Souci club. Cards were in play at three tables. Mrs. Charles Andresson and L. M. Case held winning scores. Mr. and Mrs. Andresson will be hosts to the group May 15.

Mrs. E. A. Brown will be hostess to members of the Salem Woman's Press club at her home 1875 Fir street Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The afternoon will be spent informally with a business session preceding several hours of cards and tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carson were hosts at their home Saturday night for bridge and a late supper. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Flagg, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Ted De Tonnencourt, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hartwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones were guests.

Ballyhoo Sandals

They're New...

The very latest, all white, black and white, red and white, green and white, yellow and black.

High or low heels.

— ALL THE RAGE —

See them — try them on — pair,

$2.95

The Price Shoe Co.

133 Liberty St. Salem, Oregon

MILLER'S 12th ANNIVERSARY SALE CONTINUED MONDAY!

Silk Dresses Newest Fashions $8.95	One Lot Summer Coats $25. and $29.50 $14.	New Silks Reg. 1.95 98c yd.
Special Hosiery Holeproof and Theme 69c	Princess Peggy Frocks $1.00 Basement	Shadow Lace Table Cloths Large Size $2.95

HUNDREDS OF GOOD QUALITY BARGAINS!

Kelvinator

1914 1932

Have You Seen the NEW KELVINATOR?

If not we invite you to inspect them at our store. This year Kelvinator offers many new refinements in finish and design.

The new line consists of eighteen models, the most complete line ever offered to the public. You will find in this line one to suit your own particular requirement, and best of all, the recent price reduction makes Kelvinator

The Biggest Value on the Market!

See KELVINATOR at

C. S. Hamilton
FURNITURE CO.

347 Court Street