

YOUNG ORATOR TELLS OF WORK

Of Smith-Hughes Students; Union Church Service Is Planned

GRAND ISLAND, April 28—Jake Tompkins, Jr., a sophomore in the Dayton high school, gave a talk on the Smith-Hughes work Monday at the noon luncheon of the Dayton Commercial club. Tuesday night he motored to Independence where he talked before the Father and Sons banquet of the high school association. At this meeting he discussed "The Value of Vocational Agriculture in the High Schools." Jake leaves Thursday for Corvallis where Friday he will enter the state public speaking contest. This is the third consecutive year that the Dayton high school has entered the contest from the Willamette valley section and the second consecutive year that the representative has been a Grand Island boy. A union service of all the Dayton churches will be held Sunday night, May 1, at the Evangelical church. A musical program will be presented in observance of National Music week.

Teachers Elected. At a school board meeting held this week, the teachers were elected for the coming year. Mrs. Pauline Fowler will be principal and have charge of the four upper grades for a second term, and Miss Lucille Fisher, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Fisher of Dayton, will be the new primary instructor. The board consists of E. A. Lefley, chairman, Worth Wiley, Roy E. Will and Mrs. Arka Lawrence, clerk.

Special Meet Called. A special meeting of the Grand Island Improvement club was held on Tuesday night, April 27, at the school house. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the proposed building of a community hall. All club members are asked to be present at this time.

Mrs. Adelbert Smith underwent an operation Tuesday morning at the McMinville hospital. The two members of the Dayton high school senior class who have made the highest records throughout their entire high school career were recently determined by the faculty members. Ruth Felton will be valedictorian and Willowbelle Matscheck salutatorian. Both girls will appear on the program at the commencement exercises to be held in Demaray's hall Friday night, May 27. B. F. Irvine, editor of the Oregon Journal, Portland, will deliver the commencement address.

HALL WORK RUSHED BEFORE DEDICATION

GERVAIS, April 28—The floor is being laid in the new city hall this week and work is being pushed forward for the dedication which will be held Saturday, May 14. Mrs. A. B. Minaker will give a cantata in the hall Thursday night, May 5, in observance of National Music week. A movement was started Tuesday in which the ladies of Gervais will furnish shrubbery to be planted around the building. Each lady in the city will be asked to furnish one shrub.

Hall Clan Meets. Mr. and Mrs. A. DeJardin and children attended the third annual gathering of the James E. and David Hall clan, which was held in the grange hall at Butteville Sunday. Members of the clan were present from Portland, Yamhill, Salem, Donald, Woodburn and Gervais; and one, Mrs. Mary Cox, from Los Angeles. Election of officers resulted in E. N. Hall of Woodburn being elected president for the next year and Alta Hall of Salem, secretary-treasurer. The meetings are held the third Sunday in April and will be held again next year at Butteville.

The community "500" club closed the season Tuesday night with a dinner and evening of cards at the parish hall. Between 50 and 60 were present for the dinner and 12 tables were play-

ROCKEFELLER AT "BEAR" INQUIRY

Percy A. Rockefeller (left), a nephew of the Standard Oil king, is "spotted" by the candid camera as he testified before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee during the investigation into short selling on the stock market. Rockefeller admitted having participated in a pool with Wall Street bears in order to recoup heavy losses on the market. Senator Frederic C. Walcott, of Connecticut, is shown, center, and Senator Phillips Lee Goldsborough, of Maryland, at right.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, April 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lewis, who own and operate the service station on the Wallace road adjoining the railroad right-of-way in West Salem, have sold their farm on Croisan creek in Marion county, and have moved into a residence on Rosemont avenue.

Mrs. Theo Laehr, of the Riverside grocery, returned from a week's vacation at Burns, where she visited her mother, Mrs. A. Van Alstine. She reported severe storms of rain and snow and a bad grade beyond Bend, but the highways otherwise in good shape.

The Ladies' class of the Ford Memorial church will hold a large social evening in the basement of the church Friday night with a long invitation list and the husbands' special guests. Mrs. C. L. Dark is the teacher and committee members include for program and entertainment Mrs. Emmett Dickson, Mrs. L. F. Brown and Mrs. G. E. Tandy; for refreshments, Mrs. Elmer Herson, Mrs. Jack A. Gosser and Mrs. Arthur Hathaway; for decorating, Mrs. John A. Kantas, Mrs. George Lethrop and Mrs. Eugene Krebs; and for invitations, Mrs. Darrel T. Bradford, Mrs. Floyd De Lapp, Mrs. Phil Hathaway and Mrs. Donald Kuhn. Plans are underway for an outstanding evening and there is rumor of a big surprise.

In the eighth grade debate held this week Muriel Kaster and Dean Thompson, won the decision over the negative debaters, Francis Wise and Edward Dingman.

Members of the Womens' Foreign Missionary society of Summit and West Salem churches met at the home of Mrs. Ed Brock Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Floyd De Lapp having charge of devotional and an address upon stewardship. Mrs. Eugene Krebs in charge of the lesson and Mrs. Dark conducting the Mystery

ed. Prizes for high scores went to Mrs. Ward Lundy and Frank Cannard and for second high to Mrs. Helena Estudillo and Ward Lundy.

School Signs Placed For Rural Building

LINCOLN, April 28—The Lincoln school board has erected much needed school signs along the road fronting the schoolhouse at Lincoln.

Mrs. Irene Castle, teacher, has been rehired to teach the Lincoln school for her third term. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards of Lincoln were honor guests at a dinner given in compliment to their 15th wedding anniversary Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ridgeway, who reside on the old home place of Mr. Edwards' parents at Rickey. Other dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Merrick and son Vernon Merrick of Lincoln and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ridgeway.

11 GROUPS JOIN IN MUSIC WEEK EVENT

Mrs. B. O. Longsdorf, Turkey Raiser, Wins Award in Contest

WALDO HILLS, April 26—Celebrating National Music week the Willard Women's club is sponsoring a neighborhood concert. Mrs. C. C. Geer, appointed by the state chairman as chairman for this district is in charge with Mrs. Karl Haberly as assistant. Seven schools and four communities will join in the entertainment Wednesday, May 4 at 8 p. m. in the Waldo Hills club house.

Schools which will furnish numbers are McAlpine, Willard, Centerville, Brush Creek, Evergreen, Victor Point and Macleay while communities assisting are Waldo Hills, Brush Creek, Evergreen, Macleay. A community sing will precede the program and will be led by Frank Powell of Silverton. Dancing will conclude the evening. A cordial invitation to the program is extended.

Wins Turkey Prize. For securing the most new members for the National Bourbon Red Turkey club Mrs. B. O. Longsdorf, of Red Acres farm in the Evergreen district, has received a setting of turkey eggs. The prize was offered by the national secretary, Mrs. Murray Hall of Missouri. Mrs. Longsdorf is national vice president for Oregon.

This year, for the first time Mrs. Longsdorf will raise turkeys by hand. She expects to have 300 by May 9 or 10. In preparation she has had built two new brooder houses. She will also use a new novel but clever brooder, lined with turkey feathers.

Mrs. Longsdorf was one of three Silverton turkey raisers to give three settings of eggs to pupils in the Smith-Hughes department of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Egan entertained with a dinner party Sunday, the guests motoring from Salem. Seated at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Dell Forgy, Mr. and Mrs. William Kenney and two sons, Billy and Eddie, Walter Hise, Mr. and Mrs. Egan, Mildred and Ralph Egan.

Mrs. A. A. Geer is resting comfortably at her home after undergoing an operation for sinus trouble Monday at the Salem General hospital.

THAR'S GOLD IN THE VIRGINNY HILLS

Gold deposits recently found in this ledge near Farsons, W. Va., presumably running through three ravines more than a half-mile apart, are said to be the richest ever found in the East. The precious metal assays $156.80 per ton, and active steps to operate on a commercial scale are already under way. The original discovery was made by Coyton Phillips within the boundaries of the Monongahela National Forest. The rocks shown in the picture are gold-bearing.

MUSIC PROGRAM TOLD IN DETAIL

SILVERTON, April 28—Plans for the first night performance of Silverton's group of three programs to be given during National Music week, have been completed and announced. Prof. Hal Campbell, in charge of the music in the Silverton schools, has prepared this program. Mr. Campbell was selected as chairman by Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, who is general chairman of the Silverton district. The program includes the following:

- Overture, Land of Romance, Fraser—Band. Selection, Tannhauser, Wagner—Band. Saxophone solo, Silver Threads, Danks—Jimmy Busch. Trumpet Quartet, The Long Day Closes, Sullivan—W. Kleeb, C. Thorkildson, W. Tate, L. Leslie. Selection, Victor Herbert's Favorites, Herbert and Lake—Band. Duet, The Norwegian Cradle Song, Morel—M. Winters (Trombone) and E. Cloe (Clarinet). March, Sons of Australia, Lithgow—Band. Choruses, Sparkling Sunlight, Arditi; Gondia Song, Roberts—Girls' Chorus, Mrs. Viva Bennett, director.

Scene, In a Persian Market, Kately—Orchestra, Solo Dancer, Arthenia Cox. Valse, Tres Jolie, Waldteufel—Orchestra. Violin quartet, Zerlina, Jahn—E. Kellner, R. Leslie, N. Shaw, Russell Quinn. Piano Quartette, Maxurka Russe, Ganne—D. McKenzie, E. Minor, V. Brewer, M. Harman. Selection, Minuet in G, Beethoven—Orchestra. Excerpt, Unfinished Symphony, Schubert—Band and Orchestra. Grand March, Marche Aux Flambeaux, B. Clarke—Band and Orchestra. Star Spangled Banner.

Achievement Program To Be Held Tonight

WACONDA, April 28—Members of the 4-H sewing club here have finished their year's projects, and will hold an elaborate Achievement Day program at the Waconda schoolhouse Friday, April 29, at 8 p. m.

An exhibition of the year's work will be made, and a program given. Miss Olive Manning, school teacher here, is the leader.

RETURN HOME

KINGWOOD, April 27.—Mrs. Ed Dennison with her baby daughter who arrived April 12 at a Salem hospital came home on Monday. The little girl has been named Molly Ann.

PHEASANT PEN IS PROJECT OF CLUB

JEFFERSON, April 28—The special features at the Morning Star grange Saturday evening, April 30, will be two plays presented by the young men of the grange. One is "The Man in the Shadow," a three act mystery drama, with Ralph Chambers of Knox Butte, William Southard, Kenneth Cunningham, Adolph Drager, P. J. Shaver and Keith Cunningham playing.

The other is a short one-act comedy, "The Saving of Grace," which will be presented by Wilbur Calhoun, Keith Cunningham, Woodrow Truman, and Perry Long. The proceeds of the evening will go toward paying off the debt incurred in remodeling the hall.

Hunt Club Meets

The Hunt and Gun club of Jefferson met Saturday night at the A. B. Hinz hardware store. The club was recently organized, now having 75 members, with the membership steadily increasing. At the meeting the club considered a plan for raising finances to build a pen near the city, in which to raise pheasants to release in vicinity adjacent to Jefferson. It is reported enough members are willing to donate time and labor in building a pen if the club can raise the funds for the material.

Three committees were appointed as follows: location for pen—A. B. Hinz, Paul McKee, and E. L. Knight; finances—Karl Tomasek, Clair Cobb, William Wiedeker, J. T. Jones and Wilbur Kunk; building—Jesse Parrish, Rev. G. F. Lening, Paul Harris, W. J. Etnner, and Raymond McClain.

Tea given by the Home Cookery club of the seventh and eighth grades was held at the home of their leader, Mrs. Fio Young, Friday afternoon. Geraldine Jones accompanied by Geraldine Davis, gave two local numbers. Dainty refreshments were served with Francis Weddie pouring and Ellen Lookey, Carol Lynes and Peggy Neuhbaum serving, assisted by Violet Chain and Della Stephenson.

BIRTHS REPORTED

JEFFERSON, April 28—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller are the parents of a 7 1/4 pound son born April 21 at their home northwest of town. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Pendegrat are the parents of a 9 1/4 pound daughter born in Albany, April 22. She has been named Donna Jana.

"You're Right"

They're Milder and they Taste Better too"

Chesterfield Radio Program MON & THUR. 7:30 P.M. TUE & FRI. 7:30 P.M. WED. & SAT. 6:30 P.M. BOSWELL SISTERS 6:30 P.M. ALEX GRAY 6:30 P.M. RUTH ETTING 6:30 P.M. SHUKRET'S ORCHESTRA every night but Sunday. NORMAN BROCKENSHIRE, Announcer. COLUMBIA NETWORK.

Greatest Anti-knock, Energy! New UNION

76

GREATER POWER NEW SMOOTHNESS INCREASED MILEAGE FINEST ANTI-KNOCK PROVED PERFORMANCE

NO EXTRA COST MONEY BACK GUARANTEE LISTEN! ... "VOICE OF 76" ... TONIGHT 9 ... KGW

Chesterfield

The Cigarette that TASTES BETTER The Cigarette that's MILDER

—They Satisfy

© 1932, LITTON & MERRILL TOBACCO CO.