

MOST OF STUDENTS BECOME REINSTATED

at the end of the year, it was said. That reinstatement of the three of the seven high school boys who last Tuesday were expelled for alleged participation in the hazing of Victor DeFardin, will be sought at the next meeting of the school board because virtually certain yesterday. Parents, alumni, and fellow students of these three boys will make the request, it was understood.

Action on Petition
Not yet known.

What action the school board will take in connection with the application for reinstatement of the three boys who were freed of assault and battery charges, could not be determined yesterday. The boys are Lawrence Blaisdell, James Nicholson, Jr., and Kenneth Fillingim.

School officials reported yesterday that at least three of the secret societies had surrendered their charters. Among these was the J. C., or "Julius Caesar" organization.

One man was said to have entered Principal Fred D. Wolf's office yesterday and charged that Wolf had attempted to "make a bar" out of his daughter. The girl had been given an affidavit to sign, but she alleged she did not belong to any secret society.

STARKER INDICTED ON DEATH CHARGE

In the cases of Thomas Bosworths, charged with kidnaping Edward S. Talbot, Yamhill county farmer, and Ira McPeak, charged with unlawful possession of true bills were returned. It was charged, after his arrest for Marion county authorities by San Diego officers, that Bosworths relieved Talbot of $31,000 in a hotel room at Reno, that he was driven through a number of states in an automobile and finally dumped out near Jefferson.

Other true bills returned by the jury were as follows: Donald Pillar, two indictments, uttering a forged instrument (bank check), and larceny by bailee of an automobile.

C. Eronson, charged with uttering a forged instrument, Clarence Parker and William C. Gergery, charged with unlawful possession of a still.

and consecutive meeting she had not attended. Rumor had it yesterday that Mrs. Pierce had decided to resign from the board but would not submit her resignation until some time in May. She is known to have been violently opposed to changes in the report of the curriculum committee which the board made two weeks ago after adopting the report of the curriculum committee in full. As chairman of the committee, she did much of the work of preparing the report and opposed any changes in it after its adoption by the majority of the board in open session.

of similar institutions in the middle west and Mississippi valley a few years ago, and the praise that was given to Dr. Steiner for his splendid management and the results that he has produced. These same men had visited a large number of institutions of this character in the United States, and they pronounced the one at Salem as being one of the best in our land.

The report is signed by E. Harley, foreman, Ella M. Stauffer, Bertha N. Curi, Dorothy M. McDowell, G. V. Pontious, A. H. Moore and J. B. Allison.

Jefferson High Defeats Turner

JEFFERSON, April 29—Jefferson high school's baseball team slugged out an 18 to 6 victory over Turner high today despite ragged work in the field. Jefferson chalked up 17 hits but was debilitated with nine errors. Phelps and Hart held Turner to nine hits.

The Jefferson girls defeated the Turner girls 22 to 7.

Lila Ashland is Chosen Woodburn May Queen

WOODBURN, April 29—Lila Ashland, brown-haired senior girl, has been chosen queen to rule at Woodburn high school's annual May fete to be held Friday, May 13, when all members of the student body voted on the three candidates nominated by the senior class. At the same time Charles Treadler was chosen May day manager. He was also chosen by the seniors as one of the three candidates for that post.

Miss Ashland has not yet chosen her attendants, although those from the senior class will probably be Roma Kallak and Edith Shrock, her opponents in the race. The May day manager has full charge of the affair.

Senators Will Play at Prison

The Salem Senators will play the state penitentiary baseball team Sunday afternoon on the prison diamond. Players must be at the gate at 12:45 in order to be admitted. Those wishing to go are asked to call Frank Nelson, business manager, at his home or Frank Bashor at Anderson's sport goods store.

WINNING BAND TO BROADCAST SOON

SILVERTON, April 27—Moth-ers of the school band and orchestra were hostesses Tuesday night at a dinner given at Trinity church for the 130 boys, their directors, Hal Campbell, and special guests. The latter included Dr. F. O. Riley of Hubbard, special honor guest; Rev. and Mrs. Carl Foss, Mrs. Riley, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. McCannal, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goets, Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Powell.

A. W. Kleeb acted as toastmaster. Mrs. Kleeb was general chairman of the affair and Mrs. Frank Leslie and Mrs. Carl Stawm were the program committee.

The outstanding feature was the announcement made by Dr. Riley, that KGW wants the winners of the B division contest held at Corvallis two weeks ago, to broadcast over the station one evening next week, prior to the national broadcast. It was also announced that the citizens of Silverton will furnish transportation to the 30 winners.

SHORTCUT HIGHWAY WORK NOW REMOTE

PORTLAND, Ore., April 29—(AP)—The state highway commission today told representatives of the Northwest Oregon Development league today that there is no immediate prospect for construction of proposed short cut highways to the seas.

W. F. Woodward, appearing before the commission for the development association, urged that the state issue bonds, if necessary, to get the preliminary work on both the Wilson river and the short cut roads under way. He said the communities affected needed the roads and that the unemployed needed the work.

Leslie M. Scott, commission chairman, told the development representatives that in connection with the proposed roads the commission was confronted with the problems of finance, engineering and selection of the routes. He said the commission cannot undertake large projects without selling bonds, which it is unwilling to do.

WHOOPING COUGH STILL PREVALENT

LIBERTY, April 29—Whooping cough is still prevalent in the district. Quite a number of children have had it or have it at present. Since the whole school was exposed from the very first, it has not been necessary for most of the children to miss a great deal of school, as they may remain home only during the hardest spell.

Leslie Judd and family are moving here from Corvallis. They will occupy the house on the property recently purchased by William Berndt from Bruce Cunningham.

A large crowd made "whoopie" at the school carnival Thursday night.

Mrs. G. F. Valentine received word Thursday morning of the accidental death of her brother-in-law, Sid Greene of Baker.

Youthful Driver To Face Charges Of Manslaughter

PORTLAND, April 29—(AP)—A coroner's jury today found that Charles J. Welsh, driver of an automobile in which two persons were killed last Sunday "was driving at an excessive rate of speed" at the time of the accident.

An announcement from the coroner's office said a charge of involuntary manslaughter will be filed against Welsh, 17.

Lutheran Confab Draws 300 Church People of State

WOODBURN, April 29—The annual district convention of the Lutheran church, after a three-day session, came to a close Thursday night. All delegates, pastors and church members who attended the circuit meeting expressed the thought that it was one of the best meetings in the history of the district, which includes all of Oregon and a portion of Washington.

It was estimated that 300 Lutherans attended the meeting. Thursday's meetings were for the most part prayer services.

DRINKERS, BETTORS TO HELP PAY COST

WASHINGTON, April 29—(AP)—The senate finance committee reached out today for race track bettors and drinkers to help pay national government costs.

Looking about for new sources of revenue, it approved a proposal by Chairman Smoot for a 10 per cent tax on all pari-mutuel betting tickets—25 to be paid by the purchasers of the ticket at the race track. It was estimated to yield $35,000,000 annually.

Earlier the house tax rates on promise advanced in Shanghai five cents a gallon to 10 cents. The tax on grape concentrates was changed from 40 per cent ad valorem to 44 cents a gallon.

The levies on carbonated waters were raised from two cents to five cents. The rate on unfermented juices including grape juice was raised from two cents to 11 cents a gallon.

Chinese Holding Out Against Big Japanese Force

TOKYO, April 29—(AP)—The Chinese irregulars in eastern Kirin province, Manchuria, were holding their own against several detachments of Japanese troops operating in that area today.

After two-day battle near Hallin, 135 miles northwest of Kirin, 6000 Chinese insurgents held their strongly entrenched positions four miles from Hallin, after losing 200 men in the encounter.

Mother Drowns Baby, Tries to Take Own Life

ST. HELENS, Ore., April 29—(AP)—Mrs. Lena Forquer, 43, drowned her 18-month-old daughter Marion in a well on an abandoned farm near Gobie today and then attempted to kill herself by slashing her wrists.

A posse led by Sheriff Oscar Wood found Mrs. Forquer late today about 100 yards from the well. She was brought to a hospital here and her condition was said to be critical.

Sheriff Wood said Forquer had been out of work for some time and that his wife had been dependent. He expressed the opinion that her mind had become unbalanced because of adversity.

Hubbard Grade Team North End County Champs

HUBBARD, April 29—Floyd Bovans won a 7-0 victory over Aurora grade school Thursday afternoon when Aurora got just one hit off Floyd. Billie Wengeroth got four hits in four times up to bat and Junior Higgenbotham got 3 hits in 3 times up to bat in a perfect batting order.

This victory makes Hubbard the champion of the north end of Marion county. Hubbard will play for the championship of the county at Willamette university on May 6.

PEEPION WON'T GO CHEWAWNA

PEEPION, April 29—Leroy Peepion, senior at the Chemawa vocational school who won the northwest amateur championship in the 115-pound class at Portland Thursday, will not be eligible for the Olympics, as this weight is not included in the Olympic events.

Woodburn High Gets Revenge From Molalla

WOODBURN, April 29—Woodburn high school's baseball team sprung a surprise on the dopsters Tuesday afternoon by beating the Molalla school's team by a score of 2 to 1 on the Indians' home ground. Molalla has been chosen by some as the probable champion of the Willamette intercollegiate league.

Although Woodburn beat Molalla on the local field a few weeks ago, the fact that Molalla has a much stronger outfit than at the beginning of the season and that Molalla recently smothered Silverton, 18 to 2, gave the Indians a lead on paper. Silverton took Woodburn here recently by a 3 to 2 count.
