University Circles Add Leaven to Social Situation

THE university social circles quicken with the approach of spring and the last days of university life for the year. The nearness of the May queen coronation is indicated by the announcement that a tea for the May queen will be an event of Wednesday at the Delta Phi sorority house.

Miss Gertrude Oehler is May queen this year and is the 8th member of the Delta Phi sorority to hold the coveted position in the 12 years that it has been an institution in the university. The attendants of the queen, Miss Edith Findley and Miss Helen Stiles, will share honors with her for the tea hours.

This weekend has been a particularly gay one for university circles in that the three sororities have held their spring formal and each has represented a guest list of about 40 people.

Alpha Phi Alpha sorority planned and carried out a unique night club idea with the guests and their ladies being received in three homes. At the John Ulrich home the guests were received in a mock old German beer garden, and from here they were taken to the B. E. Edwards home where a cabaret effect had been attained and where a program was given. From there the guests went to the C. F. Brethaupt home and were entertained at another night club. The party concluded at the sorority home which had been arranged as a Chinese noodle house and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. George Alden and Mrs. W. V. Johnson were chaperones for this affair.

A program of music and readings was given. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keene, Dean and Mrs. R. R. Hewitt, Mrs. Lillian Hagman, and other special guests in addition to the sorority members, Wesley Janke, Garfield Barnett, Leonard Davis, William Thome, William DePew, Kenneth Flemming, Hayes Beall, Arthur Smith, Neil Flemming, Earl Carlin, Lewis Magin, Fred Harris, Norman Johnson, Gurnee Fleisher, Howard Bergman, Bernard Newby, La Verne Shay, Charles Campbell, Percy Sweet, Dwight Adams, Miles Woodworth, Carl Marcy, Wallace McCrae, Gerald Thomas, Wesley Warren, Fred Smith, Lowell Eddy, Ralph McCullough, Thomas Gony, Robert Houck, Rex Young, Paul Ackerman, Thom Balaityne, John McLennan, Robert Kelly, and Forrest Reike.

THE above group is the Salem piano ensemble of which Miss Elma Weller, lower row center, is the director. This group will present its grand ensemble program Thursday night at the Armory. The members of the ensemble include Elma Weller, Bernice Clarke East, Dorothy Pearce, Nettie Mulkey Stone, Laura Grant Churchill, Joy Turner Moses, Bertha Junk Derby, Lela Tarpley Lee, Jessie Bush, Irma Keefer, Lois Plummer, and Ethel Poling Phelps.—Photograph by Kennell-Ellis.

Music Week Breaks Into Actuality

After weeks of planning and difficult, strenuous work on the part of many Salem residents, music week will break into an actuality today with the program at the First Presbyterian church at 4:30 o'clock.

From then on programs of music in all its variations will be presented throughout the week and will close with the Mother's day program at the First Presbyterian church May 8.

Mrs. Walter A. Denton has had charge of the general plans and has been aided by her committee from the Salem Music Teachers' association which sponsors music week, and from civic and community groups.

One of the many annual programs which have been presented with delightful newness each year is that of the Sacred Heart students. Two programs are given each, Junior and senior recital. The first of these will be the junior recital Thursday at St. Joseph's hall at 8:15 o'clock.

The ninth birthday of Miss Ilona Verne. Batson was observed with a jolly farmyard party Friday at her home. Games were played for several hours and the contest winners were presented with favors in form of farm animals and cunning little sunbonnets were given for prizes. The tea table was also decorated to represent a miniature farmyard and this added much to the jollity of the tea hour. Guests in compliment to little Miss Ilona were Elaine Hart, Lucile Harh, Helen Jean Wilhelm, Shirley Hill, Katherine Hill, Jean Templeton, Marjorie Peterson, Elsie Kook, and Verita Batson. Mrs. Harh and Mrs. Templeton assisted the hostesses.

Announcement of a marriage kept secret a long time here was made Saturday night when the marriage of Miss Rose Dickinson and Lowell O. Cree April 16, 1931, was told. The wedding, which took place at the home of Rev. Len Fishback, pastor of the Christian church at Tillamook, came as a surprise to their many friends here.

Both parties people attended Salem high school Mrs. Cree graduating with the class of '31 and Mr. Cree with the class of '28. Mrs. Cree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dickinson and Mr. Cree is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cree. The young couple will make their home in Salem.

Mrs. Elsie Townsend, Mrs. Christina Cladek, and Mrs. Mary Gossner will be the committee in charge of the card party being planned by local Rebekahs for Monday night at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Girl Reserves Plan Swim

The two junior high school reserve triangles and the senior high school groups will meet at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night at 8 o'clock for an hour of swimming.

The high school cabinet will meet at the Y. M. C. A. at 5 o'clock for a cabinet meeting preceding the swim.

All Girl Reserves are meeting at the First Presbyterian church Thursday night for a release for Mother's day program to be given Sunday at that church.

Saturday about 50 Girl Reserves and friends took the trail with Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher and Miss Virginia Wassam and made a long hike into Polk county. The destination was the M. C. Pettys farm where food was cooked and a delightful time was had with Mrs. Pettys as an informal hostess.

Miss Magna Hansen Bride of Elmer Hansen

Silverton—Miss Magna Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hansen, became the bride of Elmer Hansen of Woodburn at a beautiful little home wedding Thursday night at 6:30 o'clock. The living room and dining room were lovely with a pink and white color scheme, apple blossoms and pink tulips being used as floral decorations.

The bride wore the same wreath in her hair that her mother had worn at her wedding. She was attended by Mrs. A. A. Jacobsen (Jerdin Hansen) and Miss Agnes Nelson. Miss Ardis Aarhus played the wedding march. Accompanying the groom was Thorvald Hansen, a brother of the bride. Rev. C. L. Foss read the single ring ceremony.

Following the wedding a supper was served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hansen, Ardis Aarhus, Mr. and Mrs. Severn Nelson, Miss Agnes Nelson, Mr. A. A. Jacobsen, Misses Ida, Kreta, Bernice and Ruth Hansen, Thervald Hansen, Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Foss, Joanne Foss, Mrs. Tyete.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen left at once for Newport where they will spend a few days before returning to Woodburn where they will make their home.

Mr. Hansen's parents are dead and his only sister was unable to attend. She is in southern California preparing for her own wedding which is to be an event in May.

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Irvine and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams were hosts to their children's teachers at a jolly 7:00 o'clock picnic dinner in the city park Thursday.

A long table was spread under the trees and covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keeney, Miss Oma Belle Emmons, Miss Mignonne Goddard, Miss Mary Donaldson, Miss Vera Johnson, Mrs. Hazel Stalsberg, Miss Dorothy Young, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Addison, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Billy Berry, Marr Marie, Maxine and Keith Williams, Betty and Billy Addison, and Jean Ellen Irvine.

The Salem W. C. T. U. will hear reports of the Woodburn convention held Thursday at the regular hall on South Commercial and Ferry streets. Preparations have been made for a Mother's day program in addition to the reports.

Wagona—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brundidge entertained at dinner recently honoring Mrs. Brundidge's mother, Mrs. Leroy Murdoch. Covers were placed for the honor being Mrs. Leroy Murdoch, Mr. Davis, Grant Loy, Nella and Herbert Brundidge and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brundidge.

Miss Morehouse Is Hostess

Miss Isobel Moorehouse entertained this week end with a party informal bridge party at her home. Tulips made a colorful background for the guests. Miss Florence Marshall held high score for the evening of cards. Refreshments were served at the close of playing.

Guests of Miss Morehouse were Miss Ruth Gillette, Miss Mary Jane Lau, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Vivian Buswell, Miss Dorris Kemp, Miss Dorothy Kemp and Miss Florence Marshall.

Chemawa Will Entertain Society

The First Christian Missionary society will meet at Chemawa for its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon. Miss Gertrude Eakin will be the devotional leader and have charge of the program.

Those assisting Miss Eakin as hostess will be Mrs. W. Clarke, Mrs. L. C. Smith, Mrs. J. R. Simpson, Miss Eula McCully, Miss Constance Cantner and Miss Oda Chapman.

Those going will meet at the church at 2 o'clock and cars will be ready to take them out.

Guild Will Have Special Meeting

The Ladies Guild of the American Lutheran church will have a special meeting in the social rooms of the church parlors Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. Betty Nilsson, a returned missionary from India, will be the speaker.

Those who will act as hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. P. W. Zork, Mrs. Julia Schroeder, and Mrs. John Simon. There will be a musical program in addition to the address.

Mrs. Fred Scott will be hostess for the Leslie Ladies Aid meeting Wednesday. Each member is asked to bring a covered dish and own table service. Mrs. Holder, Mrs. Wheeland, and Mrs. Brooks will assist Mrs. Scott in serving. Cars will leave the church at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Ordway, nee Margaret Millard, are celebrating congratulations upon the arrival of a son. He has been named Richard Clarence and was born Friday, Mrs. E. B. Millard, mother of Mrs. Ordway spent the past week in Portland with her daughter.

Aurora—The recent sunny days are tempting many to motor to the homes of their friends, and enjoy their hospitality for a few hours or a more extended period. Mrs. N. P. Taylor came up from Bend to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Gribble, and were joined by all the members of the Gribble family. A birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Robert Scott and little daughter Bonnie Susan, of Woodburn, Mrs. Teota Tyler of Bend, and Lowell Gribble, a student of Willamette university, was held.

At the Harvey Hinkle home were Mr. and Mrs. Byrn and daughter, Miss Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. John Savidge of Portland.

Mrs. Mildred Robertson-Brooks has received word that Mrs. Russell M. Brooks, her daughter-in-law and wife of the American consul to London, will be presented at the court of St. James in the immediate future. The honor falls according to the years of service of the consul, and this year Mrs. Brooks is one of the ranking consuls.

Two Salem girls, Miss Charlotte Stuttford and Miss Irma Babcock, both members of Kappa Delta sorority, received special honor by being initiated into the Omicron Nu, national honorary home economics society in Oregon state college recently. There were six so honored the other four being Mary Esttram, Elizabeth Fletcher, Emma Jean Stephens, and Eleanor Spike.

Social Season Shows Signs of Vacation Approach

THIS week a few warm, sunny days brought to light the fact that society is taking to the outdoors. Gardens are occupying the attention that has been rated by bridge, and golf is taking the place of everything. Matrons and maids alike are spurning the sport of dull winter days, they are tired of tea table prattle and feel the need of exercise and the joy of watching things grow. So—the gardens are tilled and golf clubs are brought to the fore.

Telephone chats now are about seed packages, and the kind, type and variety of flower or shrub to plant for that corner near the rockery, or by the driveway. Or it may be the starting of the rockery itself, for there are many of them being produced or added to this spring.

Friday has gotten to be the day when the Illibeis and Salem Golf club houses are the mecca for a large number of matrone. Illibeis claimed about 40 women Friday and Salem course called about the same number. Luncheons at 1 o'clock feature both the club meetings, and the Illibeis is making preparations for its spring tournament. Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee is team captain.

Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy, telephone 3914, is chairman for the luncheon next Friday.

Salem club is starting its spring handicup series this Friday. Mrs. A. F. Ritner is team captain for this group.

Other indications that society is getting ready for the vacation season is the closing of club seasons. The Tillicum club closed its dancing season Tuesday with a large dance at Hazelgrove. The Wisteria club has closed its season but gave a past season dance Friday night at the Illibeis clubhouse.

Another event of the week which indicates the time of year was the recital given by Lauren Sykes of Portland at the home of his very good friend, Prof. T. S. Roberts.

Recitals are always a part of the springtime, and while this one was a finished musician's work it was a lovely part of the spring atmosphere, and the approach of music week which opens today. Mr. Sykes is one of the best known organists of Portland where he is organist at the Hinson Memorial church.

His playing Friday night was a delightful reminder of the program he gave two years ago in the Robert's studio. The final beauty of the program was the Gregoriano concerto for which Miss Geraldine Peterson was at the organ and Mr. Sykes at the piano.

A large audience heard this superior concert which was one of the lovely fore-runners of music week. Several encores were demanded.

Members of the Dakota club will meet for a potluck supper and social evening at the W. C. T. U. hall, corner of Ferry and South Commercial street, Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Each family is asked to bring its own table service. There will be a silver medal contest as part of the program offering.

Mrs. Fred R. Dulits has returned to her home after two months spent in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Bickford. Mr. and Mrs. Bickford are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a boy, who has been named Allen Raymond. Mrs. Bickford will be remembered as Marguerite Dulits. Mrs. Dulits also visited her daughters, Mrs. T. C. Hagen and Mrs. Albright.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop will spend Sunday in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bishop. They plan to visit the Portland garden show for a brief time.

Western Writers Chapter Asked

Mrs. Viola Franklin is in receipt of a letter from the League of Western Writers, Inc. from Carl Holliday, international president of the League of Western Writers, asking that a chapter of the league be established in Salem.

To date there are chapters of this group in Victoria, Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma, Santa Rosa, San Francisco and Los Angeles. Chapters are now being formed in Salt Lake City, Provo, Utah, and San Diego.

Monthly meetings would be held, skilled writers would address these meetings, and works of the local writers would be examined and commented upon at various times.

Mr. Holliday points out that the greatest service the league gives is the publicity which it aids in giving to the work of its members. The league also issues news bulletins containing information about the latest published work of members in all chapters.

Plans are now under way for the annual national convention which will be held in the Cliff hotel in San Francisco, August 16, following the Los Angeles Olympiad.

It is expected that a large number of prominent authors, editors and publishers of the world will be in attendance.

There is discussion at present among the Salem literary people as to the advisability of forming a chapter of the league. This it is felt would bring profitable prominence to Salem literary efforts.

There will be no regular meeting of the Enclittis club this Tuesday and the next meeting will be held May 10 at which time the annual Mother-Daughter banquet will be observed. This affair is always attractively elaborated and is given as the Enclittis club's observation of Mother's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dotson and Mrs. Frances Elliott are spending the week end at the home of Mrs. Elliott's sister, Mrs. N. D. McCune of Portland. Mrs. Elliott expects to remain for several weeks.

Mrs. T. L. Elliot of Portland returned to her home Friday after a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Well, and family.

Those present were Mrs. C. S. Thomas, Mrs. A. A. Harms, Mrs. V. W. La Due, Mrs. O. A. Forgard, Mrs. D. Jeager, Mrs. P. H. Ernston, Miss Florence Kleeman and Mrs. J. Brennan.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop motored to Corvallis to attend two sorority teas Saturday, one at the Sigma Kappa sorority complimenting Miss May McIntyre, house mother, and the other at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority home.

Y. W. C. A. Benefit Date Changed

On account of the showing in this city of the circuit on Wednesday, May 11, the Girl Reserve benefit program by the Creative Theatre section of the Salem Arts league, which had been scheduled for that evening in the Salem high school auditorium, has been advanced to Monday night, May 9.

This decision was reached because many who have purchased tickets for the benefit show also desired to attend the circus. Dress rehearsal of the three original one-act plays, "Broth Will Boil Over," "Empty Spaces," and "The Big Shot," will be held in the high school auditorium Thursday evening.

Clifford Gleason, who has charge of the stage decoration and properties, is busy assembling the necessary articles to be used in the productions.

Girl Reserve club committees have been busy on program and advertising and will have an active week ahead.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the three plays and the members of the three casts are working hard to present a careful and finished piece of creative work.

Mrs. Henry Lee presented a group of her students in recital Thursday night assisted by Dalbert Jensen, violinist, and Henry Lee, cellist. Parents were guests for the affair. Refreshments were served following the recital. Students being presented included:

Norma Jean Gilbertson, Barbara Savage, Dorothy and Frances Mott, Barbara Miller, Dorothea Graham, Jeanette Arehart, Janet Fowler, Marg Louise Ritter, Betty Boyle, Maxine Woodfield, Harriett Coons, Barbara Compton, Doris Arubckie, Owena Albrich, Anita Savage, Marjorie Winkender, Barbara Kirk, Iola Luckey and Patsy Lee.

Miss Bertha Babcock was the guest of honor for a pretty birthday party recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Clemens at Hazel Green. An evening of dancing followed the dinner hour.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Something of a sensation, this afternoon frock of printed flat crepe. We can't decide whether the raglan sleeves, the diagonal bodice line or the stunning skirt seamling created the excitement, but everyone raved about the original model. The print was black and white, and the ribbon sash was the new Paton blue. The pert bow may be placed side, front or back, wherever most becoming.

Pattern 2333 is obtainable only in sizes 14 to 20 and 22 to 44. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 4-inch ribbon.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each pattern. Write, plainly your name, address, style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Your summer wardrobe can be planned easily and inspiringly with the assistance of our elegant 32-page fashion catalog. The best of the season's afternoon, house and evening frocks, lingerie, sport dresses and kiddies' models all personally chosen by Anne Adams, are made available through this beautiful book.
