Woodburn High Students Give Music Program

Music week was observed at Woodburn high school Tuesday morning at a special assembly of all students. Milton A. Grapall led the group in singing. Miss Nelma Saylor played the piano accompaniment. Miss Mary Alice Conye gave the history of all the group songs used. Opal Dickey, accompanied by Elizabeth Miller, sang a soprano solo, "Mother March." The boys' quartet, in which are Wesley Ebey, Willis Thurman, Chester Berg and Elmer Froemke, sang "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen."

The four girls, Edith Shrock, Opal Dickey, Helen Woodfin and Zona Schwab, who make up the girls' quartet, sang MacDowell's "Cradle Song." The girls' trio led the assembly in singing "Oregon, Land of the Empire Builders."

WOODBURN, May 5—National Music week was observed at Woodburn high school Tuesday morning at a special assembly of all students. Milton A. Grapall led the group
