

PICNIC TO BE CLUB FINALE

150 Attend Closing Business Session of Group At Swegle

SWEGLE, May 9.—The Swegle community club held its regular meeting Friday night with more than 150 in attendance. This concluded the meetings for the year but a mid-summer picnic is looked forward to with interest. The federation of clubs picnic will also be attended by this club.

E. Thoma, R. A. West and F. McCarthy were appointed to select a place and set a time for the club picnic. Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Imig and Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Welby are to look after the caterers. Albert Kilen, Dana Marshall and W. A. Swingle will provide the games and entertainment.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to the entertainment committee. The chamber of commerce entertainers furnished an hour of interesting talk and delightful singing. Carle Abrams introduced the speakers and gave a general talk. Mrs. Hanna Martin talked on "The Modern Woman," and Otto K. Paulsen talked on "The Mother's Day." The Barlick quartet gave some cleverly arranged harmony singing, the outstanding number being "Bend Down Sister."

CHILDREN'S PARADE PLANNED FOR 14TH

SILVERTON, May 9.—Besides sponsoring the flower and vegetable show for children in September, the Parent-Teacher association will also sponsor a children's parade which will be held Saturday, May 14.

Plans for the parade call for miniature floats made from coasters, decorated bicycles, tri-cycles, peddled automobiles, scooters, doll carriages, costumed marching groups and individuals, original flower costumes, original entries by 4-H clubs, vehicles drawn by pets or featuring pets. Entries will be classified and judged. Awards will be colored ribbons.

Children in the first grade and up to and including the eighth, as well as pre-school children, are invited to take part in the parade.

Those taking part are asked to gather on the school grounds at 3 o'clock Saturday, May 14. The parade starts at 4 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the affair is composed of Miss Hannah Olson, Mrs. H. B. Latham and Mrs. Alf O. Nelson.

BETTY FRONTZ GETS 4-H SCHOLARSHIP

WOODBURN, May 9.—Gold Star mothers in this district, as well as mothers of ex-service men, were honored Friday afternoon at the Woodburn P. O. ceremony in church at a Mother's Day tea given by the women's auxiliary unit of the Woodburn American Legion post. A program of interest was given.

It was announced that Betty Frontz, an outstanding 4-H club worker in the grade school, will be sent to the summer school at Corvallis this summer by the auxiliary. Mrs. A. J. Beck presented the local 4-H club girls who won honors in the county fair, held in Salem.

Miss Mary Scollard awarded prizes to the grade school children who won positions in the Poppy day poster contest, sponsored by the auxiliary. Prize winners in the first division, for seventh and eighth graders were: first, Cecelia Whittier; second, Mary Jo Weishaar; third, Joe Kust; fourth, Floris Nelson; fifth, Rita Surmeyer; honorable mention, Daisy Kiesel and Mary Dooper. Joan Beck won first in the division for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Other places were: second, Anna Kust; third, Gertrude Aicher; fourth, Margaret Garner; fifth, Herman Halter; honorable mention, Caroline Halter, Oreta Long of Hubbard, Emma Halter and Robert Miller.

Corsages were presented to all the mothers present. Gold Star mothers in attendance were Mrs. Louis Melby, Mrs. Nettie Zimmerman, Mrs. Maggie Tedder and Mrs. Lena Unger.

QUIZ BEAR

Senator Frederic Walcott, Republican, of Connecticut (left), is shown in a discussion with Matthew Brush, powerful Wall Street director and supposed to be one of the big "bears," during the Senate investigation of short selling on the stock market. Senator Walcott is responsible for the investigation and is the administration spokesman for the committee.

EVELYN BRONSON'S GRADES HIGHEST

Commencement Exercises For Seniors at Scio Will be Held May 26

SCIO, May 9.—Commencement exercises for the 18 graduates of Scio high school will be held Thursday night, May 26, in the Z. C. J. B. hall. Rev. Rex Dallas, pastor of the Albany Christian church, will deliver the address. Evelyn Bronson, who has the best grade average for her four years in high school, will be class valedictorian. Opal Shilling, who rated second, will be salutatorian.

Due to the fact that there will be no annual published this year, the class decided to have the class history, the class will and the class prophecy read. The seniors who had third, fourth and fifth places in the grade averages, will present these. Marjorie Hoppe, third, will read the history; Ralph Johnston, fourth, the will, and Eleanor Miller, fifth, the prophecy.

Baccalaureate services will be held in the Scio Christian church. Rev. Ralston will preach the sermon. Special music is also being arranged.

The 18 seniors who will graduate are Vera Arnold, Marjorie Hoppe, Rolfe Rainbolt, Ralph

MRS. NURMI

Paavo Nurmi, hailed as one of the greatest runners of all time, didn't feel like doing any of his favorite exercises when this young lady came into his life. Instead, the "Flying Finn" slowed up and allowed Dan Cupid to do his stuff, with the result that this pretty girl is now Mrs. Paavo Nurmi. She is the former Sylvi Paakonnen, the daughter of a mill owner, and holds a position with the State Taxation Board in Turku, Finland.

Johnston, Eleanor Miller, Evelyn Bronson, Opal Shilling, Earl Bartnik, Yoramir Walters, Cyrus Peery, Geraldine Peery, Helen Ronne, Genevieve Sims, Juanita Stepanek, Virginia Blyen, Jean Marin and Rova Jackson.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PROGRAM STARTED

SILVERTON, May 9.—The First Christian church of Silverton opened its 25th anniversary week Sunday morning with a Mother's day program. Mrs. R. L. Wright of Salem and Miss Gueath Milkey of Stayton were the soloists. Sunday night the Christian church congregation joined with the community observance of Mother's day held at the Eugene Field auditorium.

Monday night the Woman's Missionary society, with Mrs. J. A. Bennett, will be in charge of the program. Tuesday night the Rev. E. F. Schwander of Portland, secretary of the state board of Oregon churches, will deliver the sermon. Wednesday night a potluck supper, with the Rev. W. O. Livingstone of Silverton as toastmaster and the congregation of the Scots Mills Christian church as special guests, will be held. The Rev. D. H. Howe of Salem will deliver the sermon.

Thursday night will be Sunday school night with the Rev. Rex Dallas of Albany as the speaker. Friday night the Rev. E. F. Leake of the First Christian church of Portland will have charge of the services.

Sunday, May 15, will be the Homecoming Sunday and at that time the Rev. Albyn Esson, who was pastor of the church when it was built, will be the speaker. The Rev. Mr. Esson is now of Albany.

M'CLENDON SIGNS TEACHING CONTRACT

AUBURN, May 9.—The contract has been signed with L. B. McClendon for the principalship. Mr. McClendon is from West Stayton.

Mrs. Louisa Limbaugh of Salem is at the Ben H. Hawkins home caring for Mrs. Hawkins who has been ill for the past week. She is much improved now and will be up in a few days.

The eighth grade is planning a commencement program for March 13. The members of the graduating class are: Alvin Armstrong, Marie Baumgartner, Floyd Baumgartner, Hillary Etzel, Alma Henne, David Johnston, Helen Jusa, Doris Kearns, Jean Rodgers, Elma Elsmore, June Scouten, Dale Smith.
