Crop Estimates Eyed As Bullish; U. S. Figure Short

CHICAGO, May 10. - (AP) merican wheat, together with broadening of famine advices from parts of Russia, had a strengthening effect on grain vales today.

United States government crop estimates issued after the close were construed as decidedly bullish, 1932 yield of winter wheat forecast, 440,771,000 bushels, being far less than the average private estimates of 463,000,000. Russia bought three new carges of Canadian wheat for imnediate shipments to Vladivostok, making eight cargoes from Canada since Wednesday and three cargoes from Australia. It was estimated 1,500,000 bushels of North American wheat were tak-

Several Cents to $1.40 Hundred

A drop in milk and chicken prices was reported on the local market yesterday. The co-op pool price of milk went down several cents a hundred, to $1.43, while the surplus was quoted at 80 cents and factory at 85 cents. Chickens are down a cent to 12 cents on colored hens; down two cents to 15 cents on springers, and down to 16 cents on colored broilers.

The drop in surplus quotation is due largely to a drop in con-sumption and at the same time increase in production during the last two weeks in April in the
