COSHOW TELLS HIS STORY OF EMPIRE DEALS

Not Aware of Statement in Application That Cash Was Paid for Stock

All Acts in Good Faith he Declares; Will Wind up Testimony Today

DALLAS, May 12.—(Special)—Judge O. P. Coshow, former president of the Empire Holding corporation, was the principal defense witness today in his trial on a charge of devising a scheme to defraud. Coshow was being cross-examined by Barnett Goldstein, special prosecutor, when the court adjourned and will be on the stand again tomorrow morning.

On his direct examination, Judge Coshow told his story of the Empire Holding corporation and his connection with it. He stood up well under a stiff cross-examination by Mr. Goldstein and succeeded in telling his story without getting mixed up in the many traps Goldstein laid for him. Judge Coshow flatly refused to testify as Goldstein wished him to do and did not let the state's attorney put statements in his mouth which he did not wish to make.

Judge Coshow told the story of his life in Oregon, stating that he was nearly 69 years old, and was a native of Oregon. He said that he began the practice of law in Albany and later moved to McMinnville. He went to Roseburg in April 1897 where he practiced law until he was appointed to the supreme bench of the state of Oregon in 1924. Coshow testified that he served nearly seven years in the state supreme court, being defeated in the general election in November, 1930, and leaving the office in January, 1931.

LEWELLING TO GET COMMISSION TODAY

Will Hear Tuition Case, is McMahan's Statement; Others Coming up

L. C. Lewelling, appointed to fill the vacancy of circuit judge for Linn and Marion counties created by the death of Judge Hill, expects to receive his commission today and plans to take the oath of office in Albany and have it placed on record with the secretary of state this weekend in order to be ready to take up his duties Monday morning.

Although the docket of Judge Hill was commendably cleared at the time he became ill yet one or two cases of importance were left and among them was the county high school tuition fund case. In this case Judge Hill had issued a temporary restraining order and until the matter is settled, school budgets will have to wait and impatience is being displayed according to the incoming judge.

Punishment of Kidnapers Now Governor's Aim

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 12.—(AP)—Gov. A. Harry Moore at his home tonight said "every attempt should be made now to find the murderers of the Lindbergh baby."

"This is a great shock to the whole country," the governor said. He disclosed that Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, state police head, had telephoned him shortly after 6 p. m., and given him the news that the body had been found.

Kin of Mother Starting Home

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., May 12.—(AP)—Constance Morrow and Dwight Morrow, Jr., sister and brother of Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, shocked by the news of the finding of the missing Lindbergh baby, left Northampton tonight for the Morrow home in Englewood, N. J.

May 12—3:15 p. m., (E. S. T.) baby found dead near home.

ALLOCATION OF HIGHER SCHOOL COURSES TOLD

Lower Division Work and Teacher Training Same At Both Colleges

Sharp Differentiation Made For Degree Granting; Poster is Issued

Allocation of work in the higher education system of Oregon is announced in a poster issued by the state board of higher education Thursday. The outline has been approved by institution officials. The poster sets out in detail the offerings of the six units of the system at Ashland, Corvallis, Eugene, LaGrande, Monmouth and Portland.

Offerings of the system are segregated into three main divisions, including the degree-granting schools, lower division training and the preparation for teaching.

The degree-granting schools are those at Corvallis, Eugene and Portland. At Corvallis will be degree curricula in agriculture, engineering, mechanical arts, forestry, home economics, pharmacy and science. At Eugene will be business administration, fine arts, journalism, law, school of literature, languages and fine arts, physical education and social sciences.

The school of medicine is located in Portland, while approved work for admission to the medical school is offered at both Corvallis and Eugene. Curricula in nursing education are also offered under the supervision of the medical school.

Lower Division Offerings Similar

Under the classification of lower division, the poster sets out that unspecialized freshman and sophomore work is offered on essentially the same basis at both Eugene and Corvallis. This is intended to provide a broad foundation of general education required by any student. Students undecided as to their later specialty may thus register on either campus, though those who have determined on their major curricula are advised to start where the school of their choice is located.

His Smile Will Not Return to Brighten up Lindbergh's Home

Eight pictures of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., whose body was found yesterday after the kidnaped child had been the object of a search for more than two months. The pictures were taken from a movie film of the infant made a few months ago, and were released by Col. Lindbergh in the hope they might aid in the search.

ORGANIZATION SAID NORTHWEST'S NEED

Oregon not Spending Enough On Advertising, States Mrs. Carlton Smith

"The west and the northwest are not organized. We have the playground of the world here in the northwest. What we ought to do here is to build railroads up to Mt. Jefferson and up to Mt. Hood so people can come up here for our winter and summer sports," Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, state legislator (Turn to page 2, col. 6)

IDENTIFICATION OF BODY IS DEFINITE

Betty Gow, Nurse, Certain It's Child she Tended; Physician Agrees

TRENTON, N. J., May 12.—(AP)—Betty Gow, nursemaid to the kidnaped Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., tonight identified the body found in the woods near Hopewell as that of the famous child.

Brought to Trenton by state police, she viewed the body at the (Turn to page 3, col. 3)

MOTHER BEARS NEWS BRAVELY; LINDY RETURNS

Car Believed Bringing him And Curtis Arrives at Hopewell Estate

Notified of Discovery as Search was Going on Near Jersey Coast

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 13.—(Friday)—(AP)—An automobile believed to have been occupied by Colonel Charles Lindbergh, John Hughes Curtis and Edwin B. Bruce of Elmira, N. Y., a friend of Mr. Curtis, entered the flier's estate early today.

No official confirmation of Colonel Lindbergh's arrival could be obtained and it was understood the police would make public no further information for six or seven hours more.

NORFOLK, Va., May 12.—(AP)—It was learned tonight that John Hughes Curtis communicated by telephone with his home tonight to say that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and he had learned of the discovery of the body of the child. It was stated that the two were together at the time near the New Jersey coast where they had been seeking the recovery of the child through negotiations.

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 12.—(AP)—An intimate friend who visited Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh late today described her as bearing up with her "usual equanimity," upon hearing that her kidnaped son had been found dead.

The friend, whose name was withheld, has been a frequent caller at the flier's since the kidnaping. From the outset Mrs. Lindbergh's courageous demeanor has served to maintain the composure of those about her.

On the day following the kidnaping, Mrs. Lindbergh quietly and quickly prepared and made public a diet which was widely circulated in the hope it might be followed by the kidnapers of her son.

Mrs. Lindbergh, who is expecting a child within several months, has had her mother, Mrs. Dwight Morrow, as her constant companion.

TO MAKE KIDNAPING PUNISHMENT DEATH

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Determination that kidnapers of the future shall be forced to cope with relentless federal laws echoed through congress today as highest officialdom expressed the nation's grief at the Lindbergh tragedy.

President and Mrs. Hoover were among the first in the city to have the sorrowful news that the baby had been found dead relayed to them, and aides of the chief executive immediately communicated with New Jersey for full official information.

In both houses of congress, meanwhile, it was forecast that federal anti-kidnaping laws soon would be passed.

Representative Cochran (D. Mo.), author of a bill to make transporting of abducted persons across state lines a capital offense, said there was no doubt but that his bill would be speedily approved.

He explained that the house judiciary committee, before which the bill is pending, had been completely cooperative at all times but had mutually agreed that it would be better not to press the legislation until the Lindbergh case was closed.

Meier, Holman Fail to Attend Board Meeting

Thursday's monthly meeting of the state board of control, postponed from last week, was not held because of the absence of Governor Meier and Rufus C. Holman, state treasurer, who were in Portland.

In lieu of transacting the usual business of the board there was a conference of institution heads with the secretary of the board. This had to do with the adoption of some improved plan of submitting monthly reports.

MARKS OF BLOWS ON HEAD REVEAL CHILD MURDERED

Evidence Indicates Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., Killed on Night he was Kidnaped; Body Found in Patch of Woods Less Than Five Miles From Home; Identification Made By Nurse, Miss Betty Gow

Forces of law, Restrained Previously by Fear Lest They Hamper Infant's Recovery, now Plan Energetic Moves To Fix Quilt; "Jafsie" and Curtis, Go-Betweens, to Be Questioned; Secrecy lid off

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 12.—(AP)—Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf early today stated that Dr. John F. Condon and John Hughes Curtis, Lindbergh intermediaries, "are being questioned now and will be questioned later in the day by the prosecutor. They are not under arrest."

HOPEWELL, N. J., May 12.—The stolen baby son of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was found dead today in the stubby Sourland hills of New Jersey. The child had been murdered.

Blows on the head, inflicted probably on the same March night he was kidnaped from the home of his famous father, caused the infant's death.

The body, lying face down in a depression and partly covered by leaves and windblown debris, was discovered by a negro truckman in a patch of woods less than five miles from the Lindbergh estate.

The baby had been struck once on the top of the head on the left side and once on the right below the ear, either blow so violently delivered that it would have caused instant death.

High Points Given, Lindy Case Climax

(By the Associated Press)
The body of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., was found 72 days after he was stolen from his crib in the Lindbergh home near Hopewell, N. J., under the following circumstances:

Time of discovery—3:15 p. m. yesterday.

Place of discovery—On Mount Rose Hill, about five miles from the Lindbergh estate, in a clump of woods.

Finders—Orville Wilson and William Allen, a negro.

Condition of body—Badly decomposed with a small hole in the skull.

Cause of death—Compound fracture of the skull—no bullet wound.

Manner of identification—By undershirt, flannel band and other undisclosed means.

How announced—By Governor Harry A. Moore to the Associated Press correspondent in Trenton, F. A. Jamieson.

Reaction on family—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Mrs. Lindbergh seclude themselves; others express grief.

Whether the child had been killed with calculating purpose by criminals who found it advantageous to them to get rid of the infant or whether he had been struck and thrown from a fast-moving automobile by panic-stricken abductors was a matter of conjecture.

The state's law enforcement agencies spring to the task of trapping the kidnapers with renewed vigor, Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, state police head, announcing that he already had a gang under suspicion and Governor A. Harry Moore contributing the statement that "Every attempt should be made now to find the murderers of the Lindbergh baby."

"Jafsie" and Curtis Are Summoned
Significance was attached to a hurried telephone call which summoned County Prosecutor Irwin E. Marshall to the Lindbergh home for a conference late tonight.

Several hours later Colonel Schwarzkopf announced that John F. Condon of New York and John Hughes Curtis of Norfolk, Va., "will be at these headquarters in a few minutes for questioning in connection with this case and they will be turned over by the police authorities at this point to the prosecuting authorities."

Both men were intermediaries in the attempt to obtain the return of the kidnaped baby. Although Schwarzkopf did not hint here today, police reported.

TWO TAKE OWN LIVES

PORTLAND, Ore., May 12.—(AP)—Morton E. Insley, 37, and James P. Lean, 55, both of Portland committed suicide by shooting here today, police reported.
