

MRS. STACEY HEAD OF WOMEN'S CLUB

LIBERTY, May 12—The last meeting of the Women's club was held Tuesday at the Zosel home. Reports of standing committees on the year's activities were made as well as reports by the delegates to the county federation meet. Mrs. Stacey announced that the empty fruit jars from the children's farm home would soon be sent to her home and be available during the summer. Each member is to fill five jars.

Several measures were voted, one to obtain tree markers for the trees planted by the club on the school grounds. The sum $15 is to be presented to Miss Orpha Dasch, who acted as leader for a 4-H cooking club, to be used to attend the 4-H summer session at O. S. C. is possible. The club also voted to start a scholarship loan fund and put $15 at interest as a beginning.

Mrs. C. W. Stacey was reelected president for the coming year; Mrs. Harold Lane reelected secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Charles Ruggies was elected vice-president.

Following the business the program was presented which consisted of a song by Orpha Dasch; the county prize-winning reading by Wilma Sargent; several vocal numbers by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, accompanied by Mrs. Ted Gordon.

A quartet of boys from the school sang and another group of youngsters, Bobby Dasch, Mary Copley, Bruce Gordon and Ruth Davis, presented a pageant directed by Miss Janette Dasch.
