Eighth Grades Hold Program for Sixth Year at Grand Island

GRAND ISLAND, May 17.—Joint eighth grade graduation exercises were held Saturday night, May 14, in the United Brethren church at Hopewell. County School Superintendent S. S. Duncan gave an interesting address. The program included: processional, Claire Wagner, instructor in the Fairview school; invocation, Rev. Samuel Long; song, Dayton high school girls quartet; selections by the orchestra; reading, "Laddie," Marcel Reaves; male quartet, Lynn Gubser, Roy Warren, Ed Grabenhorst, Rex Peffer; address, S. S. Duncan; solo, Winifred McKinney; presentation of diplomas by S. S. Duncan.

The eight schools included in the program were Lone Star, Hopewell, Wheatland, Fairview No. 25, Unionvale, Grand Island, Phasandale and Webfoot. There were 22 members in the class with only two, Josephine Irish and Melvin Penrose, of whom were from the Grand Island district. This is the sixth consecutive year that the schools have united for graduation.

The Dayton high school won second place in the Yamhill county tennis tournament held Saturday at McMinnville on the Linfield college campus. The girls won first place in both the singles and doubles. Their representatives were Annabelle Nelson for singles and Lenora Hessler for doubles. Second place was given to the boys doubles, played by Donald Dresselhouse and Dick Rockhill.

DEDICATION EVENT IS GREAT SUCCESS

George Hauptman Funeral is Held at Gervais; Burial at Portland

GERVAIS, May 17.—The dedication of the new city hall and auditorium Saturday afternoon and night is pronounced a grand success. The crowd was large and from all indications everyone had a very enjoyable time. A track meet opened the program. In the baseball game between St. Paul and Gervais, Gervais won by a score of 12 to 2. One hundred and fifty were seated at the tables when supper was announced and later comers brought the number served up to over 300. At eight o'clock, Rev. H. L. Grafton of the Presbyterian church delivered the dedicatory address. Dr. P. C. Riley of Hubbard made the main address of the evening. A musical program was given and at nine to 12 dancing was enjoyed by 200 couples. The attendance is estimated at between 500 and 600.

Funeral services for George Hauptman, 32, who died Sunday afternoon of pulmonary tuberculosis, were held from the Sacred Heart church Tuesday morning. Rev. Father William S. Walsh officiated and burial was at Rose City Park cemetery in Portland.

Miss Gertrude Weiss and Mrs. Helena Estudillo were hostesses for a two table 500 party at the home of Miss Weiss Monday night. Prizes for high scores went to Mrs. J. A. Ferschweiler and James D. Brehaut. Lunch was served after the game to Mr. and Mrs. Brehaut, Mr. and Mrs. Ferschweiler, Mr. and Mrs. I. V. McAdoo and the hostesses, Miss Weiss and Mrs. Estudillo.
