Pattern

Put youth in your frocks with wisely selected prints, but be sure they are styled especially with your figure in mind. This model was and the results are most gratifying. Every seam was placed with a view to slenderizing, and the graceful line ends created to hide bust fullness. There is no belt to accent waist width, and the hips are snugly fitted. Lovely in voile, georgette, flat crepe or lawn.

Pattern 2246 is obtainable only in sizes 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50. Size 38 requires 3-8 yards of 35-inch fabric, 1-8 yard of 8-inch lace.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (coin preferred) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state the wanted.

Your summer wardrobe can be planned easily and inexpensively with the assistance of our recent 32-page fashion catalog. NEW SHREDDED BISCUIT EXTRA RICH IN VITAL FOOD ELEMENTS

Laboratory Certifies the Improved Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit

Before the new Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit was introduced, the Kellogg Company submitted it to the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia, which found it so rich in food value that every package could be certified.

This means that mothers can now know definitely that their children are getting a well-balanced and nourishing diet when they eat the new Kellogg's biscuits and milk—rich in minerals, vitamins, proteins—nourishing and healthful.

And Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits offer many other features. The biscuits are "pressure-cooked" by a special process that makes them so deliciously tender. At the same time, it retains all the valuable food elements of the whole wheat.

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are crispier and tastier because they are toasted a tempting brown on both top and bottom—not just one side. They are baked in a more convenient, economical pan. Two biscuits just fit the cereal bowl and you get 15 to the package.

Naturally this tasty new biscuit is welcome for breakfast, lunch, children's suppers—any meal, in fact. Ready to serve with hot or cold milk or cream. Sold by grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Under the Dome...

WILLIS C. HAWLEY, for representative in congress, and Frederick Stelwer, for United States senator, will carry Douglas county by large pluralities at the primary election next Friday, Senator B. L. Eddy of Roseburg predicted while here yesterday. Eddy declared that Hawley and Stelwer played both an important part in obtaining the new federal soldiers home for Roseburg. Senator Eddy spent yesterday in Salem attending a meeting of the state hydro-electro commission.

Miss Esther Hansen, popular secretary for J. M. Devers, attorney for the state highway commission, for more than six years, will be married May 28, it was announced at Dever's office today. Miss Hansen already has resigned her position, and left for Eugene yesterday. Her parents reside there. Prior to accepting the position of secretary to Mr. Devers, Miss Hansen was employed in other state capacities.

A. H. Averill, state insurance commissioner, Friday will leave a hospital here, where he has spent the past two months receiving treatment for fractures of the knees. Mr. Averill was run down and seriously injured by an automobile in the business district. Physicians said it probably would be several weeks before he will be able to return to his desk.

Every person is presumed to have a hobby, and some have two. "Bill" Moore, general employee of the state department, is one of the latter. His favorite pastimes include feeding the squirrels on the statehouse grounds, and placing flowers on the desks in the secretary of state's office. None of the squirrels will suffer from hunger as long as "Bill" is on the state payroll.

With the arrival of warm weather, many women employes at the statehouse are now wearing fur. This is a peculiar old-world. Low neck dresses in the winter and furs in the summer. Speaking of extremes, Lieutenant Walter Lansing of the state police department reported yesterday that he already has noticed several of the latest abbreviated bathing suits at the beach resorts.

When anyone at the statehouse desires to gain any information regarding bonds or stocks he goes to Fred Paulus, deputy state treasurer. Paulus has the market pages of the metropolitan newspapers daily, and keeps posted on the fluctuations of the more stable bond offerings. One of Paulus' outstanding jobs is to purchase gilt edge bonds for the state.

Delays in approving expense accounts of state officials and state employes has resulted in considerable expense being heaped upon W. W. Ridehalgh, special investigator for the state treasury department. One official reported yesterday that his expense account had been held up for two weeks, while his bank account was in the red.

IMPROVEMENTS AT AUTO CAMP NOTED

While few tourists are appearing at the municipal auto camp, South Winter and Oak street, those who are patronizing it are finding many improvements over last year. Chief of these is the installation of gas burners for cooking. The city council this year authorized this expenditure, since many tourists refused to use the wood cookstoves.

Superintendent H. S. Polal and his assistant, J. M. Baker, working most of the winter, celled and repainted the 12 cabins. With the clean walls and new linoleum rugs, the cabins have been given an attractive appearance inside.

In line with his program during the six years he has been superintendent, Mr. Polal this year is planning to set in more shrubs about the camp grounds. An average of five families a day are staying at the municipal camp.

C. V. Bernhard, regular contributor of this column, left for San Francisco Sunday, where he and Mrs. Bernhard are enjoying a week's outing at the expense of the federal court. Bernhard was summoned to San Francisco as a witness in a suit involving a Coos Bay property.

Al Nye, veteran mail carrier at the statehouse, is enjoying his annual vacation. He will make a number of short trips to beach resorts and the mountains. Nye has been employed in state capacities for more than 25 years. His first job was that of messenger in the department of state.

Riding a motorcycle instead of driving an automobile is one of the latest disciplinary measures adopted by Charles P. Pray, superintendent of state police. Under the new ruling, a state police officer who violates the rules of the department is assigned to a motorcycle until such time as the superintendent feels that he has been sufficiently punished. Pray said that sort of discipline has proved effective.

One of the busiest state departments, which receives the smallest amount of publicity, is the office of state superintendent of banks. A. A. Schramm is in charge. This is not due to Mr. Schramm's refusal to converse with newspaper reporters, but is in line with state and federal laws which prevent comment on various angles of the banking business.
