

EIGHTH GRADE PROGRAM 24TH

Outside Schools to Join With Stayton for Annual Graduation

STAYTON, May 19.—The eighth grade graduation exercises will be held at the school auditorium, Tuesday at 8 p. m. There will be the usual processional, followed by reading of the class history and class will. The class representative, June Keyes will give as her talk, "Why I am Going to High School." The entire class will join in singing the class song, the words of which were written by Eunice Jordan, who in company with Clarice Tobie wrote the class prophecy.

There will be musical numbers by Vera Burmester, Hortense Stayton and Clarice Tobie. The class motto is "Tint your own sky", and their colors are pink and white.

Members of the class are: Lucille M. Pugh, Juneta M. Keyes, Kathryn P. Blades, Vera I. Burmester, Eldon Fredia, Francell I. Carter, Rose M. Bricker, Hortense Stayton, Paul D. Calbreath, Maurice Heater, Walter Peiham, Eunice Jordan and Clarice Tobie.

Pupils from outside school who will come here for their diplomas are: Reba Stead and Ivan Nash, Fox Valley; Ruth Moe and Arne Landers, Mehama; and Rex Kinsey and Gladys Blum, Howell. Grant Murphy, chairman of the school board and Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county school superintendent, will deliver the address of the evening.

Grade Trip Planned

Theo J. Norby, principal of the grade schools is planning to take the boys of the fifth to eighth grades on a trip into the woods near Mehama. They plan to leave Stayton about 5 a. m., Saturday morning and expect to be back by 6 p. m. Sunday.

Each boy has been given a list of the things he is to take in the way of bedding, food, utensils, etc. Each boy who makes the trip goes with the understanding that he is under the supervision of Mr. Norby who states that firearms and fishing tackle must not be taken along.

The boys will be divided into squads, each with a supervisor. There will be various contests between these squads. These contests will take in cooking, neatness of camp, establishment of camp and various phases of camp life.

Boys who have been given the written permission of their parents to make the trip are: Carl Kreitzer, Eldred Huntley, Robert Kallam, Alvin Schmitt, Aaron Steele, Frank Tobie, Hugh Barry, Joe Neimeyer, Wallace and Harold Wright, Fred Davenport, Harry Stupka, Dale Champ, Joe and Paul Calbreath, Edwin Hayworth, Earl and Leo Humphreys, Perry Shelton, Roland Darby, Gerald and Ellis Christensen, Leon Jordan, Dick Callivan, Bencie Carlin, Gordon Kendrick, Max Stayton, Bill Sullens, Stubby Berger, Weldon Freidel, Viril Shelton and Montie Morris.

Needless to say the boys are earnestly hoping that the weather will be fine.

Zimmerman Starts Two-Year Journey To Eastern Points

HAYESVILLE, May 19.—A. E. Zimmerman, who has been a local resident for a great many years, left Monday on an extended trip through various points in the United States which will take him away from home about two years. On the coast he will visit in Portland and Long Beach, Calif., then going to visit a sister in Kansas and from there to his old boyhood home at Ft. Madison, Iowa. He is anticipating great changes there, as he has not been back for 50 years.

He will take a boat to Pittsburgh, Pa., then on to visit a daughter at Berlin, Pa.

Mr. Zimmerman has rented his house to Arthur Johnson. His open land is rented to J. Lengren and his fruit orchards to Charles Andresen.

SPEND DAY AT COAST

ZENA, May 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Barker and son Sam, S. H. Barker, all of Zena and Marjorie Matthews of North Spring Valley, spent Sunday at Pacific City where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beals. They reported that the weather was pleasant with some wind.

S. S. CLUB ON PICNIC

LIBERTY, May 19.—The Sips for Supper with cooking club comprising the division 1 cookery went on a picnic Tuesday afternoon in the Keyes woods near the Pacific highway. The Misses Orpha and Jannette Dasch accompanied the children.

Two Doses Stop Cough Or No Cost

No argument—money back if two doses of Broncholine Emulsion don't give you INSTANT, unmistakable relief. Perry's Drug Store and all other good druggists guarantee it. Contains no chloroform nor other narcotics, and no sweet stuff. Not habit-forming. Won't upset your stomach. Smells worse than it tastes. But if you are coughing yourself to pieces, what do you care what it smells like? INSTANT RELIEF is what you want—and what you get with Broncholine. Adv.

SMILES ARE IN ORDER NOW

Mrs. Charles Bell (left) and Major Granville Fortescue, mother and husband of Mrs. Granville Fortescue, one of the principals in the recent "honor slaying" case at Honolulu, are shown as they were greeted at New York on their arrival from Chicago by Helen Fortescue, daughter of the accused society matron. Mrs. Bell and Major Fortescue plan a consultation with officials at Washington, D. C., with a view to having the one-hour prison sentence imposed upon the four Honolulu defendants stricken from the records.

Commissioner, Sheriff Races in Polk County To Poll Heavy Ballots

DALLAS, May 19.—As Polk county's voters line up at the polls Friday, the heaviest balloting combat is expected in the offices of county commissioner and sheriff. Five republicans seek nomination for sheriff and two democrats are in the contest also. For county commissioner, a trio of democrats and two republicans seek the job.

Two republicans, George W. Denman and Claude Buchanan, both of Benton county, are out for the nomination as senator for the ninth senatorial district, Benton and Polk counties, to fill an unexpired term ending January 7, 1935. J. N. McFadden, also of Benton county, is seeking the nomination for this office on the democratic ticket.

Two men and a woman are candidates for the republican nomination for representative for the 10th representative district, Polk county. Dean H. Walker of Independence, Stella J. Henry of Zena, and W. J. Stockholm of Monmouth are the republican candidates. Groves A. Peterson of Independence is the only candidate for the democratic nomination.

County officials will show the greatest signs of battle in the primary election. The five republicans seeking the nomination for sheriff are H. S. Zimmerman, marshal at Falls City; Wiley A. Carpenter, Dallas; Ezra E. Hart, former county commissioner residing at Rickreall; T. Grover McDonald, Dallas, former guard at the state penitentiary; and T. B. Hooker, Dallas, present sheriff and connected with the sheriff's office as a deputy and as sheriff for 18 years. C. E. Stewart of Monmouth and Robert H. Walker of Rickreall are the democratic candidates for nomination as sheriff.

C. C. Gardner, present county commissioner and holder of that office for eight years; Elbert L. Parrish, farmer near Dallas, and George M. Kurze, master of the Monmouth grange, are the candidates for the democratic nomination for county commissioner. G. W. Curtis of Salt Creek and Harrison H. Brant of Independence are seeking this office on the republican ticket.

Hugh Black, Dallas, county clerk for the past eight years, is the only democratic candidate for the county clerk's office. Opposed to Black are J. G. McIntosh, justice of the peace at Independence and Carl S. Graves, former county assessor, who are running for nomination on the republican ticket.

Ernest A. Hamilton, Rickreall, county treasurer for the past eight years; W. R. Ellis, Dallas, and W. R. Howe, Dallas, are candidates for the republican

BRUSH COLLEGE AND AIRLIE WIN HONORS

Betty Jean Davis and Corydon Blodgett Present Best Orations

DALLAS, May 19.—Seventeen grade school students entered the Polk county grade school declamatory contest which was held here Tuesday night. Divisions 1 and 2, consisting of the first, second, fifth and sixth grades, held their contest here and divisions 3 and 4, the third, fourth, seventh and eighth grades, competed at West Salem Thursday night.

Josiah Willis, Polk county school superintendent, presided at the contest. Judges were Miss Addie Martin, Miss Ethel Jackson and Miss Laree Johnson.

In division 1, first and second grades, Betty Jean Davis of Airlie took first prize with "Uncle William Calls." Second and third places went to Alice Robbins, Pioneer, who recited "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," and Myrtle Meier of Brush College, who recited "The Movies."

Corydon Blodgett of Brush College took first prize for division 3 with his recitation of "Overworked Bloodhound." Joe McGee of McTimmonds Valley took second and Elva Lindeman of Monmouth took third. Both of these gave "And So Was I."

BRUSH COLLEGE, May 19.—This is the third year Corydon Blodgett has competed in the contests and he has the enviable record of having won first place each year.

TRIO NEW FACULTY MEMBERS ELECTED

SALEM HEIGHTS, May 19.—The Salem Heights school board met at the school house Wednesday at 4:30 p. m. and elected the following teachers to fill the three vacancies occurring due to the board's decision to employ only unmarried teachers for the coming year:

First and second grades, Miss Hylda Foster; third and fourth grades, Miss Wanda Phillips; fifth and sixth grades, Miss Dorothy Dutton, Cecile Wiegand, principal was re-elected. C. N. Jones was retained as janitor. The board was unanimous in its selection of the staff for 1933.

RETURNS FROM KIDNAP HUNT

Although literally besieged by reporters, Major Charles H. Schoeffel of the New Jersey State Police maintained his "tower of silence" attitude regarding the Lindbergh kidnaping case when he returned to New York on the S. S. Columbus. Major Schoeffel has been in Europe on a mysterious mission in connection with the case. He is shown (center, in profile) telling the scribes he had nothing to say.

George Abel, 59, Dies; Funeral is Not Yet Arranged

SILVERTON, May 19.—George Abel, 59, died at his home on Grant street early Thursday morning. Funeral arrangements have not been completed but will likely be held from St. Paul's chapel Monday morning. Arrangements are in charge of Larson & Son.

CLOSING PROGRAM IS GREAT SUCCESS

Labish Center Pupils Close Texts; Health Heralds Are Announced

LABISH CENTER, May 19.—A full house greeted the closing day program Monday night at the schoolhouse, which featured two plays, one by the lower grades based on a Greek myth, and the other "The Revolt," by eight young women.

"The Revolt" is staged in Grandma Gregg's school where the proper treatment of husbands is taught. Duets, readings and choruses were also included in the program, following which diplomas were presented to the eight eighth graders by O. G. McClaughray.

A ball game and a picnic supper preceded the program, and Mrs. Waters together with a group of Salem War Mothers and representatives of other patriotic organizations presented a short service in behalf of Memorial day.

Aurora School Seeks To Avoid Foreclosure

AURORA, May 19.—Ben W. Olcott, receiver for the Willamette Valley Mortgage and Loan company, was approached by the school board and school clerk Monday at Portland in an effort to secure property upon which the school district holds a mortgage without the expense of taking it through court and going through foreclosure proceedings. The board states there is a possibility a way may be worked out to accomplish this end.
