Engagements Made Known At Pretty Weekend Events

JUNE, the month of brides, is close at hand, and to its influence is perhaps due the many attractive announcement parties of this past month. Although in most instances the date for weddings is far distant in plans yet interest is high and the parties are lovely accessories to the month of romance which next year may claim for brides those announcing this spring.

Two attractive announcement parties have been events of this weekend. Mrs. M. C. Hemenway entertained with a delightfully colorful and informal luncheon and followed this with an afternoon of bridge at the Hemenway home Saturday afternoon complimenting her daughter, Miss Ellen Hemenway, popular member of one of the active younger crowds.

In the course of the luncheon they rosebud and tucked away in the folds of the petals was a tiny scroll bearing the announcement of the betrothal of Miss Hemenway to Edward Roth, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Roth of Salem.

The announcement quite took the guests by surprise and added interest to the luncheon. No plans are ready to announce for the wedding. The announcement was made earlier than had been planned because of the fact that Miss Hemenway will leave for Portland this coming week end with her parents, there to make her home.

Both Miss Hemenway and Mr. Roth attended Salem schools. Miss Hemenway also attended Oregon State college, where she was affiliated with Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Mrs. Hemenway was assisted at the luncheon hour by Mrs. Harry Belt. Covers were placed for Miss Ruthita Hoffnell, Miss Virginia Newland, Miss Kathryn Corey, Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Myra Belt, Miss Josephine McGillchrist, Miss Iris Jorgensen, Miss Marie Bone, Miss Frances Huston, Miss Margaret Bell, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Dorothy White, Mrs. Marvin Roth and Miss Hemenway.

Mrs. E. J. Roth called later in the afternoon for bridge at the home of Mrs. Ruthita Hoffnell held winning scores for the afternoon.

A second announcement of the week end was that of Miss Benedita Edwards, who announced her engagement to Roy Harland at an attractive dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Edwards, on State street. Mrs. Edwards was hostess for this announcement dinner.

Dinner was served at small tables each centered with a French bouquet arrangement and flanked with tapers in pink and green held in crystal holders. Table accessories were also in pink and green with green table service.

Small individual courses of Cecile Brunner were marked places for Miss Harriett Adams, Miss Edith Findley, Miss Gertrude Oehler, Miss Bertha Backcock, Miss Jean Middleton, Miss Carolyn Braden, Miss Lulu Allen, Miss Helen Hanke, Miss Helen Stiles, Miss Hazel Chaney, Miss Margaret Warnke, Miss Edythe Galayer, Miss Bernice Rickman, Miss Mildred Miller, Miss Joan Evans, Miss Dorothy Eastridge, Miss Elizabeth Clement, Miss Marion Everts, Miss Viola Crozer, Miss Beniah Cramer, Miss Bess Brown, Miss Maxine Ulrich, Miss Irma Sawyer and for Miss Edwards.

Mrs. Edwards was assisted in serving by Miss Mary Eyre and her home.

Young Musicians Attract Attention

Salem has a group of promising youthful musicians in which much interest is being shown.

One such young musician Earle Vining Potter, lyric tenor, will be presented Tuesday night at Roberts Studio at 8:15 o'clock. Young Potter is a senior in Salem high school. He has won several enviable honors in voice up to the present time. He placed first in the Salem Atwater Kent audition, second in solo work in the Forest Grove music tournament last year, and sang first tenor in the boys' quartet that placed first in the Forest Grove music tournament this year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Potter of Salem.

He will be accompanied by Miss Eva Cochran, a prominent youthful accompanist of Salem.

The musical is invitational and any one desiring to come may make arrangements by calling Miss Lena Belle Tartar, teacher of the soloist.

The program to be presented includes:

- I. Arias by George Fredric Handel (1685-1759): Would You Gain The Tender Creature, "Acis and Galatea" Where'er You Walk, "Semele"
- II. Old English Ballads: Folk Song Collected and Arranged by Cecil Sharp O. No. John! Arranged by Petty Polly Oliver (17th Century)
- III. Arranged by Granville Bantock Passing By (Purcell 1689-1740)
- IV. Arranged by William Arms Fisher Irish Air, "Coolish Shore" My Love's An Arbutus
- V. Arranged by Charles Stanford Songs by Franz Peter Schubert (1797-1828): Hedge-Roses (Heiden-Roslein) Poem by Goethe (1749-1832) Who is Sylvia? "Two Gentlemen of Verona" Shakspeare (1564-1616) Songs by Robert Frank (1815-1892): Es Hat Die Rose Sich Beklagt The Rose Complained Fur Musik For Music Aus Meinen Grossen Schmerzen Out of My Deepest Sadness

A Page's Road Song...Novello The Night Wind...Farley

A second youthful musician of whom much is being said is now in Emory Hobson, who played a Chopin program Tuesday night at the residence studio of Prof. and Mrs. Roberts. About 150 people were present for this, mostly people who have been watching the work of the young artist for several years.

Commendation was very high for the genuine musical insight and sympathetic interpretation given by the young musician. Excellent technique handled with ease and brilliancy marked the excellently balanced program of Chopin numbers.

Compliments were also given by the young musician.

Each year the seniors of the home economics class of Willamette university entertain with formal dinner as part of their graduating work.

Friday night Miss Eastridge entertained with such a dinner at the Eastridge home. Spring flowers and green tapers in crystal holders centered the table where covers were placed for Miss Lois Laitimer, Mrs. Elmer Eastridge, Miss Lulu Allen, Cecil Harmon, Charles Ladd and the hostess.

An informal evening was enjoyed following the dinner hour.

A group of young women from various chambers of commerce over the state and from A. A. U. W. offices will meet in Hebo this weekend and were taken for a sight seeing tour of the Tillamook county by the Tillamook chamber of commerce. Miss Leota Jones and Miss Lydia Grant of Salem were among those to attend.

Mrs. George Moorhead entertained with a family dinner for Mrs. G. R. Moorhead who has just returned from a visit in Washington state. Guests were Mrs. G. R. Moorhead, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandervort, Miss Esther McMinnimee, Warren McMinnimee, Van Bruce Moorhead, Virgil Moorhead and Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead.

Work on poppies for the annual "Popy" day sale which is sponsored each year by the American Legion auxiliary will be begun Monday at the home of Mrs. Elbert Bradford, 1576 Broadway street, at 1:30 o'clock. Stickers will be placed on the small poppies and large poppies will be made.

Mrs. Grant Day was complimented with an informal tea and handkerchief shower at the E. B. Millard home Thursday, with Mrs. Millard and Mrs. J. D. Foley as hostesses. Mrs. Day and daughter, Miss Phyllis Day will this weekend leave for a visit of several months.

Mrs. E. J. Maak entertained the members of the South Circle of the First Christian church at her home Wednesday for an all-day meeting. Luncheon was served at noon, and sewing and conversation were enjoyed during the informal meeting.

Mrs. George Rhoten entertained the Parent Education study group at the A. A. U. W. at her home Friday afternoon. The next meeting will be concerning the recreational needs of children.

Monday afternoon Mrs. William Walton will be hostess for members of her contract bridge club.

Conventions 'Garden Days' Lure Many Matrons Are to be Observed

CONVENTIONS held the center of the stage for club women of Oregon this weekend and for the coming week.

The state convention of Business and Professional Women has been in session at Klamath Falls and will close today. Reports from that city tell of the election Saturday of Mrs. Edith Falbe of Roseburg, president of the state organization.

Salem rated particularly well in state officer representation with Mrs. B. Herrick, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Madeline Callin all being placed in office.

The list of officers include: Miss Ada Albert, Portland, first vice-president; Miss Ellen Rudnas, Marshfield, second vice-president; Mrs. Stella Spencer, Roseburg, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Zola F. Morgan, Hillsboro, recording secretary; Mrs. Winnifred R. Herrick, Salem, treasurer. Directors: Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Salem; Miss Arville Kreizer, The Dalles; Dr. Olive McKay, Grants Pass; Mrs. Florence Dreher, Klamath Falls; Miss Agnes Brown, Pendleton; Miss Faith Kimball, Monmouth; Miss Madeline Callin, Salem; Miss Helen Curran, Heppner; Mrs. Mae Waker, Portland, was elected director of music and arts for the state.

The Doerflers have 500 feet of rockery to display this year and 4000 square feet of landscaped garden. Guests will be received all day at the Doerfler gardens. To reach them drive 7 miles east on the Penitentiary road and one-half mile east on the Pratum-Macleay road.

Monday executive committee meetings will be held in Portland by the executive board of the state P. E. O. organization. The regular state convention will open Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Zora Knighton, supreme president of the national organization, will be present from her Oklahoma home, for this convention.

Officers will be elected Thursday. Another matter of interest for business consideration will be the manner of allotting delegates to the supreme convention.

A second convention which will attract the attention of many Salem women will be the state Federation of Women's clubs which will convene in Portland Wednesday and continue through three days of meeting.

The sessions will be held in the Multnomah hotel. It is anticipated that this session will be a very intense one with much to be accomplished.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Bennett of Labish Center gave a lawn-party honoring the ninth birthday anniversary of their son, Gerald. Games and songs were enjoyed by the young guests and refreshments were served. The birthday cake was decorated with pink candles. Mrs. C. C. Jefferson assisted the hostess in serving. Guests were Donna Jefferson, Dorothy Miller, Annabelle Bennett, Billie McClooughy, Leslie Klump, Miss Bibby, Bertie Jefferson, Clyde Jefferson, Raymond Bibby and Gerald Bennett.

Miss Ethel Crathoe of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, arrived this weekend to be the guest of Miss Deena Hart.

Future Weeks Hold Many Events of Interest And Variety

THE days ahead for the next few weeks should entice the attention of those maids and matrons who come and go at will to the things of interest here and there. If variety in the spice of life then the days will not be flat for there is being planned several things not in the ordinary scheme of things.

Among these will be the splendid outdoor garden show which will be held in Willson park June 4 and 5. Here in a natural setting the best flowers of the city and valley will be arranged for the pleasure of those many garden lovers of the valley.

The Willamette Valley Flower show has each year enlisted the interest of more and more of the socially minded until this year a large part of society will bend efforts toward making the affair not only a technical flower show of keen competition for the best plants, but there will also be added a tea room, lectures, illustrated lectures, and that note of sociability which adds attraction to any cooperative activity.

An event which will draw the attention of a large part of Salem is being planned by a young visitor who is here for the summer, Miss Elizabeth Waters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Waters. Miss Waters has been in the east for the past three years where she first studied with Perry Mansfield school of the dance, then with Dennishawn, and last year taught in a Boston studio the Dennishawn method and also took special work in New York.

The young visitor plans a recital in the near future and to this her many friends in the city will be invited, and will come no doubt with keen interest. A definite date is soon to be set.

A lovely exhibit, rare for Salem, will be that which is being placed in the Gilbert studio from June 2 to 9 by the University of Oregon art department.

The exhibit has been on display in the art galleries to Meier and Frank's store. It is a collection of sculpturing done by students in the university. The exhibit is in charge of Maurice Huddkins and will be open to the public. Patrons and patronesses will be named for each day.

Social interest is being stirred by the marriage of Miss Jean Middleton who will become the bride of William McCallister of Medford June 4. Both Mr. McCallister and Miss Middleton are well known in Salem where they are popular. Miss Middleton has been the inspiration for several attractive affairs within the past weeks. The marriage will take place in Salem.

Miss Viola Dell Crozer is expected home this weekend from her teaching position in Castle Rock where she has been instructor in high school commerce the past year. She will spend part of the summer at least with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Crozer.

Guests of Mr. Edith Morehouse, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Flavia Downs, Miss Jessie Stover, Miss Mary France Henderson, Miss Cora Edgel, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Emylin Griggs, Miss Charlotte Hill, and Carl Mason, Dick Terpenning, Robert Mason, Jack Lundard, Robert Brady, Merle Watta, Stewart Bush, Alva Rafferty and Delbert Anderson.

Members of the Town and Country club will be guests of Mrs. George A. White at her home on Bellevue street Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jennie Prensall of Salem is a weekend guest of relatives at Rosedale.

Salem Rebekahs Have Busy Week

Salem Rebekahs have been laying plans for the past week for many of the number to attend the state Grand lodge which will convene in Eugene Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Monday night at least 100 visitors from Silveston, Stayton, and Corvallis were present for the lodge meeting. Mrs. Anna Hunsaker was program chairman for the meeting. Initiation of candidates was a part of the evening's exhibition.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Luella Engstrom entertained for members of the past noble grands at her home. Miss Myrtle and Miss Ethel McClay and Mrs. Moore, mother of Mrs. Engstrom, were additional guests.

Thursday evening Dorothy Franks entertained for members of the P. L. club at her home. Present were Bernice Ziekle, Wilda Fleenor, Evelyn Hesseman, Ruth Harbaugh, Deena Hart, Helen and Hazel McElroy, Lulu and Myrtle McClay, Mildred Martin, and Evelyn Naderman.

Plans were made for a benefit card party to be given by the P. L. club within the near future.

An attractive dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Grabenhorst on Fir street, complimented a group of high school young people with Coburn Grabenhorst as host Friday night.

An attractive background of spring flowers in large baskets had been arranged for the guest room and here, with jolly cap favors and other amusing novelties, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when Mrs. Grabenhorst assisted by Miss Virginia Cross, served supper.
